

The Mans Decree Chapter 1431 -

Chapter 1431 A Fool In Love

The elderly voice in Edgar's mind piped up, "I know what's going on! These four people absorbed Kai's girlfriend's blood, so when they attacked together, they would emanate her aura. Attacking alone would not have achieved that impact, but because they joined hands to strike, Kai would clearly sense her aura."

The voice continued, "Sensing his beloved's aura while he was fighting must've thrown him off-kilter and landed him in this state. Aren't you always going on and on about fooling Kai? I can help you."

"How so?" asked Edgar.

The voice replied sinisterly, "Ask the four members of Warriors Alliance to emanate Kai's girlfriend's aura together. Then sit back and leave the rest to me."

Edgar said to Zion, "President Zeigler, I know why Kai suffered a mental breakdown!"

"How?" asked Zion curiously.

Salvador and the others turned to stare at Edgar as well, eager to learn the reason behind Kai's state.

Edgar explained, "President Zeigler, these four members from Warriors Alliance emanate an aura that agitates Kai. That's why Kai froze during his counterattack against them. The aura must've given him a mental breakdown!"

He did not disclose Warriors Alliance's practice of training their members using other people's blood. It was a despicable act, and the fewer people who knew, the better.

However, Zion immediately read between the lines and was surprised that it had been so simple to mentally incapacitate Kai.

He muttered, "I didn't think it would be so easy. If only I had known this sooner. We wouldn't have lost so many men from Warriors Alliance."

Zion lamented his ignorance. He had even summoned Diego to kill Kai in the past, only to send the poor man to his death.

Noticing Zion's reaction, Edgar smiled and suggested, "Now that Kai has turned into a halfwit, we can kill him anytime we please. Anyone wants to see me make a fool out of him?"

"How?" asked Zion.

“Ask your men to emanate their auras. I’ll take it from there...” replied Edgar insinuatingly.

Zion glanced at Salvador and nodded his head.

Salvador and the others promptly unleashed their auras, which fused into a stream.

Meanwhile, Edgar released a stream of black mist with a wave of his hand.

The black mist melded with the men’s combined aura and gradually took the form of a human.

Despite its vague form, Kai, whose eyes had been unfocused the entire time, suddenly brightened up. Amid his haste to get to the human-like form, he even pushed Howard aside.

He wrapped his arms around the humanoid form and repeatedly muttered, “Josephine, Josephine...”

Unlike the others, all he could see was Josephine smiling at him in a white dress.

Everyone was flabbergasted by his actions.

Howard rushed forward, attempting to pull Kai away.

Alas, Zion swatted the man away like a fly with a vicious strike.

“Leave Kai alone if you don’t want to die here, Howard,” warned Zion.

Then, the Warriors Alliance’s president returned his attention to Kai.

Kai wept emotionally and wailed, “It’s all my fault, Josephine. I was too weak to save you and put you through so much suffering. I won’t let anyone kidnap you again.”

Tears streamed down his face as he engaged in a bout of self-reproach.

Everyone snickered at the sight of Kai mumbling to a lifeless humanoid form, all except Astrid, whose eyes had welled with tears.

As a woman, she was utterly moved by Kai’s love for his partner.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1432 -

Kai blamed himself for being too weak to save Josephine, yet Astrid could not care less about his fighting abilities. If only someone loved me as much as he did! Kai clearly loves his girlfriend very much to be behaving like this.

Zion and the others were so tickled by Kai's actions that they no longer wished to kill him off so soon.

Read more

Amid Kai's mumbling, the black mist that had been part of the humanoid form suddenly darted into Kai's body.

Kai shuddered, and his gaze instantly became blank.

Spots of golden light flashed on Kai's forehead right before he collapsed to the ground.

The abrupt change took everyone aback. Even Edgar had no idea what was going on.

Meanwhile, a familiar, elderly voice cackled in Kai's mind and said, "Hahaha! This is my ideal host. This strong body, this power! This is what I truly seek!"

It turned out the spirit in Edgar's body had transplanted itself in Kai's body instead.

Kai trumped Edgar in both physicality and ability. The spirit had had his eyes on Kai's body since the very beginning.

It was the reason it encouraged Edgar to toy with Kai while he identified the perfect opportunity to enter his new host's body.

A moment later, Kai slowly got to his feet. Lucidity had returned to his gaze, though he wore a massive frown.

