Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 330

Even though Andrew had been wronged, his expression remained unchanged.

He only said, "Puritans have long ignored the matters of the mortal world."

Andrew did not give any medicine and walked toward the door. Just as he opened the door, he met Savanna's bewildered face.

Andrew did not expect Savanna to be outside. From the expression on her face, it could be seen that she must have heard the conversation between him and Lorena just now. How much did she hear? Andrew did not dare to speculate.

Andrew looked inside and said "Amen" before turning around to leave.

Brandon had just gone to the bathroom. When he came back, he saw Savanna standing at the door of the ward with a dull expression. He strode over and looked into the ward. On the bed, other than Lorena, who was stunned, there was no trace of Andrew.

Brandon asked Savanna, "Where is Andrew?"

"He's gone," Savanna said.

Brandon entered the ward and asked Lorena, "Didn't Andrew give any medicine to you?"

Lorena seemed to be annoyed and closed her eyes.

Seeing that Lorena was ignoring him, Brandon wanted to chase after Andrew, but Savanna grabbed the corner of his clothes. Brandon looked at Savanna. Savanna had a very complicated expression. "Don't go. It's useless."

Brandon said, "What did Andrew say? I went through a lot of trouble to find him."

Savanna dragged Brandon to the end of the hospital corridor. She looked around and saw no one passing by. Then she whispered to Brandon, "Brandon, Andrew is actually the one who loves Linda."

Brandon raised his eyebrows in surprise. "How did you know?"

Savanna answered, "You went to the bathroom just now. I was curious and wanted to see how Andrew cured cancer patients. Then, I heard their conversation. It was so complicated."

Savanna was still in shock inwardly.

Noticing that there was something wrong with Savanna's expression, Brandon held her chin and forced her to face him. "What else did you hear? Tell me."

"Andrew advised your grandmother to let go of her grudges, and your grandmother became anxious.

Brandon, your father was adopted by your grandmother. Because your grandmother tortured Linda and Renee, she was revenged by others. Your grandmother said that it was Andrew who did it. Although Andrew did not deny it, I felt that it was not him. There was no reason for him to do so. And it seemed that he was an upright and kind person. Otherwise, he would not persuade your grandmother."

Brandon felt uncomfortable when he heard Savanna address Lorena as his grandmother.

He tightened his grip on Savanna's chin. Savanna felt the pain and let out a moan.

"Isn't my grandma also your grandma?"

Savanna smiled and did not answer.

The grudge between Lorena and Linda was too complicated. Lorena persecuted not only Linda, but also Renee, Mia, and her.

Lorena was such a vicious woman.

Savanna couldn't help but hate her.

Previously, no matter how Lorena made things difficult for Savanna, Savanna was tolerant, and now, she really hated Lorena.

Brandon didn't seem to be surprised when Savanna told Brandon about his birth. Suddenly, Savanna reacted and slapped his hand away. She asked, "Did you already know about this?"

Brandon didn't look at Savanna, as if he didn't dare to look at her.

Savanna's heart sank.

“Say something, Brandon.”

Savanna didn't want to let him go just like that, so she raised her voice and asked.

Brandon's wandering gaze returned to Savanna's face. He held Savanna's face and gently kissed her on the lips. “Don't be angry. I knew it long ago. I didn't tell you because I didn't want you to worry too much. It is a burden to know more things. Between us, no matter what happens, it is impossible to tear us apart. She is not my biological grandmother, but she raised my father. I have the responsibility to take care of her and accompany her until she is dead.”

Brandon paused for a moment. He said in a low voice as he leaned against Savanna's cheek. “As for you, it doesn't matter whose child you are. As long as you don't care about it, we can go on like this.”

What Brandon meant was obvious. If Savanna was willing to be with him, he would never abandon her.

However, what if Savanna was unwilling?

Buzz... Buzz... Buzz...

Brandon's phone rang.

Brandon pressed the answer button. The call was from Jim, saying that the company had a project that had to wait for Brandon to make a decision. Brandon hung up the phone.

Savanna was right next to Brandon. She heard everything that Jim said. “You go ahead. I'll take care of grandma,” said Savanna.

Brandon glanced over to the ward and grabbed Savanna's hand tightly. “If she makes things difficult for you, please be tolerant. Thank you.”

Savanna looked at him with deep affection. “Don't mention it. Just go.”

