I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1791—"Valerio, are you forcing me to use violence on you?"

"No, I'm just telling the truth!"

"Valerio, don't think I'm afraid of you! You think too highly of yourself. The Fellowes family is a family that is on the verge of collapsing and it will soon become history. How dare you be so arrogant in front of my family. What a joke," said Koen with a sneer

"Koen! I've always respected you since you are my senior, but don't be unsatisfied with small gains. Except for TSA's Holy Root, the other four trading companies are similar in size. The predicament the Fellowes family is facing today will be what you face tomorrow. You can't be complacent for too long." Valerio stood up and said loudly.

Koen's words hit a sore spot for the Fellowes family.

The problems faced by the Fellowes family today were basically known to all the forces who are somewhat ostentatious in Star Kingdom.

That was why Treasure Trove's performance had declined rapidly over the years.

Valerio could not do anything about this.

It was not that he was incompetent.

It was just the general trend now.

The grandmasters were all trying to find a solution, but they had not seen any results.

Naturally, they would not be in the mood to ask about the family and Treasure Trove.

"Haha! Valerio, your words are simply ridiculous. How can my family be compared to your family? Even if we will encounter that, your family will already be gone, and you won't have any inheritance. Also, how do you know that my family will not reach the top during this long period?" Koen said with a loud laugh.

"You want to reach the top? Stop dreaming. If it were that easy, how would my family end up in this state? Plus, Star Kingdom has been developed for so many years yet how many people managed to reach its peak?"

"Just because your family can't doesn't mean mine can't."

“You? If I got my news right, Archimedes and Cornelius are the first and second-in-line heirs of your family, right? You still want to reach the top with the quality of your descendants? Hilarious!” Valerio shook his head and said.

Then, he ignored Koen and Dax’s gloomy faces and continued, “The reason your family can get to where you are today is all because of a woman. My family doesn’t have the habit of relying on women.”

Valerio knew that if the Lightfoot family did not get what they wanted today, they would have a fallout with the Fellowes family.

Since that was the case, he did not need to hold back anymore.

The Fellowes family would not betray David anyway.

The more Valerio spoke, the darker Koen’s face became.

After he finished what he said, Koen’s face was so dark it was scary.

The Lightfoot family only got their status now after marrying off one of their female direct descendants into the Ginger family and using her to gain power.

Therefore, Valerio was not wrong when he said they had relied on a woman.

However, it would be fine if he said this behind the Lightfoot family’s backs.

However, he was the first person to dare to say this in front of a Saint from the Lightfoot family.

“Valerio Fellowes, you’re asking for it!”

Koen spat through gritted teeth and exposed his energy as a Saint. Then, he reached out to grab Valerio’s neck at lightning speed.

He could not hold himself back anymore.

How dare Valerio insult his family?

Even if Koen injured Valerio right now, the Fellowes family would not dare to make a peep.

However, Koen did not plan to kill Valerio.

The Fellowes family was already in a plight with no way out and they did not have much time.

The Lightfoot family did not want the Fellowes family to counter-attack while at death's door.

However, Koen still had to teach Valerio a lesson.

Since Koen was a Saint, Valerio the partial Saint did not have any room for resistance. Hence, he could only watch as all this unfolded in front of him.

When Koen was about to attack, he sensed the energy of another Saint.

When the two energies collided, an invisible storm was created in the room, causing Valerio and Dax, the partial Saints, to feel a buzz in their heads.

At the same time, the other party grabbed Koen's hand.
