Chapter 1772

David definitely thousand

To be honest he would be as excellent as those top geniuses if he was a Sovereign Ranker at this age However Archimedes would never believe David if he said he was a Sant

This was because it was beyond logic

It was only possible if David was from an even higher civilization outside of Star Kingdom

It was impossible for a less than a thousand year old Saint to av

Kingdom

No matter how talented he was how many strange encounters he had or how many treasures of heaven consumed it was still impossible and

The other powerhouses from the Lightfoot family were utterly amused

They had the same thoughts as Archimedes

They only had one word in their hearts Impossible

David did not try to explain as he was faced with the jeers from Archimedes and the Lightfoot family members

No one would believe him no matter what he said anyway

It would be better to just take action

As he looked at them mocking him David thought to himself Go on, keep laughing Be happy now so I can send you to hel ter

Consider this as me paying people who are about to die

As time passed Archimedes waves of laughter also quieted down

David never said anything this entire time

Everyone figured something was not right with David

When the scene quieted down David said "Are you done? Get ready to die then! As a Saint, I have been very kind to endure you

ants laughing at me

David, you

Before Archimedes could finish his senses, he was interrupted by an energy that made him feel despair

Bernard sensed something was wrong while David was speaking

As he was about to cast the Eternal Golden Body, he realized he could not move his body at all it was as if he had been hit with a binding spell

The others were about to follow Archimedes order and run back home using a space crack

The moment they tore open a small crack, they realized they could not move anymore.

The people who were frozen showed horrified looks on their faces

The pressure was too strong

It felt as if the sky had fallen on top of them

They could not move, but at the same time, they had endless fear rising in their chest,

“Is this Saint’s Might? H-How is this possible? A Are you really a Saint Bernard asked in horror

His words were like a clap of thunder.

Everyone was feeling dizzy from the shock. Some people even passed out on the spot.

When Archimedes heard what Bernard said, he vomited blood and passed out.

He was next to David so he could feel David’s Saint Might even more. Coupled with what Bernard said, he had a complete emotional breakdown.

‘I’ve offended a Saint that’s less than a thousand years old!

I’m dead!

“The Lightfoot family is doomed!”
