

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 21

You must know that Rick is extremely quiet. He usually hides in the room alone after eating. The servants at home must go back to their own rooms after finishing their work and cannot make a sound, otherwise Rick will be disturbed even if he is slightly disturbed. Emotionally irritable or even out of control.

Before, Mrs. Lu just felt sorry for Rick and went into his room a few times to give him food, so Rick locked herself in the attic...

For this reason, the second elder loved Rick so much that he didn't dare to move in to live with them.

But now, Rick actually came out on his own initiative?

Not only that, but Rick ran straight towards Daniel and hugged his leg.

Saul laughed out loud, "What is Rick doing? Hugging his thigh?"

Daniel looked down at his son, saw at a glance what he wanted to do, and refused without hesitation, "No, you already went there last night."

So Rick's eyes fell on his mobile phone.

"You already called once during dinner." Daniel refused again.

Saul at the side understood, it turned out that the little guy missed Selena.

Seeing that his papa didn't make any sense, Little Treasure ran up to Saul, repeated his old trick, and hugged his leg.

Saul was flattered, "Don't, don't, baby, don't do this trick with me, you know that your second uncle can't stand your cuteness!"

Although the little baby is usually blank, once he asks for something, his little expression and demeanor can make you die.

When he looks at you with his little head up and his big eyes that are as beautiful as stars, you can't wait to take all the stars from the sky and give them to him.

The only one in the family who could resist his move was Daniel.

Saul spread his hands helplessly, "Little Treasure, it's no use being cute to me, I can't beat your father!"

As soon as the words fell, Rick immediately let go of Saul.

Very decisive.

Seeing the little guy's expression of being beaten by a ruthless parent, Saul leaned against the wall and couldn't help laughing, "Hey, little treasure, you don't need to be so anxious. There is a saying that if the relationship lasts for a long time, How could it be day and night, when your father marries Aunt Selena, you will see her every day!"

Persuasion is useless.

The little guy slammed open the door and ran out.

Saul shrugged, "What should I do?"

"He ate a lot tonight," Daniel said.

The implication is that the nirvana of hunger strike will not be used in a short time.

Hearing what his brother said, Saul felt relieved.

However, they still underestimated Rick...

He is a child, so he doesn't need any tricks, just one word "make trouble" is enough.

No, as soon as the voice fell, there was a loud "bang" in the living room downstairs.

Saul and his brother looked at each other, and the two hurried downstairs.

In just a short while, the living room downstairs was in a mess. In the corner, a large antique vase taller than a person fell to the ground and was smashed to pieces. Everything that could be knocked down and dropped was not spared...

"Rickey!"

Normally Daniel would only call Rick by his full name when he was really angry.

Once the terrifying coercion was released, even Saul couldn't bear it, let alone Rick.

Rick was trembling with fear from his father's terrifying face, but his emotions became even more agitated, screaming at the top of his lungs and running around wreaking havoc.

Saul hurriedly followed behind to chase, but he didn't dare to chase too fast, there was so much debris on the ground, if one accidentally fell on it, the consequences would be disastrous.
