

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2006

“Mom, do you have a solution?” Norah raised her eyebrows, puzzled, “What can you do? Mom, are you hiding something from me?”

Norah was so shocked because her mother was just an ordinary woman. After her mother and father got married, she has been a housewife at home, and she has not worked a day at work.

Madelyn looked into the distance, and after a few seconds, nodded: “Norah, I do have something to hide from you. The reason why I didn’t tell you is because you don’t have to know about it... But if you are really in danger.”

Norah stopped and waited for her mother to finish her words.

“Norah, have you heard of Travis Jones?” Madelyn was afraid that she would not know, so she continued, “Boss of MH Group.”

Norah nodded and asked, “Do you know Travis Jones? What is your relationship? Or... you have a relationship with him?”

“Norah, you are so smart, you can guess right... You are Travis Jones’s daughter.”

Norah’s body tensed up, and the look in her mother’s eyes became unfamiliar!

“When you said you wanted to study abroad, I asked Travis for help. The reason why you can go to such a good university is because of his help. He originally wanted to pay you tuition fees, but I didn’t. I’m afraid your father will be suspicious. With your later work in Bridgedale, and Travis to help.”

Norah’s belief completely collapsed after hearing this.

For a long time, she thought that she was admitted to such a good university and got an offer from a big company because of her own strength... She didn’t expect it to be because of Travis’s relationship!

“Travis is so kind to me, why doesn’t he recognize his daughter?” Norah asked sarcastically.

“He prefers sons over daughters. And the relationship between the Jones family is too complicated. If I send you to the Jones family, I don’t know if you will survive until now.”

Madelyn said, “Now if you are in danger, I will let him save you and he will definitely save you. After all, you are his biological daughter.”

.....

Bridgedale.

Avery felt ill.

After she fainted, she fell into a terrible dream, and it was difficult to wake up from the nightmare.

When Mike came in to see her, he reached out and probed her forehead and found that she had a fever.

Mike immediately went to the doctor to give her an injection.

When the doctor gave her the needle, she could feel it. She could even hear their conversation, but she couldn't open her eyes or get up.

She didn't want to wake up either.

Elliot died, and so did her heart.
