

The Mans Decree Chapter 1673 -

Chapter 1673 Refining

If it wasn't for the appearance of their spirit bodies, Kai would have already battered the Black Copper Robe warriors to death with his fists.

The spirits were extremely powerful. Acting as a cushion, they were capable of negating half the power of Kai's punch.

As Kai expended spiritual energy at a rapid rate, the golden dragons that covered his fists gradually faded.

The sight of Kai's dissipating strength delighted Skylar, for he hadn't expected the group of more than ten Black Copper Robe warriors to be able to defeat the former.

"He's almost done for! Pile it on!" Skylar urged.

As they, too, noticed that Kai was being weakened, the eyes of the Black Copper Robe warriors sparkled with hope.

"Hmph! Do you really think that you can kill me?" Kai roared at the top of his lungs.

With the golden hue of his body glowing as gloriously as ever, Kai's eyes brimmed with his eagerness to battle.

The next moment, his Focus Technique began to kick in, causing the spiritual energy of the heavens and earth to surge into his body.

The pulling force was so great that the black mists shielding the Black Copper Robe warriors' bodies were also sucked in.

The spirits in the form of human figures were also not spared as they were forcefully absorbed into Kai's body.

Kai's Focus Technique was capable of refining anything including negative and resentment energy. This naturally included spirits that didn't possess physical bodies.

The sudden turn of events struck fear into the spirits, causing them to return to the bodies of the Black Copper Robe warriors.

Seizing the opportunity, Kai smashed his fist into the chest of one of the warriors.

Boom!

The punch instantly pierced through his victim's body, leaving a pile of fresh blood and mashed organs in its wake.

However, when the spirit who possessed its body attempted to flee by ascending into the air, Kai grabbed onto it.

Thereafter, he opened his mouth and instantly sucked it into his body.

Given no opportunity to even struggle, it was instantly refined by Kai's Focus Technique.

The gruesome sight gave the Black Copper Robe warriors a rude awakening, for no one was ever capable of absorbing a spirit. After all, most people were focused on running for their lives instead.

Isn't he allowing the spirit to control his body?

Nonetheless, the moment the spirit entered Kai's body, it was instantaneously refined without any opportunity to assert its authority.

That was the first time the warriors witnessed such a terrifying technique.

As the urge to flee swelled within them, none of them dared to approach Kai.

Unfortunately, the latter wasn't going to let them off the hook even if they refrained from attacking.

In the blink of an eye, Kai appeared in front of another one and fired away a devastating punch.

Pfft!

After his victim's brain was blasted into smithereens, a black mist began ascending into the air.

Once the spirit's host was killed, it was their nature to leave it in search of another.

Nevertheless, Kai repeated his tactic by opening his mouth to swallow it.

Instead of landing a scratch on Kai, the Black Copper Robe warriors ended up being turned into a resource for him to draw upon.

"Cast your spells! Cast your spells!" Skylar yelled.

At this rate, the Black Copper Robe warriors would be decimated by Kai one by one with their respective spirits swallowed accordingly.

As the remaining warriors exchanged glances, they could clearly see the terror and helplessness in their comrades' eyes.

In the end, all of them stood in a group with black mist rising continuously from above their heads.

Thereafter, the mist amalgamated together and formed the figure of a giant.

Exuding a fearsome aura, it was the result of all the spirits combined.

As a listless look descended upon them, the group of warriors stood frozen. What was left of them looked no different from corpses.

In between their brows, a drop of red blood essence gradually oozed out before floating into the air.

They subsequently combined together to form a gemstone the size of an egg before settling into the forehead of the giant figure.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1674 -

Chapter 1674 It Is Your Turn

At the same time, the Black Copper Robe warriors collapsed to the ground. Their bodies shriveled quickly as if they had been sucked dry of their strength.

Giving Kai a condescending look, the giant emitted an oppressive aura that filled the entire surroundings.

Compared to his towering body that blocked off the sky, Kai was like a mere insect standing in front of him.

Meanwhile, the wide-eyed Skylar stared at the giant, unable to believe his eyes.

That was the first time he ever saw the magecraft spell known as Infinite Devil's Heart.

Once the spell was cast, it would plunder everything from the user. Not only would the Black Copper Robe warrior's body dry out, but the spirit attached to it would also become part of the giant.

Consequently, the giant's power was directly proportional to the caster's strength. The stronger the caster, the longer the duration the giant could sustain.

Therefore, based on the Black Copper Robe warriors' strength, the giant had a time limit of half an hour.

After that, he would fade out of existence, while the warriors and their respective spirits would also die out.

