

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2946

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2946 -An hour later, Avery bought some desserts at the dessert shop, and then left.

After Avery left, Juliette suddenly came out.

“Joanna, Avery is so satisfied with you! She gave you all the door cards! Don’t you want to go to Foster’s house in the future? You can go to Foster’s house if you want to? You have half-footed into a wealthy family!” Juliette said, “Next time you go to Foster’s house, can you take more photos of their house for me to see? I really want to see all the details of this super wealthy family.”

Joanna: “I’m going to take care of my kids on weekends, so I’m sure I won’t go to Foster’s house every week.”

Juliette: “Take some pictures when you go!”

Joanna replied, “Why is this so embarrassing? There must be a lot of people watching at their house! The most I can do is to take photos of the big fruit, and I will definitely not take photos of people’s houses.”

Juliette: “Then I’ll make a video call for you, and I’ll be able to see it when you pick up the video call.”

“As long as you’re not embarrassed, that’s fine.” Joanna was in a good mood, so she readily agreed to Juliette’s not-too-excessive request.

...

After returning home, Avery smiled and said to Hayden: “Joanna is so talkative! I asked her everything and answered me. She even took me to her dessert shop!”

Avery handed the dessert to Hayden: “Do you want to try it?”

“Her dessert shop?” Hayden took the dessert and put it on the table.

Hayden didn’t like sweets.

“She said her friend invested, and she managed it. She owns the shares.” Avery had a good impression of Joanna.

Joanna had self-esteem and self-motivation.

“No wonder she quit her job as a reporter.” Hayden said, “What else did she tell you?”

Avery took a small cake out of the bag and tasted it: "I said next time GD's boss will come to teach me how to make cakes and ask her to come and learn. She agreed."

Hayden: "You called her to the house?"

"What's the matter? Her son is at our house, why can't she come to our house?" Avery retorted, "I know you think we don't know her well enough, and I'm afraid she has other thoughts, but Joanna shouldn't be that kind of person, in my opinion. You see, she has given us her biggest bargaining chip."

Avery said that the biggest bargaining chip was the child.

"Mom, you must be cautious. Before you get to know her, you should observe her more!" Hayden reminded, "I'm going back to Bridgedale. I'll return to Aryadelle after the situation over there is resolved."

"Okay! No problem." Avery replied, "We will raise your son for nothing, and you can handle your work with peace of mind. Try to return to Aryadelle as soon as possible, so that our family can be reunited."

"Mom, don't make the child too fat. Being too fat is unhealthy." Hayden worried that the two of them spoiled the child too much and raised him like a pig.

He didn't like being too fat, whether it's a child or an adult.

"Hahaha! I thought you didn't care about your son! Don't worry, I will be careful." Avery breathed a sigh of relief, "But you told me yesterday that Joanna looks average, what kind of eyes do you have? She looks pretty good! and she's not worse than your two younger sisters."

Hayden: "Mom, are you serious?"

"They each have their own beauty! Joanna is pretty unique; she is a true beauty. You will notice a difference if you dress slightly better." Avery took another bite of the cake, "Hayden, do you want to think about her?"

Hayden hardly thought about it, and rejected his mother's proposal: "Mom, it was an accident that I had a child with her. You can't think that she and I should become husband and wife just because of this accident."

"I didn't say you should become husband and wife. I just think Joanna is a nice woman. You can try to get to know her better."

"No time." Hayden told the truth, "You and Dad want me to transfer my work to Aryadelle. Do you know how much work it is?"

Avery knew that what his son said was the truth, so she didn't force it.

"Okay! Then you should focus on your work first. We will talk about other things when your career stabilizes in Aryadelle." Avery took a small cake from the bag and handed it to his son, "Try it! The taste is still delicious."

Hayden took the cake and took a bite.

~End of the When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2946~

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2947

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2947 -"Average." It's not that Hayden had never eaten desserts, the desserts from Joanna's house were really not that good, "Mom, you are boasting to her with your eyes closed."

"You're too picky." After Avery finished speaking, she turned and walked away.

It's weekend.

Avery invited the boss of GD Desserts to come over and teach her how to make cakes.

After Avery made an appointment with the boss of GD, she notified Joanna.

Today was Joanna's first visit to Foster's house.

Avery told the whole family that the child's mother was coming to visit the house, so everyone was looking forward to seeing her.

It was the first time Joanna came here, and she was very nervous. She lost sleep because of this incident last night.

