

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

Chapter 2342

She has been reluctant to call Dad.

I've always felt unfriendly.

I can't open this mouth, even if I don't hate it, I still can't open this mouth.

But Alyce only suddenly realized when an old man who was drooping really passed away.

She has no father.

The word "Dad" was something she wanted to have all her life, but she couldn't get it until one day, when she became completely strong and didn't need her father anymore. .

At that time, Alyce was caught off guard.

No mental preparation at all.

More resistance, incompatibility, ruthlessness, all kinds.

In short, there is no love.

She thought she didn't need a father in her life, really.

Father in front of her will only evoke her infinite pain.

So, never recognized.

Even if I didn't hate it later, I still couldn't love it.

Very stubborn.

But, at this moment, her father really died, and it was no longer possible to wait outside Alyce's gate. When she looked at her from a distance, Alyce suddenly realized that from now on, she no longer had a father.

Those love-hate relationships all vanished as the old man's hand fell.

Not anymore.

But she has completely become a daughter without a father.

In the future, no one will watch her from a distance, care about her safety, and call her from a distance: "Alyce, I know you are safe."

No one will do this to her again.

Alyce suddenly raised his head to the sky and howled: "Dad, Daddy! Don't die! I want to call you Daddy... I agree to call Daddy, I will never be angry with you again, Dad, are you alive? , you come back to life.

Dad, you haven't participated in my dance competition.

Dad, you haven't sat in the auditorium yet, watching me play the piano solo.

My piano is very good, very good.

Also Yes, my paintings are as good as my mother's.

Dad, you haven't given me a birthday yet...

Dad, don't die..."

Some words Cry, from the heart.

It also expresses Alyce's lifelong sadness and longing.

The elder brother behind him supported Alyce: "Alyce, don't cry, my father is gone, and my elder brother, and your nephews, you are a member of this family, and your elder brother will accompany you every year on your birthday in the future. Don't be sad, Alyce..."

Alyce looked up at the unfamiliar brother in front of her. When she saw him, she would think of the scene where this brother kicked her far away when she was a child.

That kind of fear.

It can never be eliminated.

Alyce thought to himself, how long does it take for one person to build trust in another person?

She hated her father all her life.

It took her father five or six years to stand unswervingly outside her courtyard to wait for her even in the wind and rain, and at the moment of death, all the obstacles in her heart were dispelled.

And now this brother?

Alyce looked at her brother blankly.

Suddenly I felt that everyone was getting old.

Father died of old age.

I'm in my fifties too.

My brother is almost seventy.

How much hate can there be in life, and it needs to be carried by the length of life?

It shouldn't be.

Even if it used to be so unbearable, but that has passed, and now the father and brother are truly remorseful.

Although my brother didn't wait outside her small courtyard every day like his father, he voluntarily gave up his father's inheritance.

This is enough to show that my brother treats her as a relative.

never mind.

The past is gone.

"Brother." Alyce looked at her brother with tears in her eyes.

“Alyce...”

Chapter 2343

“Don’t be sad, Alyce, sister-in-law will also be your relative in the future.” The sister-in-law is also very emotional.

The sister-in-law is in Shu’s house and is considered an outsider.

But since she married into the Shu family, the Shu family has been very good and united.

Later, the younger sister and the beautiful woman encountered an air crash, and the old man also offered to bring the orphan of the younger sister and brother-in-law to the Shu family to be the eldest lady to support.

This also shows that the old man is not a particularly bad person.

The old man just has a lot of wrong ideas.

Too self-centered.

It is because of these shortcomings that the biological daughter suffers from the outside world.

“Sister-in-law doesn’t know what happened in the past. I just listen to Ah Zhen, your brother, and father-in-law. But after hearing about these things, she knows that you have suffered a lot

. SuziSuzi also suffered.

Everything was the fault of the Shu family.

My sister-in-law couldn’t help crying at night when she heard about those things.

Alyce, my sister-in-law really loves you. I will love you in the future...”

Sister-in-law She cried and hugged Alyce.

She really felt sorry for this little girl.

Even if it's just the same parent.

The little sister-in-law is arrogant, upright, and never covets the Shu family. In her fifties, she is self-reliant.

He is proficient in painting and calligraphy.

To say that the Shu family is also blind.

I have raised a woman like Gu Jianing as a baby for a lifetime. In the end, Gu Jianing brought her daughter Gu Xiaoqing back to act as a monster.

But, what about the Shu family's direct daughter?

But it has always been upright.

This shows that the little mother back then was a very decent person.

Especially this time, Alyce admired the police and destroyed such a big criminal gang. This is her alone in the tiger's den, fighting wits and courage with the criminal gang, and serving justice for how many people?

This kind of brave thing, only Alyce's mother has done.

Alyce's mother was so brave when she was young, so she risked her life to save the old man's life, which made the old man make a great contribution.

This is the glory of the Shu family.

Alyce's mother is the real noble of the Shu family.

Alyce!

She is the eldest young lady kissed by the younger brother of the Shu family.

The sister-in-law was holding her sister-in-law, and the two women were crying.

Alyce also felt warm: "Sister-in-law, in the future... I will go with you to pay my father's grave and visit my father's grave. I will also come to walk with you often in the future. In the TV series that was broadcast not long ago, the love of parents, in which My sister-in-law and sister-in-law have a good relationship.

In their later years, my brother-in-law and sister-in-law lived together.

Every time I see a scene like that, I cry.

Sister-in-law, you and brother will be my closest relatives from now on.

“Well...” The sister-in-law nodded desperately.

Seeing his mother so relieved, Suzi next to him couldn't help but burst into tears.

Although the symbol and glory of the Shu family passed away at this moment.

But the people of the Shu family still have to live strong.

It's nice to be able to do that.

At least my mother doesn't have to be too lonely in the future.

It doesn't matter if the right of inheritance is not inherited.

After all, my mother couldn't have spent that much money alone.

And Suzi and the children, with the support of the Fu Group's huge family property, Suzi will not pay more than one billion yuan in his eyes.

Not to be greedy for such a family property.

“Uncle, aunt, let's take care of grandfather's funeral together, right?”
Since mother and aunt and uncle were reconciled, Suzi naturally agreed with her mother's decision.

She is very positive.

Darius next to him was also very positive: "Okay, let's do grandfather's funeral together."

"Okay, good! Very good! Your acting is so flawless, you not only lied to my grandfather, but also my dad. Mom has been bewitched by you! But I won't let you succeed! Don't forget, I have two younger brothers!" Behind him, Shu Mingxia gritted his teeth.

"Yes! And us! Our three brothers will not let you two women succeed!" At some point, Shu Mingtian and Shu Mingyu were also standing outside.