"Kai..." Howard called out anxiously upon noticing Kai's apparent recovery.

However, a still-frowning Kai ignored him and closed his eyes.

He was listening to the voice in his head, which proposed, "Kai, as long as you follow my orders, we can help each other out. I can kill all these people for you right now."

"Who are you?" Kai used his spiritual sense to communicate with the foreign voice in his head.

He earned a threat in response. "That's not important. All you need to do is to listen to my instructions. You'd be dead by now if it weren't for me. I'm in your body now, and if you refuse to follow my instructions, I'll take over your conscience and take this life in front of everyone."

“Oh? Why do I find it difficult to believe that?”

Kai immediately strengthened his spiritual sense to suppress the spirit.

It panicked, bewildered by the intensity of Kai’s spiritual sense. Then, the spirit shot a ray of light through Kai’s head, giving him a splitting headache. Kai’s body also shuddered as though he was suffering electrocution.

Despite its best efforts, Kai continued to control his own body and suppressed the malicious spirit with his powerful spiritual sense.

Kai’s struggle seemed to remind Edgar of something. Edgar quickly scanned his brain with his spiritual sense and realized that the spirit was no longer in his body.

His eyes reddened with rage, and he shot Kai a jealous, furious stare.

The spirit even favored Kai’s body over his, and it was a bitter pill for Edgar to swallow.

“Go to h*ll, Kai!”

With that roar, Edgar swathed his body in a sinister glow and launched a menacing punch toward Kai.

Though Kai was busy fighting the unwelcome visitor in his body, it did not affect the spiritual energy in his elixir field.

He promptly retaliated against Edgar’s punch with a slap, sending Edgar flying a distance away.

The latter even coughed up a mouthful of blood. Edgar’s ability had taken a huge blow with the spirit out of his body.

“Why? H-How?” Edgar crawled to his feet and rushed at Kai again.

He hissed, “Why must you betray me? Why?”

His words confused Zion and the others, who began wondering if Edgar had gone mad.

They wondered why he was accusing Kai of betraying him.

How could Kai betray him?

Unbeknownst to them, Edgar was addressing the spirit in Kai’s body.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1433 -

Chapter 1433 The Weakness

Kai took a step forward as his golden body shone with bright light. Now that Edgar's strength has been greatly reduced, it's the perfect opportunity to kill him!

When the sizeable golden fist struck him, Edgar did his best to resist but to no avail.

Read more

The difference in strength between Kai and Edgar was so great that it was futile for Edgar to put up a fight.

Bam!

As soon as Kai sent Edgar flying with his powerful punch, Kai could feel his energy leave him. He got so weak that he could barely stand on his own.

When Edgar noticed that, he quickly got up from the ground to strike Kai with his palm.

At the same time, a black mist emerged from Kai's body and instantly entered Edgar's.

The spirit knew it could not control Kai, so it returned to Edgar, whose aura suddenly changed drastically after the spirit entered his body.

Zion, who intended to help out, raised an eyebrow amusedly at that moment, seemingly interested in what would happen next.

He was no longer concerned that Kai would kill Edgar, for even if Edgar died, he had complete confidence that he could deal with Kai. After all, Zion had figured out Kai's weakness and was convinced he would not have any problem killing the man.

Seeing Edgar's palm zooming toward him, Kai hurriedly got up to defend himself by throwing his fist.

Bam!

Kai was sent to the floor by the palm strike, while Edgar landed firmly on the ground with a graceful move.

Kai's face turned as grim as death when he struggled to get back on his feet.

Even though the spirit had left Kai's body, it cast an arcane array on him when it departed. Kai did not have the additional energy to fight Edgar since he had to deal with the arcane array inside of him.

“Kill him now. I’ve already cast a limiting arcane array in his body, so he can only utilize one-fifth of his strength. There’s no better time to strike,” uttered the old-sounding voice in Edgar’s mind.

Edgar was over the moon the second he heard that. After leaping into the air, he readied himself to throw a punch at Kai.

Kai had just managed to get back up when he saw Edgar launching another attack. He then immediately lifted his fists to brace himself for the assault but lacked the strength to stop Edgar from sending him flying.

Bam!

At that point, Edgar was ready to give Kai his all by throwing one punch after another at the man.