Brandon left.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 330

Savanna walked back to the ward. Lorena opened her eyes but ignored Savanna. Savanna took a cup of water and put the water on the bedside cabinet for Lorena.

Lorena suddenly spoke, “Give me your phone.”

“What are you going to do?” Savanna asked.

Lorena looked at her with a cold gaze. “Do I have to report to you what I do?”

Words failed Savanna.

Savanna looked at Lorena’s skinny face. She felt sorry for Lorena, but she also hated Lorena.

Savanna handed the phone to Lorena, but Lorena did not take it. She ordered Savanna, “Find Ashley for me.”

Savanna was slightly surprised by Lorena’s words. Due to Lorena’s majesty, Savanna could not say anything. She only replied, “I don’t have Ashley’s number.”

Lorena snorted, “If you don’t have Ashley’s number, don’t you have her husband’s number?”

Wasn’t Ashley’s husband Fabian?

“No,” Savanna replied.

Lorena began to curse, “You are Fabian’s illegitimate daughter. It is impossible for him to leave you alone, and it is even more impossible for him to leave no contact information for you.”

The words of an illegitimate daughter sounded extremely harsh.

Savanna felt sad in her heart.

“Grandma, watch your mouth. I am David’s daughter and have nothing to do with Fabian.”

Lorena laughed and stared at Savanna. The words that came out of her mouth were extremely sarcastic, “David was a bastard. Like Colten, they were both bastards. David knew that Krissa and Frank had hooked up a long time ago, but he still wanted Krissa. Colten clearly knew that Linda had an affair with Andrew, but he was still willing to get together with her. Fabian and your mother had an affair, so he gave birth to a monster like you. If it weren’t for you, Shelton wouldn’t have treated me like this, and I wouldn’t have lost my life.”

What Lorena said made Savanna extremely irritated.

Savanna originally wanted to bear it, but the anger in his chest rose. She couldn’t stand it anymore!

"If I am a monster, then you are an old monster. Why did you call Ashley over? Do you want her to come and laugh at you? You suspect that Ashley carried Shelton away when he was a child. You suspect that Ashley killed your son and daughter-in-law. You suspect that Ashley set the fire that burned down the Young's home back then. Do you have any evidence? If there is, I will call the police immediately and have someone arrest Ashley."

Lorena was so angry that the corners of her mouth twitched. She kept breathing hard. Her lips went white, the same as her face.

"Say it again."

Savanna said, "Even if I say it ten times, it will be the same. Ashley took revenge on you because you destroyed her family. If you hadn't sent people to seduce Fabian, then Ashley wouldn't have done so many bad things to the Young family. Andrew is right. You should let go of the past..."

Bang!

Something smashed over, and Savanna dodged.

Savanna looked at the shattered glass on the ground, her heart pounding.

Just now, if she hadn't stepped aside, she would probably have gotten hurt.

Savanna took several deep breaths to suppress her urge to rush up and tear Lorena into pieces.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 332

Savanna sat at the end of the bed, looking at Lorena, who was breathing evenly. Lorena looked thin, and her hair was gray. Savanna felt a wisp of bitterness.

Lorena had no kid. She once had a husband, but it was the same as being single. What a bleak life!

Savanna lowered her head to check her phone. Suddenly, a hot trending topic popped up, saying, "The cruel woman from the Young family is seriously ill. Her grandson is not her biological grandson. And her granddaughter-in-law didn't care about her when she peed on the bed. Moreover, her granddaughter-in-law even drove away nice visitors. What an evil woman!"

The news did not specify the names. But there were not many Young families in Philadelphia, and the Young Group had once been in the business world. Everyone knew that the cold blooded and ruthless woman from this family was Lorena.

Savanna looked up at Lorena. When she was about to read the trending topic again, it was gone and became blank. She blinked, but she found it still blank. She almost suspected that her eyes were blurred just now. Now the trending topic was a female celebrity scandal. Savanna knew that the trending topic she saw just now had been canceled. Who had such an ability to do this? And this was related to the Young family. Obviously, it must be Brandon.

Many comments emerged when the female celebrities' scandals were known to the public. But in less than half an hour, the trending topic was replaced by news about the Young Group. Soon the Young Group's news was replaced by that again. This had continued for a long time.