The brutality of this particular spell was the reason why it was rarely used.

"Kai, death awaits you this time."

A smug yet maniacal expression broke out on Skylar's face.

Even though the Black Copper Robe warriors had sacrificed their lives, Skylar didn't think much of it. All that mattered was that he was still alive.

"It that so? In that case, just you watch."

No sooner had Kai spoken than he stomped on the ground, launching himself into the air.

Despite facing off with the gargantuan giant, Kai didn't feel an ounce of fear. With his fist glowing with the Power of Dragons, he unleashed another punch.

Amidst the roar of a dragon, Kai gave his punch everything he had as it exploded forward just like a cannonball.

In response, the red jewel on the giant's forehead began to glow before he intercepted the attack with his own fist.

Although the size of Kai's body was minuscule compared to the giant—it was in fact smaller than the giant's fist—his eyes showed only determination and were devoid of any fear.

Boom!

The moment their blistering punches smashed into each other, Kai was instantaneously thrown back, whereas the giant was visibly shaking from the impact.

Upon regaining his balance, Kai felt his conviction deepen after observing the result of his attack.

"You're not as tough as you look. I'm going to smash your head with this punch."

Kai was cognizant that the giant derived its power from the gemstone on his forehead that comprised of solidified blood essence. As long as he could destroy the gemstone, the giant would definitely disappear.

Holding that thought, Kai fired another punch. This time, the golden hue on his body dazzled brilliantly as his entire being exploded in the giant's direction.

In an attempt to counter the attack, the giant threw a punch of his own. Unfortunately, his fist was immediately shattered by the impact.

The giant subsequently collapsed to the ground, throwing a cloud of dust into the air.

Next, Kai unleashed a relentless attack upon the gemstone located on the giant's forehead in order to destroy it.

He looked as if he had gone berserk as his golden fists pounded the giant's head again and again.

Once, twice, thrice...

Laying on the ground, the giant was incapable of counterattacking.

After suffering just two attacks, it had fallen down and become nothing but a punching bag.

The scene simply filled Skylar with disbelief.

This giant was formed from the combined power of more than ten Black Copper Robe warriors and their spirits. How did it end up being so weak?

Boom!

When Kai's final punch landed, it shattered the gemstone on the giant's forehead.

Following that, the giant's head was split wide open, while its body gradually dissipated into thin air.

Once he gradually got back to his feet, Kai gave Skylar an icy stare.

"And now, you're next."

With a sharp glint in his eyes, Kai leaped into the air and smashed his golden fists in Skylar's direction.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1675 -

Chapter 1675 Are You Now Afraid

"Kai, I possess a sacred martial arts relic. You're the one who's going to die."

Snorting, Skylar raised his scepter, which released a terrifying power.

Weapon in hand, he swung it in Kai's direction, directing the powerful force at the latter.

Boom!

Upon impact, the massive energy sent Kai flying, his Golem Body fading away.

As the sacred martial arts relic contained the power of a Martial Arts Saint, Kai was no match for it in his current condition.

“Hahaha, Kai, you had better surrender obediently!”

The sight of Kai being beaten back easily triggered a maniacal laugh from Skylar.

“F*ck you!” Kai cursed, before lunging at Skylar with the Power of Dragons raging within him.

Nevertheless, his strength paled in comparison to that of a sacred martial arts relic.

Despite attacking at full strength, he was still smashed away by the scepter.

As he spewed a mouthful of blood, it was evident that he had suffered grievous injuries from the two powerful strikes.

Looking grim, Kai rapidly adjusted the aura in his body. In spite of that, he was at his wits end in the face of the sacred martial arts relic.

“Kai, run. Just leave me... Let me be...” Josephine yelled at the top of her voice.

She didn’t want to see Kai sacrifice his life to save her.

“Josephine, I’ll rescue you today regardless of what it takes.”

He was cognizant that once she was locked up in the dungeon, rescuing her would be a significantly more daunting task.

Nonetheless, Kai’s efforts were being frustrated by Skylar. How can I defeat Skylar to save her?

It was then that he looked in Evangeline’s direction.

Chester mentioned before that Evangeline has the strength of a Martial Arts Saint. Perhaps she’s capable of taking on the sacred martial arts relic Skylar is wielding.

“Evangeline, Evangeline, can you kill this kid for me?” Kai asked.

Unfortunately, she didn’t move at all. With the listless look in her eyes, it was as if his words fell on deaf ears.

Her response, or the lack of it, filled Kai with helplessness. Despite possessing the power equivalent to a Martial Arts Saint, she was now no different from a retard, perhaps worse. I shouldn’t delude myself that she’s capable of helping me.