She bought some fruit at the fruit shop.

When Avery saw her, she immediately took the fruit from her hand.

"Come here as soon as you come. What are you doing buying fruit? Don't be so polite! Next time you come, you can't bring gifts." Avery brought her shoes.

When Joanna changed her shoes, she felt her heart beat faster.

The interior space of this villa was too big.

"Joanna, let me introduce my child to you." After Joanna changed her shoes, Avery brought Joanna to the living room.

Layla, Hazel and Robert were all at home today.

Because this weekend, they all stayed at home.

But if Joanna didn't come today, they might not stay at home.

"This is my oldest daughter, Layla, who is a little older than you. This is my youngest daughter, Hazel, and this is my youngest son, Robert." Avery introduced the three children to Joanna.

"Hi Joanna, you don't have to be too restrained, my parents are very easy-going people." Layla talked to Joanna first.

Joanna nodded again and again: "Yeah, Auntie is really very kind, otherwise I wouldn't dare to come here."

"Hello, Miss Joanna."

"Hello, Miss Joanna."

Hazel and Robert greeted Joanna respectively.

"Hello, hello. Nice to meet you." Joanna's mind went blank, not knowing what to say.

"Elliot." Seeing that they already knew each other, Avery shouted for her husband to come out.

Hearing his wife's shout, Elliot immediately walked out of the guest room.

"Honey, keep your voice down, the child fell asleep!" Elliot strode into the living room, and after reminding her, his eyes fell on Joanna's face, "You are Joanna, right?"

"Hi Uncle, I'm Joanna. Auntie asked me to come and learn how to make desserts." Joanna said politely.

"Yeah. You guys go!" Elliot was also very polite.

Avery led Joanna to the kitchen.

Joanna asked in a low voice, "Auntie, have you named the child yet?"

"Not yet! I don't know what to choose. I don't even know what to choose for his nickname." Avery laughed, "I wanted Hayden to take it, but Hayden said he didn't know how to take it, so let us take it. We have been doing it for a few days. I'm thinking about this! Do you have a better name?"

“What do you think about the nickname Dorian?” Joanna said with a smile, “I called him Dorian before.”

~End of the When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2947~

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2948

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2948 -“It’s great! Dorian... so cute!” Avery was very satisfied with the nickname, “Do you have a better name?”

Joanna shook her head: “I can’t think of it either. You and uncle can think about it slowly.”

“Hahaha! When I used to name my children, I had a lot of inspiration! My children, I can choose whatever they want, whether it sounds nice or not, and I’m not afraid. But when I choose a name for my grandson, I always have a lot of worries.” Avery talked about her mentality, “You can help think about it when you go back!”

Joanna: “Alright.”

Avery introduced Joanna to the boss of GD Dessert.

After the two greeted each other, the owner of GD Dessert enthusiastically began to teach Joanna how to make cakes.

“For a new dessert shop, as long as there are one or two high-quality desserts at the beginning, many customers will be able to attract repeated purchases. The most important thing about opening a store is not only good quality and taste, but also service.”

“I will teach you how to make two cakes today. One is a box cake that has been selling well in our store for twenty years, and the other is a new product developed by our store...”

Joanna listened and watched carefully.

Time flies, and it’s noon.

Because the kitchen was occupied by the two of them today, they went out for lunch.

“Joanna, what’s the matter with you and my brother? My brother won’t even tell us the details!” Arriving at the dining table, Layla looked at Joanna and asked, “Don’t worry, we won’t speak to my brother.”

Joanna was a little embarrassed.

Could it be that she took the initiative to have a one-night stand with Hayden because she was attracted to Hayden?

This was too shameful.

“My brother said he drank too much. But my brother should be able to drink well. How could he mess around because he drank too much? He got drunk more than once, so it’s impossible to mess around with women every time he gets drunk! I suspect that he fell in love with you at first sight and fell in love with you.” Seeing that Joanna was shy, Layla expressed her guess.

Avery felt that what her daughter said made sense.

She had been drunk too, and knew what it was like to be drunk.

The average person was basically asleep when they were drunk, and it was impossible for them to think about finding a woman to do that kind of thing.

“No. Layla, it’s not what you think.” Joanna quickly denied, “He didn’t fall in love with me at first sight, I don’t know him at all.”

“You two don’t know each other at all, so why did you give birth to a baby?” Layla smiled, her eyebrows curved, “My brother is very picky, and ordinary women can’t get into his eyes at all. He has never been in a relationship.”