In the end, the trending topic related to a celebrity's sex scandal was put at the top, and that news never came again.

Brandon came back. He pulled up the tie around his neck, rolled up his sleeves, and revealed an elbow. He looked elegant and noble. He looked at Lorena who was sleeping on the bed and then at Savanna. He sat at the head of the bed and did not say a word for a long time.

Savanna also had something in mind, but she did not say anything. In the room, the atmosphere was tense. After a while, Lorena woke up. She opened her eyes and saw that the person in front of her was Brandon. Lorena blinked, and tears fell from the corners of her eyes. Lorena had been a strong woman all her life and had never shown weakness to anyone.

Brandon felt heartbroken when seeing the tear that had fallen from the corner of her eyes.

Brandon got up and walked to the bathroom.

Then, he locked himself inside.

Brandon only came out after a few minutes. His expression was bad, and there was smoke in the bathroom. Savanna looked up and saw the extinguished cigarette butts on the ashtray on the basin. The ashtray was full of butts.

Seth brought the food over. Brandon tried to get Lorena to eat something. However, Lorena didn't even have the appetite for the soup. She sighed, shaking her head.

Brandon couldn't bear this and left Seth in the hospital. He and Savanna returned to the Moon Villas.

Brandon drove while Savanna sat in the passenger seat. Inside the car was a cold atmosphere, and neither of them spoke.

As Brandon reached the destination, he turned off the engine and stepped directly into the villa.

Savanna followed

The two of them went upstairs one after the other. When Savanna entered, she glanced at the tie and coat on the bed. She stood outside the bathroom, listening to the sound of water from inside. Looking at the tall figure trending topic today, Savanna felt quite upset.

After looking at it for a long time, Savanna went to the chair by the window and rock the chair lightly. She lit a cigarette for herself. The cigarette could numb her so that she could calm down for a moment.

Clang.

The bathroom door opened, and in the mist, Brandon came out with a towel wrapped around his waist. His arms, chest, and waist were dripping with water. He looked strong and sexy.

Savanna turned around and only took a glance, her throat somewhat dry.

Brandon wiped his hair and walked over to her. While drying his hair, he asked, "Why aren't you speaking?"

Savanna said gently, "I didn't want to disturb you."

Brandon dried his hair, washed the towel, and hung it up. He returned to the windowsill, and Savanna had already fallen asleep on the chair.

Brandon took a coat and put it on her body. His movements were very gentle, but Savanna was woken up.

Savanna glanced at Brandon. Seeing that his complexion was better, she reached out and rubbed her aching eyebrows.

Brandon dried his body, took off the towel on his waist, and put on clean clothes in front of Savanna. He then made himself a cup of tea. He tilted his head and lit a cigarette. "You can ask now. What do you want to know?"

Brandon looked as if he would tell her about everything he knew.

Savanna asked, "What said on the hot trending topic was not true. I didn't know that grandma would pee on the bed. She asked me to find Ashley. I said that it was pointless because we didn't have any evidence to say that Ashley was the arsonist who wanted to kill you back then. We didn't have any evidence. So she was angry and smashed me with a glass. I stood outside the door for a while, and she wet the bed. Brandon, I really didn't mean it."

As she spoke, Savanna's voice was somewhat choked.

Brandon could tell that she was so careful when serving Lorena.

Brandon looked out of the window at the dark starry sky. His eyes were focused on the few scattered rays of light there. He lowered his head and smoked deeply. His cheeks sank deeply, looking so sexy and charming.

Seeing that he didn't speak, Savanna added, "I didn't ask Ashley to come. She said that she came to visit Grandma. I was afraid that Grandma would wake up and fight with her, so I drove Ashley away.

Then the reporters came. Brandon, please believe me."

Brandon took off the cigarette and puffed out a mouthful of smoke. He retracted his gaze and met Savanna's bright eyes. His Adam's apple rolled. "I didn't say that I don't believe in you.

"That's not what I'm sad about. Grandma doesn't have many days left, and I ... can't do anything for her. From her, I can see the sadness and helplessness of being a human. What's the point of being strong for a lifetime? We will all end up in graves."

Savanna leaned over, grabbed Brandon's hand, and gently placed it on his knee. The warmth spread through his fingers.

Savanna sat next to Brandon, her face touching Brandon's shoulder and feeling his warm skin.

