

Visible World chapter 22 read online

Chapter 22 A Killer Force

Julia was red with fury, "Anthony Stewart, you have no shame!"

Zachary was shocked by Anthony's statement and was rendered speechless for a moment, "You're heartless... Julia, why don't we go and try a new French restaurant..." Right after he spoke, Zachary turned around and said to Anthony, "I bet you can never afford to dine at such places, isn't it?"

Anthony shrugged, but before he could say anything, he felt a pat on his shoulder. "Hey Anthony, what a coincidence. What are you all talking about?"

It was Steve Rodgers. He was on his way to a business meeting and saw Anthony from a distance. Initially, he wasn't planning to talk to him, but Steven had to come over when he saw that he was being disdained. He sincerely wanted to be Anthony's friend.

Jonah Jones had called Anthony 'Master', and that had great implications. He thought that Anthony might be one of those hidden masters. His grandfather had said that it was a tremendous honor to befriend one.

Anthony smiled when he saw Steven, "Oh, this idiot here said that I have never been in a Ferrari. See, the one by the entrance!" Anthony was an intelligent man. From Steven's tone, he knew that Steven was there to lend him his support.

A smile appeared on Steven's face as he said, "Is that so. I have never been in one too. I have always preferred a Hummer, but I would like to see which car is better!" With that, Steven took out his phone and dialed a number, "Hello, Jarvey, can you drive my Hummer into that Ferrari? Just to see which car is stronger. Yes, the one by the entrance!"

Less than ten seconds after hanging up, a Hummer could be seen speeding up and rammed itself into the Ferrari.

There was a loud bang. The Ferrari was knocked back a few meters, and the bonnet flipped up. However, there was not a single scratch on the Hummer. Steven nodded in satisfaction, "Hah, it seems that Hummer is better. Anthony, I think that the Ferrari is not good!"

Anthony agreed, "You are right, I would not drive a second-hand car. It's disgusting!" Upon hearing Anthony, Zachary couldn't help staggering a little. Son of a bitch, why does he keep bringing up the same thing?

Zachary turned pale as he saw that his car was severely damaged. However, he did not dare to say anything. Although others may not know, Zachary knew who Steven was.

So, who was Steven? He was the son of the New York City mayor! Although Zachary's family was rich, they were nothing compared to Steven's family.

However, Julia did not know. When she saw that the car was severely damaged, she jumped and shouted at Steven, "You... Who do you think you are? Why are you behaving like Anthony, hating others when you can't afford it yourself? Pay up! If you can't pay, kneel down!"

Jessica came from a family with a slightly better background, so she had an idea of who Steven was. Jessica tugged at Julia's dress to warn her. This Julia, she thought that she could do anything now that she had a rich man.

But, Julia refused to stop, "What are you scared of? Anyone who's friends with Anthony is probably a nobody. I think that they are accomplices. They rent a car to appear rich and come here to steal. You all should guard your bags closely..."

Julia would not stop talking. Meanwhile, Zachary's face had turned green. He couldn't bear with her anymore, "Stupid woman, shut your mouth and scram... You are an embarrassment!" Zachary slapped Julia, causing her to spin on the spot. Her face was dazed with shock.

"You hit me? How dare you hit me for these scumbags?" Julia was really an idiot!

"Scram! Do you know who this is? He is the mayor's son, Steve Rodgers. You are just a second hand woman, so scram!" After scolding Julia, Zachary immediately turned to Steven with a smile and said, "Steven, I apologize for her ignorance. Please forgive me. I will take my leave first and not disturb the both of you!"

Steven raised an eyebrow and said, "Oh, you don't want me to compensate you for your car?"

Zachary stumbled a little and his heart raced. Oh my goodness, I need at least a few hundred thousand to fix those damages, "No need, no need!"

As Anthony watched Zachary, Julia, and Jessica leaving, he punched his fist lightly on Steven's chest and said, "Thank you, Steven!" Steven had helped him to get revenge on his enemy today. As for Julia, Anthony had completely given up on her.

Steven responded with a smile, "You're welcome. I also can't stand those haughty people. Oh, I need to head off to a meeting, I will treat you to lunch in a couple of days!" Steven had to rush off. After bidding Anthony farewell, Steven left hurriedly.

Anthony strolled along the Central Market by himself. He used the five hundred million he had won the day before to buy thirty pieces of raw Zumurrud stones, and all of them contained high-quality Zumurrud. These raw stones, once cut into Zumurruds, would be worth at least eighty or ninety million.

When he met up with Poppy again, Anthony started to ponder on the way back to the hotel. Now that he suddenly had a lot of money, what should he do next? He couldn't just sit there and do nothing.

Poppy's family were in the Zumurrud ware business and had been in this business for a long time. With his Carnelian vision, collaborating with Poppy in this Zumurrud ware business seemed a rather good option.

Just as Anthony was about to tell Poppy about it, his phone rang. It was an unknown number, "Anthony, you have been followed. You have to move according to my instructions. Now, go forward and turn left."

Followed? Anthony froze for a moment. He instinctively looked behind him and noticed that three cars – a white Audi, a black Volkswagen, and a Land Rover were following his taxi closely.

But who was the caller? Why would the caller tell him all these? "Who are you? Don't play with me!"

"Humph, I am your Master. Do as I say quickly! The people following you are very powerful. You won't be able to defeat them..." The voice on the other end brooked no argument.

Anthony couldn't help but freeze for a moment. Master? The Master had arrived so soon? "Understood!" Anthony remembered the oppressive force at the Grandeur Apartments and felt a sense of urgency.

This world was too dangerous. He needed to grow stronger soon. If not, he would surely die when he came across someone powerful. Under the directions from his master, the taxi moved out of the city.

Justin and Joel were seated in the Audi following Anthony, "Joel, this idiot is deciding to leave the city. He's getting himself killed!" In the city, Joel and Justin did not dare to kill him in the open. After all, there's active law enforcement in the city.

But out of the city, with very few people around, wouldn't it be easier for them to kill someone? Justin's bottom still hurts from being ravaged by two burly men, so he couldn't even sit down properly. However, when he heard that Joel wanted to punish Anthony, he insisted on going. Presently, he was kneeling on the car seat. The sight was both funny and comical.

Joel's expression did not relax, "Later, you must wait in the car and don't come out. It seems we are not the only ones targeting Anthony!" Judging from the forces coming from the Volkswagen, Joel could feel that they were only Class E, so he was not afraid.

What concerned him was the three people in the Land Rover. Based on the strong forces coming from them, the lowest was at least a Class C. If they interfere with the matter, Joel would not be able to fight against them. He really hoped that they were not his enemies!

The three people in the Land Rover were the ones who were monitoring the Reiki from the Relic on top of the communication tower. Since Joel could feel their force, they too were aware of Joel.

“Damn it. I didn’t get to sleep at all last night. At least we found the Awakener. All those Reiki absorbed by a single fellow. Why didn’t it kill him? I didn’t expect that there would be so many people targeting him!” The man in a windbreaker was driving the car and narrowed his eyes as he stared at the other two vehicles.

In the assistant driver seat, a middle-aged man smirked and said, “It’s just a collateral apprentice from Mount Beastial. He’s just a second-rate Awakener, not worth our attention. If he dared to harm this top rate Awakener apprentice, humph!”