

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2396

• • •

Chapter 2396

“Okay. If there is a follow-up result, someone from the Tate Industries will contact you. Please keep your mobile phone open.”

The HR manager has already sensed from Gloria Wiens’s tone that she also yearns for the Tate Industries.

The personnel manager didn’t tell her that Avery wanted to interview her.

Because the initiative was better in the hands of the recruiter.

Besides, Gloria Wiens’s resume was really not outstanding, Avery could easily recruit people better than her.

“Okay, thank you!” Gloria Wiens thanked again. After talking on the phone, Gloria Wiens was so excited that she lost her appetite when she faced the food on the table.

She was actually mentally prepared. Under her conditions, she would definitely not be able to join Sterling Group as an assistant to the president. Unless the position she applied for is very ordinary, it is possible to get in.

But in a very ordinary position, she couldn't get in touch with Elliot.

Unexpectedly Avery was also recruiting assistants! That's great!

After The Miss submitted her resume to Sterling Group yesterday, she stopped opening the recruitment software.

Avery's recruitment of assistants was not as popular as Elliot's recruitment of assistants, so she only now knew that Avery was also recruiting assistants.

In fact, if she could choose, of course she would prefer to go to Avery's side.

Only by going to Avery, could the Miss find out more quickly whether the Jobin family annihilation case is related to Avery?

"Miss, why don't you eat?" Seeing that Gloria Wiens hung up the phone, the mother-in-law became in a daze, so she said, "Who called you just now? What happened?"

Gloria took a deep breath and looked at the mother-in-law with a smile: "Isn't Elliot recruiting assistants? I submitted a resume to his company yesterday, and the HR manager of his company called me just now, saying that I did not meet the requirements.

However, they can help me to transfer my resume to Avery's company. Avery is also recruiting assistants."

After mother-in-law learned about this, she thought for a few seconds and said, "Miss, if you go to work with Avery, will Siena and I go to Avonsville together? "

Gloria didn't even think about it, and shook her head: "You and Siena live here. I'm not sure how long I can stay with Avery. It's too dangerous for you to go to Avonsville."

"Okay. Then we'll be waiting for you here." Mother-in-law was worried, "Siena had a nightmare last night and cried so sadly. I really don't want to send her to school any more.

She's at school, and no children play with her. Other children are afraid of her."

"The teacher sent a message to me. The children in the class are young and their receptivity is a little bit poor. But the teacher has always accompanied Siena. The teacher likes Siena very much and said that she will let the children in the class accept Siena as soon as possible." Gloria Wiens wasn't worried about this. "Didn't she say she was going to school in the morning?"

Since she doesn't object to going to school, you should relax. Her tolerance may be stronger than we thought."

The mother-in-law told Gloria Wiens in the morning. Gloria had also mentioned this issue, because mother-in-law was really distressed.

But mother-in-law also knew that Siena could live like a normal child only by pretending to be ugly.

The mother-in-law: "Miss, can you successfully enter Avery's company?"

Gloria was a little worried: "I don't know. Others only said they could help me transfer my resume, and nothing else was disclosed."

"Miss, you don't have to worry. You are so good. I'm sure there's no problem." The mother-in-law comforted and sighed, "I'm really worried when you're alone in Avonsville."

"I'll be fine. If I can really be Avery's assistant, I'll definitely do it first and find out what she is like."

Gloria said, "The news about Avery Tate that I found on the Internet shows that she is a good person. I want to see what her true face is."

In the afternoon, Gloria received a call from the HR manager of Tate Industries.

The HR manager: “Miss Wiens, where are you now?
Is it convenient to come to the company for an interview?”

-
-
-