

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2037

Avery: "she is your cousin after all. I understand that you didn't tell me right away. When I return home, I will thank you in person."

Katalina: "No, no. I hope you can find Mr. Foster soon. That way I can feel better."

Avery: "Well, we'll definitely find him."

After a while, Ben Schaffer learned of Norah's movements from the airport.

Ben Schaffer called Avery: "Avery, Norah has gone to Bridgedale! She will land in an hour. Take someone to the airport to intercept her."

Avery took the mobile phone and walked out of the room.

The nanny heard the movement and came out.

"Miss Tate, where are you going? Aren't you injured?" The nanny asked Avery in confusion when she saw that she was holding the car keys.

After the nanny asked, Mike walked out of the room.

Mike: "Avery, are you going out?"

Avery: "I'm going to the airport! Norah will land right away!"

"Norah? What are you looking for her for?" Mike took her arm, "Have you forgotten your abdominal injury? You can't go out!"

"I have to go out! Elliot and I almost died in Yonroeville, and Norah did it! Her cousin heard her talking on the phone, and set this trap!" Avery walked to the door and quickly changed her shoes.

Mike followed her into changing shoes.

"Norah...she should be Travis's daughter." Mike told Avery the news he had just found, "I just found Norah is Travis's daughter tonight. I was going to tell you tomorrow."

"It's not surprising..." Avery felt as if her heart was being clenched tightly, and it was about to be crushed, "I and Elliot were trapped in that basement, and most people couldn't find it there. Unless it's the one who set the trap!"

"Avery, you wait at home, I and the bodyguards will go to the airport to find Norah!"

Mike was afraid that her wound would be torn, so he took her arm and wanted to keep her at home.

"No! I have to go and catch Norah myself! I want to know where Elliot was hidden by them! I don't want to wait for a second!" Avery finished speaking and shook off Mike's arm.

Mike exhaled: "Okay, let's go together!"

After Mike helped her into the car, he started the car, and at the same time called the bodyguards and asked them to wait at the airport immediately.
after an hour.

Norah's flight landed slowly at the airport in Bridgedale.

After Norah got off the plane, she turned on the phone.

Several missed calls jumped out.

There was a call from Ben Schaffer and a call from Katalina.

The two of them called her together... something must have happened.

Norah gritted her teeth. She knew that Katalina, a little b*tch, didn't like her, and she would definitely shake her affairs out!

Fortunately, she runs fast, otherwise, if she stays in Aryadelle, it's not because they want to treat her as they want!

Norah stood there and found Travis's phone and dialed it.

"Why hasn't Norah come out yet?" Mike glanced at the time. "Her flight has long since landed. Did she know that we were blocking her here, so she didn't dare to come out?"

"Shouldn't she ask Travis to protect her?" The bodyguard expressed his guess.

"Travis doesn't seem to recognize her." Mike felt uneasy in his heart.

Although Travis did not recognize Norah, over the years, Travis has secretly helped Norah several times.

It shows that Travis has this daughter in his heart.

Now Norah is in trouble, maybe Travis will really help.

After they don't know how long they waited, Norah's figure finally appeared!

She dragged a white suitcase and gave them a weird smile.
