

Chapter 1689 Flaming Mountain

In the end, Flaxseed transformed into a man that looked exactly like Kai.

Kai gaped in amazement at the change.

“W-Wow, you look exactly like me. Does this mean you can transform yourself into anyone and do whatever you want?” he asked in disbelief.

“I’m not powerful enough, so this Transforming Technique can only last for half an hour at most,” Flaxseed replied.

With that, he returned to his original self. Another flash of light appeared, and a man who was his replica stepped out behind him.

“However, I’m able to maintain this Clone Technique for thirty minutes to an hour!” Flaxseed continued.

As he observed his shadow clone, he nodded repeatedly. It seemed like he was very satisfied with it.

Kai was shocked to the core by the sight of two Flaxseeds standing before him.

His curiosity prompted him to step forward, pinch the shadow clone’s cheek, and slap it.

“Hey, are you a pervert? Why are you pinching my cheek?” Flaxseed slapped his hand away.

“This... This is actually real. It isn’t an illusion spell...” Kai could feel the warmth on the shadow clone.

“Of course! It wouldn’t be called Clone Technique if it were an illusion spell. But this shadow clone is only half as powerful as I am. Imagine how incredible it will be if it is as powerful as me!” Flaxseed sighed and dismissed his shadow clone.

If the shadow clone could be as powerful as him, it meant that he had double his own strength.

“This is incredible enough!” Kai praised.

It was then he finally saw how powerful the charm spell was. While his Nine Shadows could create several shadow clones, they were merely products of an illusion spell and were not real.

If he possessed Transforming Clone Charm, he could create a shadow clone to aid him in fleeing from tight situations. It was simply a perfect tool for escape!

Kai promptly regretted passing the charm spell to Flaxseed.

“Why? Do you regret your decision?” Flaxseed asked, quirking his lips into a faint smile.

“Why would I regret it? Since you promised to help me find Century Eye Herb, let’s go now!” Kai reminded Flaxseed of his promise and demanded that he fulfill it.

“Don’t worry. I didn’t forget my promise. Let’s go!”

Beaming with delight, Flaxseed led Kai out.

When they walked past the gate of Skywrath Sect, Kai glanced inside. When I get stronger, I must come back to the ancient ruins! I’m sure there are more powerful charm spells waiting for me inside!

After leaving the ancient ruins, Kai and Flaxseed began their journey to find Century Eye Herb.

They traveled for three days and arrived at the border of the Southwest Region.

The vast ocean was right in front of them.

“Mr. Flaxseed, where is Century Eye Herb? Are you lying to me?” Kai stared at the sea in exasperation.

“Relax. Why would I lie to you?” Flaxseed replied.

He then pulled out his geomantic compass to search for something.

The sea breeze blew past them, carrying a hint of saltiness.

Kai followed behind Flaxseed, curious to see where the latter would bring him.

They walked along the beach, and soon a small island appeared in front of their eyes. It seemed close to the coast, about a few miles away from them.

However, the island was emitting a light red glow. From a distance, it looked like a flaming mountain.

Flaxseed held his breath and gathered his spiritual energy on his feet. He then walked on the sea, heading toward the island.

When Kai saw his actions, he immediately went after him.

Given their current capabilities, walking on water was child’s play to them.

Evangeline was the last to move, floating above the sea. With that, the three of them made their way to the island.

If normal humans were to see them, they would have thought they were immortals who had descended to earth.

Just as they were about to arrive on the island, powerful gusts of heatwaves crashed onto them. In no time, their clothes were drenched in sweat.
