

The Mans Decree Chapter 1267

Chapter 1267 Illusion

Another lightning tribulation struck Kai's body.

It was so terrifying that Cecilia was sent flying backward.

"Quick, hide in the room!" Kai roared.
Startled, Cecilia ran into her room hastily.

After the two lightning tribulations struck Kai, his body was burnt to a crisp.

The Nascent Soul within Kai's body glowed brighter.

Kai's entire being was covered in a golden glow. The black stuff on his body started peeling off. The wounds and scars on Kai's body had all disappeared.

Right then, Kai's skin was fairer than newborns as though he had been reborn.

Inside the room, Cecilia gaped in shock.

Kai tried to control his body so he could stand up.

Soon, he was able to move his hands and legs. Kai could finally stand up.
He was radiant and glowing.

The moment he stood up, he sensed a cooling sensation down below. Looking down, he nearly got the shock of his life when he realized he was stark naked.

Kai noticed Cecilia was looking at him through the window and nearly died in embarrassment.

His fingers moved to create an illusion that hid him completely.

Kai couldn't stand being watched when he was naked.

Besides, he needed to focus on the lightning tribulation.

Soon, dark clouds gathered, signifying the arrival of the third lightning tribulation.

Rumble, rumble!

The third lightning tribulation arrived. A bolt of lightning darted out of the dark clouds as though it was a slinky snake and crashed into Kai's body forcefully.

Even Crimson Palace was shaking from the impact of the lightning tribulation.

Many people were jolted awake from their sleep.

Staring at the scene outside, they dared not step out of their room. They had no idea why the weather suddenly turned so bad late at night.

They didn't know that Kai was the cause.

The lightning tribulation struck Kai and increased the golden glow on his body.

The Nascent Soul seemed to be growing as it was two times bigger than before.

Rumble, rumble!

Another lightning tribulation arrived.

Kai folded his legs and shut his eyes. Using his spiritual sense, he observed Nascent Soul quietly instead of checking his body.

As long as his Nascent Soul remained intact, he wouldn't die. Even if his body were to rot and disappear, he could recover slowly.

Crack!

The lightning tribulation that contained the energy of heaven and earth landed on Kai's body yet again.

Each lightning tribulation's power was stronger than the last.

The golden glow in Kai's body would fix his skin and his flesh the moment they were torn apart.

Fortunately, Cecilia couldn't see him as he had formed an illusion. Otherwise, she would be shocked to see him in that condition.

Rumble, rumble!

A total of ten lightning tribulations struck Kai.

Soon, the black clouds in the sky faded away, signaling the end of the lightning tribulations.

However, Kai wasn't pleased with the ten lightning tribulations that landed on him.

The stronger the lightning tribulation was, the better it would be to fortify Kai's body.

"I need another lightning tribulation!" he declared.

Lifting his head, Kai waved his right arm and shot a golden light to the black clouds.

The black clouds soon gathered together again.

After whizzing around in the black clouds, the golden light came back to Kai.

Kai was using his strength to create a lightning tribulation. If someone else were to witness that scene, they would drop their jaws wide in amazement.

Many feared losing their lives when their lightning tribulation came, for they could be pulverized by the lightning that struck them.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1268

Chapter 1268 A Breakthrough

It was shocking that Kai created a lightning tribulation to build himself a strong body.

Rumble, rumble!

The lightning tribulation struck Kai, and he was crushed into pieces.

Kai's spiritual sense could even see his body being pulverized.

Soon, Kai's body was rebuilt as Nascent Soul glowed softly.

The black clouds in the sky dispersed. The golden glow on Kai disappeared, but his skin was glowing lightly. It was radiated by his own body.

Through his spiritual sense, Kai saw that his Nascent Soul's glow had changed. He could also sense Nascent Soul's aura.

So this is Nascent Soul of a Martial Arts Marquis.

A glint flashed across Kai's eyes as his body turned translucent like crystal.

"Mr. Chance!" Cecilia ran out of her room after the black clouds disappeared from sight.

Kai waved his hand and got rid of the illusion. At once, his naked body appeared before Cecilia.

A blush crept up Cecilia's cheeks as she tossed the clothes she was holding to him.

Kai put on the clothes hastily. He was so embarrassed that he didn't know what to say.

"Cecilia, what happened just now?" Millie ran over.

