Chapter 1886

Chapter 1886

"What big move." Hayden said indifferently.

"He offered a reward of 100 million to find the detailed information and photos of Billy." Mike couldn't help laughing, "This 100 million is a good profit. I really want to make this money."

Hayden: "It's not promising."

After Said these words, Hayden hung up the phone.

Mike is still happy. He just said that he could not make this 100 million.

However, if he doesn't make this 100 million now, Norah Jones will be able to make this 100 million in a short time.

After all, Norah Jones will be able to see Billy's 'real face' soon.

Norah Jones wore a dark red tight dress today, showing her slender figure to the greatest extent.

She put on a light make-up, and her hair was pulled back, concise and elegant.

She drove alone to the address provided by Billy.

This was the closest high-end club to the Dream Makers headquarters.

According to the senior brother, the executives of their Dream Makers had formed a team here before. However, when the team was built before, Billy did not participate.

Billy asked her to meet at this club today, and she doesn't know what wonderful collision will happen.

Norah drove the car to the door of the clubhouse, and the clubhouse parking staff immediately helped her park the car.

Entering the lobby of the clubhouse, after she explained to the staff that she had an appointment with Billy, the staff immediately took her to the private room where Billy was.

Norah Jones's heart started beating wildly. She's going to see Billy soon. She doesn't know what Billy looks like or how old he is.

Norah Jones lost sleep last night and thought about it all night. She could accept that Billy was ugly. After all, Billy is so low-key and never shows up, presumably because of his looks, he can't make a appearance.

Real handsome guys and beauties are definitely not ashamed to meet people, let alone express themselves in public.

Norah didn't care if Billy was ugly, as long as Billy wasn't too old and his character wasn't too bad.

Alternatively, Billy's age was acceptable.

This means that Norah doesn't have to serve Billy for many years before she can get Billy's inheritance.

Norah is afraid that Billy is not only ugly, but also young and has a bad personality.

After a short while, the staff stood in front of the private room, knocked on the door, and said respectfully, "Mr. Billy, Ms. Jones is here."

With a 'squeak', the bodyguard in the door opened the door.

"Ms. Jones, come in!" The staff said this to Norah Jones with a smile, and then walked away.

Norah Jones took a deep breath and strode towards the private room.

Looking into the room at a glance, She saw a wheelchair with its back facing the direction of the door.

–Billy is in a wheelchair? !

–Disabled?

With a 'bang', after Norah Jones entered the room, the door was closed by the bodyguard.

"Ms. Jones." A strange male voice came from the wheelchair.

Immediately, the wheelchair turned towards Norah Jones.

Norah Jones widened her eyes and saw the man in the wheelchair.

Norah Jones was stunned and Shocked for a moment, her brain went blank and stopped.

Insomnia last night, she thought about countless possibilities, but she didn't think that the reality was different from any of the possibilities she imagined.

Billy's appearance is really ugly, his nose and eyes seem to fly out at any time, especially when he talks.

And his voice was not good, too, quack like a duck, and it sounded harsh.

His age...not a good guess.

He doesn't look very old, but he might be.

The reason why Norah Jones couldn't guess his age was because he was the first man with dwarfism that Norah Jones knew.

Chapter 1887

Norah Jones was 1.65 meters tall, and the high heels she was wearing today made her at least 1.7 meters tall.

And this man in a wheelchair was about one meter away!

Norah Jones couldn't accept such a blow.

Even if she just came to discuss cooperation with him, she couldn't face this man with a normal heart.

"Why does Ms. Jones look at me like this?" 'Billy' looked at Norah Jones with a cold tone, "Is it because she dislike my physical disability and my ugly appearance?"

Norah Jones quickly came back to her senses and shook her head. : "No. I'm just shocked. I'm shocked by your perseverance, hard work and entrepreneurial spirit."

"Oh, I'm disabled, right?" 'Billy' opened his mouth with an ugly smile.

"Mr. Billy, I definitely didn't laugh at your disability. Besides, in my opinion, you are not disabled at all." Norah Jones explained quickly, "I don't know much about your situation, so it's inconvenient to say more. But I...I really didn't look down on you."

'Billy' jumped out of the wheelchair, seeing that she was being sincere.

He was standing on the ground, when the height difference between them really showed.

Norah Jones guessed that his height might be about one meter, but now he looked down at his real height, which was comparable to her guess.

Of course she couldn't marry such a man.

It's just...

the normal life expectancy of dwarfism patients, She doesn't know if it will be lower than normal people.

If so, she is not unacceptable.

Bridgedale.

TV Building.

A black sedan stopped in front of the building.

The car door opened, and Wanda stepped out of the car.

In recent years, Wanda has been living in Bridgedale.

However, Bridgedale is very big, so Wanda and Avery never met.

