

Chapter 1760

“Jun, You still call him Brother Elliot?!” Tammy stared at him and asked, “Didn’t you say that you have no contact with him?”

Jun blushed: “Actually, it was because of him. Ignore me, that’s why we stopped contacting.”

Tammy: “Hehe, people have ignored you, and you are still acting like a dog!”

“Tammy, stop scolding. There’s a saying that goes well, stay a line in everything in the future. We don’t need to cut ties with Brother Elliot because of their divorce. What if the two of them reconcile in the future? If that’s the case, then how embarrassing we are!”

Jun expressed his thoughts “It’s not like this happened.”

Tammy couldn’t help laughing, “Do you think the two of them can get back together? How dare you think about it! Elliot almost put the knife on Avery’s neck.”

Jun cleared his throat: “I remember that Avery stabbed Brother Elliot with a knife before, and stabbed Brother Elliot directly into the ICU. Didn’t the two of them reconcile later? ”

Tammy blinked, and the memory gradually emerged.

“Have you watched ‘Journey to the West’?” Jun teased in a relaxed tone, “Look at Tang Sanzang(Tripitaka or Tang monk), master and apprentice, Sun Wukong(Monkey King) how many times they broke up and broke up in the process of going through ninety-nine-eighty-one hardships. Are you all right?”

Tammy looked at him with a startled expression: “Then who do you think is Tang Sanzang(Tripitaka or Tang monk) and Sun Wukong(Monkey King)?!”

Jun: “I didn’t think about it specifically. I just thought they were a bit similar.”

“I...I think Elliot is the Monkey King and Avery is the Tang monk.” Tammy followed this topic, her mind widened, “No, every time the Monkey King is right, it is the Tang monk who misunderstands the Monkey King... So Avery is the Monkey King, Elliot is a Tang monk... and that’s not right! How could that b*stard Elliot be a merciful and compassionate Tang monk? Tang monk dumped him a hundred streets!”

“Okay, don’t be angry. I just said it casually. We still think What food do you want to buy!” Jun avoided the topic.

Tammy: “Eat mutton hot pot! I want to cook mutton as soon as it’s cold.”

Jun said, “Does Avery and Hayden like it? Don’t just the two of us like it. Anyone likes it if we buy whatever we want to eat.”

“Avery is not a picky eater, she can eat anything except spicy.” Speaking of which,

Tammy was moved, “Avery’s personality is also the same, she treats the people around her like this. People are very tolerant. It must be Elliot's fault that she doesn't get along with Elliot."

Jun said weakly, "Brother Elliot is also nice to the people around him."

Tammy: "He ignores you, and you still speak for him! "

Jun: "Didn't Avery ignore you for a few months before? Allow Avery to heal in silence, but can't let Brother Elliot be quiet?"

"You want to be mad at me?" Tammy resisted the urge to tug at his ears, to reason with him, "Elliot stole Avery's Tate Industries, and now he is going to destroy Avery's AN Technology. Is this something normal people can do?"

Jun: "This's not true. But I think Brother Elliot must be mad, otherwise he wouldn't be so cruel."

Tammy: "He's mad? He left his wife and children and went to Yonroeville to find a mistress and an illegitimate daughter, and he was still mad. "

Jun: "Stop! Let's stop talking about this..."

"I have to. I can't stand it anymore. I have to scold him!" Tammy took out her phone and planned to find Elliot "He doesn't answer the phone, right? Then I'll text him!"

Tammy opened whatsapp, found Elliot's avatar, opened the dialog box, and turned on the crazy voice mode.

—Elliot, you are f*cking human! When Avery met you, it was like eight lifetimes of blood mold! Poisonous bees are not as poisonous as you! The Tate Industries is not yours alone, why did you hand over the company to the new person in charge without Avery's consent?

—You still want to bring down AN Technology? ! What good is it for you to kill Avery for nothing? ! What you do, the whole world is watching! Including your three kids! When I return home, I will tell Layla how bad you are to Avery! When Layla grows up, Layla will definitely leave you as soon as possible!

After Tammy made two long speeches without panting, Jun pulled the car to the side of the road and stopped.

"Tammy, that's enough!" Jun frowned and stopped her.

Just when Jun was going to tell Tammy to stop being so impulsive, Tammy's cell phone rang.