“Huh?” Joanna was very surprised, she didn’t expect Hayden to be such a man.

No wonder Hayden immediately found her after their family received the child.

“Joanna, I think Hayden still likes you a little bit, but he hasn’t realized it yet. If he didn’t like you at all, he wouldn’t do that kind of thing with you.” Avery explained.

Avery also really wanted to know what happened to Joanna and Hayden, and see if there was any need to match them up.

“Auntie, didn’t he tell you all about the inside story?” Joanna was a little puzzled.

Avery looked surprised: “There is still something inside this matter? He didn’t tell us!”

“Oh... Maybe he felt a little ashamed?” Joanna guessed, “He drank the drink that was spiked.”

Everyone: “...”

~End of the When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2948~

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2949

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2949 -Elliot was the fastest to recover from the shock.

“When did it happen?” Elliot asked.

Joanna: “The night Layla got married.”

Elliot frowned: “Are you sure?!”

“Well. In fact, it can be deduced roughly from the time of the child’s birth. On the day of Layla’s wedding, I found a relationship and sneaked into the banquet hall. I heard someone plotting in the bathroom... I wanted to inform Hayden, But I never found a chance. So I went to the housekeeping department to wait...that’s how it happened. He didn’t fall in love with me at first sight, and I was completely surprised with him.”

After Joanna finished speaking, the expression on Layla’s face suddenly changed.

“Joanna, do you know who put something in my brother’s drink?” Layla wanted to catch that person, no matter what she could do, at least she must know who was behind her brother’s plan.

Joanna shook her head, “I don’t know, and I don’t remember. Hayden must be clear about this.”

“Well, Joanna, thank you for telling us this. I didn’t expect this kind of thing to happen.” Avery had a serious expression on her face, “Hayden didn’t tell us, probably because he didn’t want us to pursue this matter. Now that this matter is over, there is no need to mention it again.”

Layla: “Mom, how can you just let it go like this? My brother was plotted against. If he meets someone else instead of a woman as good as Joanna, I can’t even imagine the consequences.”

“Your brother didn’t pursue it, which means he doesn’t want us to know.” Avery replied, “Since it didn’t cause serious consequences, let’s forget about it. If we hold a banquet in the future, we must not let this happen again.”

“It’s so scary!” Robert said suddenly, “In a few years, I will be targeted too, right?”

The originally serious atmosphere was directly distorted by Robert’s words.

“You can find a girlfriend now, get a certificate, get married and have children. In this way, there will be fewer people staring at you.” Layla advised Robert.

“Sister, stop teasing me. I’m really worried.” Robert was also afraid that one day he would suddenly be forced to become a father.

He hadn’t played enough yet!

Layla: “Then you don’t go to any gatherings in the future, just stay at home honestly and make sure you will be safe.”

“This will definitely not work! I won’t drink drinks from anyone in the future.” Robert was really frightened by this incident, “Sister, when you got married, all the people who came to the wedding banquet were very close relatives and friends I didn’t expect this to happen again.”

“It should be Eric’s relatives and friends.” Elliot said, “If it is our relatives and friends, there is no need for Hayden to hide it from us.”

“Okay, there’s no need to pursue this matter. If we tell Hayden, Hayden will know that Joanna told us. Maybe Hayden will blame Joanna.” Avery picked up the serving chopsticks to Joanna picked vegetables, “Joanna, thank you for telling us this. Don’t worry, we won’t tell Hayden.”

“Auntie, it doesn’t matter if you tell him. He won’t come to me just for this matter.” Joanna felt that she and Hayden would not have any interaction in the future.

Hayden should be a workaholic and won’t stay at home all the time.

In the future, when she went to Foster’s house to see Dorian, she probably won’t meet Hayden either.

After lunch, Joanna took a taxi back to the store.

She was going to go to the store and try again what she had learned this morning.

In fact, she had never made desserts seriously, but she had watched dessert chefs did it many times, so it was not too strenuous to learn this time.

Back in the store, she ran into Juliette.

“Joanna, aren’t you resting today?” Juliette knew that Joanna went to Foster’s house today, and also knew that she was going to Foster’s house to learn how to make desserts, so she didn’t make her a video call.

“I want to try today’s learning results. Juliette, you can try it for me later.” Joanna walked towards the baking room.

~End of the When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2949~