Wanda has acquired a large amount of assets from Aryadelle. In the past two years, she has not thought about making a comeback, but the development momentum of the Tate Industries led by Norah Jones is too strong, so Wanda has been watching the changes.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the Dream Maker Group was born!

The appearance of the Dream Makers Group made Wanda think of her deceased husband.

Wanda knew Jack Tate's wish better than anyone else.

Like others, Wanda felt that Jack Tate was daydreaming. Even because Jack Tate insisted on investing money in the research and development of driverless chips, the two quarreled several times.

Wanda did not expect that someone had really researched this technology and put it into use in the automotive industry.

Before the Dream Maker's car was officially sold, Wanda ordered one in advance.

After the car arrived, she immediately drove on the road. Unexpectedly, the experience was much better than she imagined.

This technology is very mature, and She doesn't know how long the team has been quietly developing it behind the scenes.

She was very interested in the boss of the dream maker, so she dared to contact Billy, but the top management responded and could not help her contact the boss.

Wanda was not discouraged. She spent a lot of money to secretly find someone to inquire about Billy's identity.

Today, she accepted an invitation from a friend to record a talk show about entrepreneurs.

Although she has not worked for more than two years, her network in Bridgedale has been completely opened.

So life can be considered colorful and very moist.

At one o'clock in the afternoon, Wanda finished recording the program and came out of the TV building.

On the other side, Norah Jones looked ashen, and was helped out by the staff of the clubhouse.

The staff called a chauffeur for her and took her home.

When she got home, she immediately went into the bathroom, turned on the shower, closed her clothes, and rinsed.

Chapter 1888

The sound of water dripped down from the top of her head, mixed with her tears.

Her cell phone rang. Her brother was curious about the outcome of her meeting with Billy, so he called her.

Her mobile phone was in the bag, and the bag was thrown on the ground by her.

Half an hour later, she came out of the shower, the towel on her body tightly wrapped her body.

Her face was still pale, her eyes were dull, and she seemed to be greatly stimulated.

She went to the living room and picked up the bag from the floor.

She was very scared and wanted to find someone to accompany her, but she didn't know who to look for.

She took her phone out of her bag, opened it, and saw her brother's missed call at a glance.

While she was hesitating, senior brother's phone called again.

Her fingers trembled and she accidentally answered the phone.

Senior brother: "Norah, have you finished meeting my boss? How is it? What does my boss look like? Is he easy to get along with? What did the two of you talk about?"

Norah choked out a sentence: "He, he...is a pervert!"

The senior brother was stunned: "He bullied you? Is it because you are too beautiful? We usually exchange emails with him, and I think he is quite normal. "

"Don't mention him to me again! Don't mention him again!" Norah Jones screamed frantically, as if she was going to go crazy in the next second. Her screams echoed throughout the apartment, as if she were in a horror movie set.

“Oh... well, where are you now? I’m a little worried about you. Would you like me to accompany you?” the senior brother said, “By the way, Elliot offered a reward for 100 million to buy my boss’s photo and Detailed information.”

When Norah Jones heard the words ‘Elliot’, her reason returned to her body.

Before meeting Billy today, she had already crossed out Elliot’s name in her mind.

She compared Elliot and Billy, and felt that Elliot was inferior to Billy in every aspect.

Now, she feels like a joke!

Compared with Billy, Elliot is the God!

Don’t say that Elliot only has one Avery in his heart, even if he has ten Avery in his heart, he is better than that perverted man!

Norah hung up her brother’s phone, then found Elliot’s number in the address book, and dialed it without thinking. Elliot wanted to know Billy’s appearance and detailed information, and she could tell him now.

After the call was connected, Elliot’s voice was displeased: “What’s the matter?”

Hearing his cold and sullen voice, Norah suddenly realized that it was late at night in Aryadelle.

“I...I heard that you offered a reward of 100 million to find information about Billy...” Norah stumbled to finish the sentence.

“Do you know his information?” Elliot rubbed his aching temples.

“I...” Norah Jones wanted to say ‘I know’, but if she did, Elliot would definitely ask ‘how did you know’.

How will she explain it then?

Billy didn’t see anyone except her, and she couldn’t explain how to explain it.

“I heard a little...” To be safe, Norah decided to obfuscate what she knew. “I have a friend who said she met Billy.”

“What friend? How did your friend meet Billy? “What?” Elliot questioned.

“She didn’t tell me the specifics. She just told me that Billy was ugly and short... Said he might have dwarfism.” Norah Jones said this, her voice trembled, “Not only that, he also has special hobbies.”

Elliot stomped and sat up from the bed.

–Was Norah Jones lying and deliberately slandering Billy?

–How could Avery find such a boyfriend?

–Is Avery crazy? Even if she was stimulated, she wouldn't spoil herself so much!