She had fallen into a deep sleep after consuming the pill, but the commotion created by the lightning tribulations woke her up.

After running into the yard, Millie froze in her tracks when she saw Kai.

After giving him the once-over, she screamed hysterically, "A ghost! Oh, dear, a ghost!"

Millie paled in fright and ran to hide behind Cecilia's back.

"Hey, you're the ghost. Have you ever seen such a handsome ghost?" Kai joked as Millie seemed frightened of him.

She thought I was dead, so it is normal for her to get scared to see me alive and well.

"Millie, Kai didn't die. He's not a ghost," Cecilia explained cheerfully.

Sticking her head out, Millie observed Kai and asked, "Even if Kai is alive, he looks different! He was wounded and his bones were crushed. Why can he stand up now?"

Cecilia was at a loss for words, stumped after hearing Millie's question. She was still confused about many things.

"I have a treasure to rebuild my body. That was why I recovered this quickly. If you don't trust me, come and pinch me to see if I'm a ghost!" Kai told the little girl as a smile flitted across his lips.

Slowly, Millie went over to him and pinched his arm forcefully.

"Hey, that hurts!" Kai pretended that her pinch had hurt him.

Seeing that, Millie grew excited. "Oh, you're really Kai! You're not a ghost!"

Suddenly, she burst into tears and threw herself at Kai.

"I was so scared as I thought you died just like that," she wailed.

"I'm fine. Everything is fine," Kai consoled her.

Kai, Millie, and Cecilia stayed up the entire night so they could chat in Cecilia's room.

When the sun rose the following day from the east, Kai glanced out of the window and rose to his feet slowly.

Cecilia and Millie said nothing for they had already said what they wanted during the night.

They knew Kai had to leave to do his own thing.

Kai left Crimson Palace without looking back. He was afraid he couldn't control his feelings if he were to do that.

"David Norton, now that I'm a Martial Arts Marquis, I shall use the Norton family to establish my authority," Kai declared with a cruel gleam in his eyes.

As he was now a Martial Arts Marquis, it was time for him to deal with the remaining matters.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1269

Chapter 1269 Missing Home

The entire Jadeborough martial arts world had erupted into an uproar after the news of David killing Kai spread everywhere.

Kai was recently the talk of the town, but he died just like that.

Some felt sad about his death, while some couldn't contain their glee.

In the Jadeborough Department of Justice, Mr. Sanders was sitting in his chair silently with an ugly scowl on his face.

Theodore and Xavier from the Law Enforcement Department stood beside him. None of them dared to utter a word.

A tense silence ensued in the Department of Justice.

Recently, Mr. Sanders often showed up in the Department of Justice. As the General, Theodore was stressed out by his presence.

"How is this possible? This is not possible. There's no way Kai would die just like that. I know his ability," Mr. Sanders muttered under his breath.

"Mr. Sanders, it was David Norton who spread the news of Kai's death. He also disseminated a few photos. Besides, Mr. Chance is not David's match. David is an experienced Martial Arts Marquis. No matter how talented Mr. Chance is, he isn't capable of defeating David," Theodore explained.

He clicked into the martial arts forum and found several photos of Kai posted by David.

Kai's body was in a gruesome state, and it was obvious that he was dead.

Mr. Sanders fell silent at the sight of Kai's photos. A while later, he told Xavier, "Captain Jennings, tell me about your recent findings."

“Mr. Sanders, Demonic Cultivators have appeared frequently in different places recently. Some Demonic Cultivation organizations even started advertising themselves to get martial trainees. I’ve destroyed a few Demonic Cultivation organizations, but they are small fry. The big Demonic Cultivation organizations are nowhere to be seen. Compared to the last few years, those demonic cultivators are indeed more active lately,” Xavier reported honestly.

“Looks like the situation isn’t chaotic enough for the big fish to reveal themselves.” Mr. Sanders sighed and said nothing else.

Back in the Medicine God Sect, Rayleigh started trembling after he learned of Kai’s death.

“How is this possible? This is impossible. Just impossible!” Rayleigh refused to believe that Kai was killed.

I refuse to accept this! I did everything for Kai and Ms. Beatrice, but Kai died just like that. This is so upsetting!

Tears streamed down Rayleigh’s cheeks as he lifted his head and roared, “Why? Why is this happening to me? Why are the bad guys in power while the good guys die at a young age?”