Brandon finished smoking and threw the cigarette butt away. He held Savanna's face, lowered his gaze, and put Savanna's fair and tender face in his hands. He said, "I never believed in the news. I just felt too distressed, whether it was about you or Lorena."

Savanna felt a lump in her throat, and tears were about to come out. She tried her best to widen her eyes, forcing the mist in her eyes away.

“Did you ask the public relations department to deal with the news?”

Brandon didn't say anything. He turned his face away. His jawline looked very cold. Savanna now realized that the trending topic thing in the afternoon was fierce and terrifying war.

Whoever started the war was the enemy of the Young family.

It could only be Ashley. Her purpose was to force them to withdraw the lawsuit. But this strengthened Savanna's determination to put Rafael in jail.

Savanna turned and went out. She stopped outside the door when the nurse came over and asked her, “What's wrong?”

Savanna smiled, “It's nothing. Lorena has lost her temper and is smashing things. Don't go in, in case you'll get hurt.”

Hearing that, the nurse looked inside, only to see the ground full of debris. She then shrank her neck and turned to leave.

Savanna stood at the door for a very long time. Perhaps Lorena hadn't seen anyone come in for a long time, and she raised her weak voice in anxiety, “Is anyone here? Give me the urinal.”

Savanna walked in and stood at the end of the bed. Her gaze swept over and coincidentally met Lorena's gray hair and pale face. Savanna sighed. She relented and bent down to get the urinal under the bed. Originally, she had firmed her mind not to care about Lorena.

She took the urinal over. Lorena lowered her eyes. She wanted to push Savanna's hand away angrily, but she was really in a hurry to pee.

She took the urinal from Savanna and scolded, “Get out.”

But Savanna remained standing there.

In a hurry to pee, Lorena removed the quilt and put the urinal in. Due to her bad condition, she could use the urinal to cover half of her butt. Yellow urine fell along the white edge of the pot onto the sheet, leaving the sheet with a tainted mark. Gradually, the urine stain slowly dyed a large part.

The smell of urine in the air was very unpleasant.

Lorena was embarrassed to see Savanna cover her nose, and her face became pale. After she finished peeing, she handed the urinal to Savanna. Savanna took it and took the urinal to the toilet.

After Savanna came out, she reached out to hug Lorena.

Lorena had to agree after hesitating for a while. She was afraid that someone would come in and see her embarrassing state. Then that would be a shame for her.

Lorena was skinny, so Savanna carried her effortlessly. Savanna put her on the chair and replaced the dirty sheet with another new one before putting Lorena onto the bed.

Lorena lay on the new sheet. Her expression was no longer as arrogant as before, and the viciousness on her face was fizzling out.

Savanna got a new glass, poured her a glass of water, and then placed it in a reachable place for Lorena. Savanna then sat in the chair and checked TikTok.

After throwing a fit, now Lorena was tired. She closed her eyes and fell into a deep sleep.

Crack!

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 331

The sound of high heels stepping on the ground came from afar and stopped at the door. Savanna looked up. It was a woman with exquisite makeup and eye-catching facial features. She was standing at the door. Her hair was combed meticulously, and her pearl-like ears were bright and eye-catching, too. She glanced at Savanna, and then her gaze fell on Lorena on the bed. Her eyes were smiling. Seeing her walk in step by step, Savanna immediately stood in front of her and asked in an unfriendly voice, with her brows raised, "What are you doing here?"

Ashley glanced at the dirty bed on the chair, and her smile deepened, "I heard that Lorena is sick. I'm here to visit her."

With that, Ashley placed the fruit basket in her hand on the bed.

Just as he was about to sit down on the bed, Savanna grabbed her belt and said mercilessly, "Get out."

Ashley still had a smile on her face. "Mrs. Young, are you still mad at me?"

"I've misunderstood that. Fabian has told me the truth. The Young Group had business cooperation with the Colon Group. You misunderstood that he took away the Young Group's business. I shouldn't have said that to you. I'm sorry."

Savanna asked Ashley to away not because she cared about what had happened but was afraid that Lorena would be awakened. Lorena would definitely go crazy if she saw Ashley.

Savanna glanced at the bed. Seeing that Lorena was sleeping soundly, she pulled Ashley to the door. Ashley shook off her hand. Seeing her hair was messy because of Savanna's pulling, Ashley angrily shouted, "I came to visit Mrs. Young with good intentions. But is this how you treat your guests?"