Kai could do nothing but endure the bombardment, yet even that was too much for him.

The crowd was stunned when they saw what was happening before their eyes. Kai is supposed to be the more powerful one between the two, so how did he get forced into a corner?

Zion narrowed his eyes thoughtfully as he witnessed the sudden turn of events. “It seems there’s more than meets the eye with this Edgar. I better be more cautious of him.”

Holding Kai down, Edgar continued to rain down punches on the man.

His attacks were fueled with so much anger that they caused Kai to vomit blood.

When Edgar was done beating Kai to a pulp, the severely injured man was already covered in crimson blood.

“Not so tough now, are you, Kai? I’ll torture you until your very last breath.” With that, Edgar concentrated his aura into a sharp blade, ready to stab Kai right in the chest.

“Kai!” cried out Howard when he sensed Edgar’s intention to murder Kai. Then, he rushed forward in an attempt to stop Edgar.

“Salvador, stop him,” Zion ordered with a frown, displeased that Howard was trying to save Kai.

After nodding in response, Salvador swiftly leaped forward to block Howard’s way and pushed the man away with a palm strike.

“Whoever attempts to save Kai will die,” threatened Zion while sweeping his gaze across the crowd.

Nobody else dared to step up for Kai since they were not related to him. Besides that, none wished to offend Warriors Alliance or the Deragons by doing so.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1434

Chapter 1434 Blasted To Pieces

Fresh blood sprayed out of Kai’s chest when Edgar plunged the blade into him.

The pain was so excruciating that Kai immediately broke into a grimace.

“Ah!” Kai let out an angry roar before suddenly releasing a surge of energy that sent Edgar flying away.

Looking down at his wound, Kai tapped it a few times, and his bleeding instantly stopped.

He then glared at Edgar with gritted teeth as he tried his best to hold himself up.

“Kill him quickly! I’m not sure how long the arcane array can contain him,” the old-sounding voice urged Edgar.

Since Kai managed to release such powerful energy in anger, the spirit worried it would not be long before he broke free from its arcane array.

By then, it would be impossible for Edgar to kill Kai.

After wiping the blood from the corner of his lips, Edgar stared coldly at Kai. “Your resistance is futile, Kai. It’s pointless to even try.”

With that, Edgar rushed toward Kai at the speed of light and reached the man in the blink of an eye.

Before Kai could even react, Edgar readied the shining blade in his hand to stab his opponent in the chest again.

Even though Kai knew he was incapable of stopping Edgar, he reached out to grab the sharp blade anyway.

Kai wanted to take the weapon away from Edgar, but his enemy was too quick for him.

His hands did nothing to stop Edgar from driving the blade into his chest once again.

Then, blood began to spill uncontrollably from both his chest and hands.

"I thought you were supposed to be invincible, Kai. Why have you become a lamb waiting to be slaughtered?" Edgar laughed maniacally as he looked at the severely wounded Kai.

After pulling the blade out of Kai, Edgar kicked the man to the floor.

Kai struggled to get back on his feet because he was trembling so much, but the energy inside of him lit up and began to mend his injured body.

Meanwhile, his mental energy was focused on dealing with the arcane array the spirit cast on him.

"Mr. Edgar, killing Kai won't be easy. Even if you stab him a thousand times, he won't go down," reminded Zion.

However, he did not tell Edgar that Kai was an energy cultivator.

"If I can't kill him by stabbing him, I'll do it another way," sneered Edgar before his body burst forth with light and levitated into the air.

Then, the black light surrounding Edgar turned into lightning bolts, which he launched at Kai.

"He'll get a taste of my lightning tribulation," stated Edgar with a smirk.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A bombardment of black lightning bolts came down on Kai, and the scene was so horrifying that those around him quickly backed away.

There was terrifying power in every strike that landed on Kai, whose body quickly began to give off a burnt smell.

The entire Dragon Island was filled with the smell before long, forcing everyone to cover their nose.

Zion narrowed his eyes curiously once again as he bore witness to the fear-inducing assault. "No matter how powerful Kai is, there's no way he can survive that. We might not even find his body when this is over!"

After dozens of lightning bolts were launched, a large crater with a diameter of tens of meters appeared on the ground, surrounded by smoke and dust.

As soon as the air cleared up, the crowd hurried over to the edge of the crater to see if Kai had been blasted to pieces.