

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed

Chapter 498

Chapter 498 Shipping

However, looking at the compliments online, Vivian felt a little guilty. After all, it was not her who saved the woman. She just did what she could.

Therefore, she complained about what Arno did. She thought he shouldn't have brought the old woman here today.

The answer Vivian got surprised her. "You don't have to be modest. You deserve it."

"You did a great job."

Looking at the news online, Melissa nodded with satisfaction. Just now, she confirmed the authenticity of the news with Vivian's agent. Then Melissa let the company's Public Relations Department keep the trending topic and maintain Vivian's popularity for a while.

Someone knocked on the office door. Melissa looked up. "Come in."

It was Jaylin. He nodded politely at Melissa.

"What's wrong?" Melissa did not expect Jaylin to come and was a little surprised.

"My agent said that there are a few scripts for me to choose from. He is now training his new entertainer, so I'm here to ask for your opinion." Jaylin's deep gaze fell on Melissa.

Hearing Jaylin say this, Melissa realized that Jaylin was popular right now, and it was perfect timing to let Jaylin start a new play.

Just as Melissa got up, she caught a glimpse of the computer screen and paused.

"Is there a problem?" Jaylin looked at Melissa and asked in confusion.

Melissa shook her head and picked up a stack of scripts from the bookshelf.

However, she did not give them to Jaylin.

"These won't do."

Melissa briefly looked at the scripts and found that the characters were similar to the character that Jaylin had played last time. Though it was good to create a new persona with Jaylin's current popularity, it would also limit Jaylin's path.

"Jaylin, do you want to play the same role as the last one?"

Jaylin shook his head without hesitation. As the best actor, he should challenge himself ceaselessly.

"I've decided to customize a TV series," Melissa said.

"For me?"

"Partly." Melissa clapped her hands and let Jaylin take a look at the news about Vivian on her computer.

"You will be the male lead, and Vivian will be the female lead."

Though Jaylin saw the trending topic about Vivian today, he did not take it seriously.

Jaylin was somehow intrigued when he saw so much praise from the news media.

But he thought of something else.

"It'll be a positive idol drama. Now that Vivian is so popular, such publicity suits you both." After saying that, Melissa looked up, yet she saw Jaylin's hesitant expression.

"Is there a problem?" asked Melissa.

Jaylin came to his senses and asked softly, "Can you change the male lead?"

Vivian suddenly confessed her love to him the last time, which made things awkward between them. And now, they were about to participate in the same drama. Jaylin felt that before Vivian sorted things out herself, they should keep their distance.

Jaylin was upset when he thought of Vivian's frustrated appearance that day. She was hurt, but she still pretended to be strong.

"You two have earned countless shippers since last time. They want to see you two interact again," Melissa said lightly.

"Well..." Jaylin frowned slightly.

"We should take advantage of the popularity of you and Vivian right now. Your shipping will only bring us good."

The overlapping of persona could be a bit tiresome, but this shipping wouldn't. On the contrary, it would be a publicity stunt.

Jaylin knew clearly about these. He had no choice and could only agree.

"Good. I will send you the script in a few days." Melissa nodded.

Jaylin then turned and left the office. He glanced at his Timeline and found that Vivian had posted a photo of the filming.

"Mr. Segar!"

At this moment, Jaylin's agent's voice from behind interrupted his daze.

"What script did you choose?" Seeing that Jaylin was empty-handed, his agent could not help but ask.

"Melissa said that she would customize a drama." Jaylin put his phone back into his pocket and replied calmly.