Savanna's eyes were slightly narrowed, and her nervousness was hard to find.

"What are you doing here? You make it like our two families are close. I don't remember we have any contact."

Savanna took a few steps into the ward, took the flowers from the bed, and hit Ashley hard. "Take your flowers and scram."

Ashley looked down at the flowers falling from her body, her lips curling into a faint smile. "It seems the Young family isn't as decent as rumored."

A group of reporters came out of nowhere and aimed their cameras at Savanna's face. "Mrs. Young, I heard that Mrs. Young has a terminal illness, is that true?"

"Mrs. Young, I heard that Mr. Young is not Mrs. Young's grandson. Is that true?"

"Mrs. Young, I heard that you and Mr. Young did not get a marriage certificate. Is your living with Mr. Young illegal?"

Their questions were very tricky, and obviously, they were trying to make things difficult for Savanna.

But why did the reporters know so much inside information? Obviously ... Savanna looked at Ashley, who was calm and composed.

Obviously, they were asked here by Ashley.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 331

If Savanna did not offer the right answers, it would bring a lot of negative effects to the Young Group.

Savanna said slowly, "You just used the word "heard", so they aren't true. The wise man ends the rumors. Mr. Young is not the biological grandson of his grandmother. When he returned to the family, Mr. Young had done a DNA test. So you're doubting the capacity of the national hospital. As for the, marriage certificate between Mr. Young and me, I don't think I have to show it to you. Mrs. Young is indeed sick, but not that serious. It's normal. After all, she is nearly seventy years old. Everyone will get sick from time to time? Won't you be sick?"

After that, Savanna smiled again. "What's there to make a fuss about when you're sick?"

Savanna's words were flawless, and the reporters couldn't fight back.

When they were about to ask questions, Savanna moved toward the cameras and smiled happily.

"Everyone, in fact, I think it's a better idea for you to interview Mrs. Colon, instead of gossiping about the Young Group. She is a brilliant woman. She looks nice, but she might stab you in the back one day.

Two days ago, I went to look for Mr. Colon. But Mrs. Colon, who looks like a well-mannered and gentle lady, actually said that I am the hidden lover of Mr. Colon. I've married into the Young family. So how can I be Mr. Colon's lover? Is the Young family not as rich as the Colon family? That's interesting."

Savanna's smile was meaningful.

Everyone in Philadelphia knew that Fabian was a playboy. But after each headline, Ashley would hold Fabian's hand and appear in the public. She would clarify that the news was just a groundless act. From time to time, she would show their affection.

Now, she would be embarrassed after Savanna said that Ashley was not angry, nor did she smile. Her face was expressionless as she looked at Savanna. "Mrs. Young, so I'm here to apologize to you today. It was all a misunderstanding. Originally, Fabian wanted to come, but he was occupied by a business trip in New York. So I came alone. But Mrs. Young, you didn't accept my apology and threw the flowers I bought out. Mrs. Young looks skinny, but you didn't even give her food to eat. And she actually peed on the bed. You are so poisonous. You simply failed to live up to Mr. Young's trust and love for you."

Ashley came prepared. Her words worked and damaged Savanna. Her words implied three things. Firstly, she said that Lorena was very thin, which was a yes answer to the question about Lorena's serious illness. Secondly, the arrogant Lorena actually wet the bed, which embarrassed the Young family. Thirdly, Savanna treated Lorena too badly, which was immoral. The third inference could distance Savanna from Brandon.

"Is that so, Mrs. Young?" The reporters put the cameras toward Savanna again.

Savanna suppressed the anger in her heart. "Nonsense, there is no such thing."

Originally, Savanna wanted to enter the ward, but she was really unwilling. She gritted her teeth and turned around, looking at Ashley with a sharp gaze. "Mrs. Colon, I won't drop the case against Rafael. I'll put him in jail."

Savanna turned and went into the ward.

The reporters wanted to chase after her but were stopped by Ashley. Ashley pulled out a cheque from her pocket and stuffed it into the hands of the leading reporter. The leading reporter thanked Ashley and left with other reporters.

Ashley stood in the corridor, looking at the petals falling at the door of the ward. Her lips were curling into a smile, and a strange look flashed across her face.
