Chapter 2525

“What is your attitude?! She is just a servant of our Hogan family. If I want her to work at home, she will work. If I don’t want her to do it, she will have to go! Do you still need your consent?!” Master Hogan stood up from the sofa angrily.

Mrs. Hogan saw that her husband was so angry, she didn’t need to fan the flames herself.

Mrs. Hogan: “Lucas, you know that your father is going to apologize to the Gagnon family today...”

“Shut up!” Lucas looked at Mrs. Hogan coldly, and said word by word, “You poisoned my dog to death, now You drove away my nanny again, why didn’t you drive me away too?”

“What’s your nanny?! Why, you’ve gotten along with that ugly monster for a few days, and you’ve developed feelings for it?!”

Lucas, what’s your favorite? So I can find out whose food you are eating and whose house you are living in! I paid for your nanny!” Master Hogan’s blood pressure rose, his face was red and his ears were red, and his eyes were staring like copper bells.

“Then I’ll go!” Lucas turned and left immediately after saying this.

Master Hogan lost his mind due to his violent temper!

Master Hogan: “Bodyguards! Stop him!”

Two bodyguards rushed over immediately and blocked Lucas.

“Since I recognized you back, you are my son! I can’t afford to let you run out and cause trouble for me again!” Master Hogan looked at Lucas’s back and scolded, “I’ll make you face the wall and think If you don’t listen, then I can only lock you at home until you realize your mistake!”

Lucas: “You lock! Even if I die, I won’t admit my mistake!”

“You ba*tard! You want to p!ss me off, don’t you?!”

Master Hogan said, covering his chest with one hand, panting heavily.

Mrs. Hogan immediately supported her husband, and at the same time said to the bodyguard at the door: “Take Lucas away quickly?!”

After the bodyguard took Lucas away, Mrs. Hogan helped her husband to sit down on the sofa.

“I’ll get you some medicine. Drink some water first.” Mrs. Hogan handed the water glass to her husband, and then went to the room to get the medicine.

After a while, Mrs. Hogan came out with the medicine. “Husband, Lucas is already an adult, and his character has already been formed, and it is impossible to change his character.

Lucas is a thorn in the side!” Mrs. Hogan handed the medicine to her husband, “Lucas can’t tell what’s important and what’s not!

And how could he fight someone else for a servant?”

“What exactly are you trying to say?” Master Hogan swallowed the medicine and looked at his wife.

“Send him to school for discipline! The two of us can’t discipline him at all.” Mrs. Hogan said in a low voice, “Isn’t there a school with that kind of military management?”

“You’re treating Lucas as a prisoner! You know How strict is that school?” Master Hogan couldn’t bear to send his son to such a place to suffer.

“You will love your son dearly! Aren’t you afraid that he will go out and cause trouble next time? This time it was the Gagnon family. If you provoke someone who can't afford it next time, are you going to kneel down and beg for mercy?" Mrs. Hogan sarcastically said, "A loving father is a loser!" "Let's see if he will admit his mistake!" Master Hogan got up from the sofa and strode away, "I have a headache, I'm going to lie down for a while!"

The auxiliary building.

After Lucas entered the living room, the door of the auxiliary building was immediately closed by the bodyguards.

Mrs. Perry had already heated up the food.

Seeing Lucas coming back, Mrs. Perry immediately put the food on the table.

"Young Master Hogan, there is a reason why the Master arranged for me to take care of you..." Mrs. Perry said and wanted to have a good relationship with Lucas.

But before Mrs. Perry finished speaking, Lucas strode into the bedroom and closed the door with a bang.

Mrs. Perry sighed, and she didn't know how Siena had a good relationship with him.

In the bedroom, Lucas picked up the phone, opened it, and saw the message Siena sent him in the morning.

—Young Master, Madam won't let me work in Hogan's house. What happened last night was caused by me. I caused trouble to Hogan's family. It is normal for Madam to be angry. It's just that I can't bear to part with you. But it doesn't matter, we can still meet if we want to meet in the future. Young master, don't quarrel with your family members in the future. If they say something you don't like to hear, just ignore it. I don't want to see you get beaten again. Also, you don't have to worry about me. Although I don't have a job in Hogan's family, I can still find other jobs. I'm sure I'll be fine supporting myself. I hope I can be admitted to University of Thopiavelle. You said before that I will be admitted to University of Thopiavelle, and you will give me a gift. Does it count?