Hatred flashed across Rayleigh’s eyes. I hate fate and those hypocrites!

Alas, he was an ordinary human and couldn’t do anything.

“Ms. Beatrice, I’ve let you down. I’ve failed you! When can you come back again?” Rayleigh sprawled on the ground and burst into tears.

Right then, Lizbeth, Melanie, and Lyanna showed up. They were surprised to see Rayleigh wailing his heart out.

They didn’t pay attention to the martial arts forum and didn’t know that Kai was dead.

“Mr. Deragon, what’s wrong?” Lizbeth asked in surprise.

Melanie and Lyanna chimed in, “Yeah, what’s wrong, Mr. Deragon?”

Rayleigh scrambled to his feet and wiped his tears away. Forcing out a smile, he said, “Oh, it’s nothing. New Year is coming, and I was missing home.”

“Missing home?”

Melanie couldn’t hide her surprise. “Mr. Deragon, you don’t have a home! I’ve been with you for years. We only have each other to depend on. You’ve never told me about your home. Besides, you’ve never gone home!”

The Mans Decree Chapter 1270

Chapter 1270 Die Together

"Uh, I have never told you about it."

Rayleigh seemed flustered as Melanie exposed him immediately. He stuffed his phone into his pocket hastily.

He didn't want Lizbeth to discover that Kai was dead, as the blow might be too big for her to bear.

As Rayleigh seemed unsettled, Lizbeth asked, "Mr. Deragon, are you hiding something from us? Why did you put your phone away?"

"N-No, I did nothing of the sort," Rayleigh explained hurriedly.

When Rayleigh wasn't paying attention, Lizbeth quickly fished his phone out of his pocket.

She unlocked his phone and saw the news that David had taken Kai's life. At once, she froze in her tracks.

She couldn't believe that, but the sight of the photos caused her to collapse to the ground. It was as though her soul had been sucked out of her body.

The phone dropped to the ground as Lizbeth stared ahead in a daze.

She refused to believe it.

"No, this is not true. It's not true!" Lizbeth declared before she broke into tears.

Lyanna and Melanie comforted her hastily. However, they both fell silent after learning that Kai was killed.

Kai's death had dealt a huge blow to them.

Rayleigh was still sobbing silently. He did not know how to comfort the girls.

Everyone cried for so long until their tears were dried up.

Slowly, Lizbeth got to her feet. Her eyes were dry as they flashed with murderous intent.

"I shall kill everyone in the Norton family to avenge Kai so he can rest in peace!" She gritted her teeth as a dangerous aura swirled around her body.

"Lizbeth, calm down. Kai isn't David's match. You're only seeking death!" Rayleigh advised her.

"Kai's dead, so there's no point for me to live on. If I can't avenge him, I'll take my own life! I don't want him to be lonely," Lizbeth declared in a cold tone.

She was no longer a frail woman but a machine devoid of emotion, wanting to take revenge.

"Lizbeth, I'll go with you," Lyanna told her.

"Me, too! Count me in," Melanie chimed in.

Rayleigh let out a long sigh as he glanced at the three ladies.

He offered, "I shall accompany you to Jadeborough then. However, you can't act recklessly if you want to avenge Kai."

As they had made up their minds, Rayleigh decided to take them back to Jadeborough.

They would do everything in their power to avenge Kai!

In Village of Villains, Leviathan flew into a fit of rage after he learned that Kai had been killed.

He found the news shocking, but the gory photos of Kai posted on the martial arts forum were pretty convincing.

Leviathan's Shadow Estate was one of the regiments of the Dragon Sect. Now that the overlord, Kai, was dead, he was bound by duty to avenge his death.

"Mr. Chance, don't worry. I shall avenge you!" Leviathan declared as a wintry glint appeared in his eyes.

Colin's eyes were red from crying. Clenching his jaw, he said, "Dad, let's bring our men to the Norton residence to avenge Kai!"

"We're no match for the Norton family. After The Villainous Four recover and come out of seclusion, we shall attack the Norton residence together! As long as I am still alive, I shall do my best to destroy the Norton family!"

Leviathan knew well that they weren't capable enough of seeking revenge for Kai.

The Villainous Four were recuperating in Pentacarna Tower. After they came out of seclusion, Leviathan wanted to join forces with them and attack the Norton family together.

Even if they had to risk their lives, they would drag the Norton family down in order to avenge Kai.