“Hahaha, Kai, are you now so afraid that you have to get a fool to fight me?”

Skylar burst into hysterical laughter.

When he laid eyes on Skylar’s deranged expression, a piercing glint flashed across Kai’s eyes.

Pulling out the Dragonslayer Sword, he knew that he had to lure Skylar away in order to save Josephine. As long as the latter was guarding the steel cage, there was no way he could strike.

“Skylar, even though you wield a sacred martial arts relic, I’m still capable of killing you.”

Just as he spoke, Kai leaped into the air and slashed his sword at Skylar, firing a massive sword arc.

Smirking at the impending attack, Skylar brandished his scepter to unleash a powerful force to counter Kai’s sword arc.

The next moment, all Kai felt was the approach of overwhelming power before his body was blown far away from his previous position.

In the midst of flying backward, Kai bellowed, “Skylar, I’m going to f*cking kill you sooner or later.”

Thereafter, Kai’s figure began to distance itself in his attempt to flee.

“F*ck, how dare you escape.”

Exploding into the air, Skylar gave chase.

With the sacred martial arts relic in hand, there was no way he was going to allow Kai to flee.

However, the moment Skylar began his pursuit, Kai had already begun to circle back.

His real intention was to divert Skylar away so that he could return to rescue Josephine.

After all, it was impossible for him to leave without saving her.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1676 -

Chapter 1676 The Trap

Thinking that Kai had escaped, Josephine heaved a sigh of relief but grew anxious immediately upon seeing him return. “Kai, just go. Leave me. They won’t dare kill me.”

Her pleas were never going to be obeyed by Kai.

“Josephine, I’ll definitely get you out of there today!”

No sooner had he spoken than he stepped forward to pry open the steel bars of the cage with brute strength.

Before he could break them, a ray of light suddenly shot out of the ground, engulfing both Kai and Josephine within it.

Subsequently, densely arranged runes began to appear at their feet. Emitting a radiant glow, the runes floated into the air and began circling the two of them.

“What are these?”

Kai’s brows furrowed curiously.

Not knowing what it was, he guessed that it was an arcane array.

While still baffled by the sudden appearance of the runes, both of them noticed a black hole open up beneath their feet.

The hole contained a suction power that gradually pulled them down into it.

Shocked by what was happening, Kai desperately struggled to free himself. Nonetheless, his efforts were futile as they continued to sink as if they were stuck in quicksand.

“Hahaha, Kai, you’re such a fool. Did you really think that I was pursuing you? I left on purpose to allow you the opportunity to save your girlfriend. Now that you have taken the bait, you and your girl will be locked up together in the dungeon. You’re nothing but a fool to think that you can actually defeat me.”

Skylar’s eyes brimmed with unreserved triumph.

Despite staring daggers at Skylar, Kai was unable to free himself from the black hole no matter how hard he tried.

Just like that, both Kai and Josephine gradually sank in.

“Why? Why were you so foolish? Now that you have gotten yourself captured, is it worth it?”

With the steel cage separating the two, Josephine reached out to gently stroke Kai’s face.

“It is. Even in death, dying by your side is well worth the risk.”

Kai held Josephine’s hand tightly, his eyes brimming with affection.

A long time had passed since both of them had any physical contact.

The warmth they gave each other extinguished any fear that Kai had felt.

Unfortunately, the tender moment ignited the burning rage within Skylar's eyes. "Kai, I'll make sure both of you are separated forever. Even in hell, you won't be able to see each other!"

Ignoring Skylar, Kai continued to hold Josephine's hand tightly, treasuring what might be their last moment together.

By then, both of them were chest-deep in the hole and would soon sink into the dungeon.

As Skylar watched on, a sense of satisfaction descended upon him, for he had finally sought vengeance for his family.

All this while, Kai had been a nightmare to him, but now, the nightmare's end was nigh.

While watching Kai's final moments before he ended up in the dungeon, Skylar noticed a figure flash by in front of him.

Upon regaining his senses, he saw the previously clueless Evangeline standing by Kai's side.

Although her body was within the effective area of the arcane array, she didn't sink at all.

Thereafter, she gave Kai a gentle pull and easily flung him out of the hole.

Gripped by elation, Kai frantically yelled, "Evangeline, pull my girlfriend out! Hurry!"

Regardless of how loud Kai's screams were, Evangeline didn't move a muscle. In the end, all he could do was watch helplessly as Josephine fell into the dungeon.

"Argh!" Kai roared in frustration.

This was the closest he had gotten to rescuing Josephine, and yet, failure was the result.