Chapter 1800

It would be troublesome if that happened. What would happen to a group of gorgeous women with low combat power after they came out?

‘What should I do?’

David wondered glumly.

He went to the Iridescent Sect the moment he came to Star Kingdom.

Then, he met that b*stard Nek before he could even familiarize himself with the place.

After this, Celeste was punished, and he was also forced to leave the Iridescent Sect, causing him to not leave a communication device with Celia and the others.

Therefore, he could not even contact them even if he wanted to.

Meanwhile, Celeste had given him the communication device he had now.

However, he could not contact Celeste too since she was in the ice Cavern.

David did not know what to do at that moment. He could only hope that Celia and the others were too busy cultivating that they did not see the warrant.

‘But what if they did?’

David figured he could not bet on this. A big part of the reason he worked hard for was for Celia and the others.

If they were not around, what was the point of him being a Sacred Saint?

‘Should I sneak back to the Iridescent Sect?’

David had this idea suddenly.

However, the Lightfoot family was monitoring West End so closely, so they surely would not miss out on any high- dimensional space travel.

Once he tore the space to leave, the Lightfoot family might discover him and then he would be exposed.

‘What should I do?’

David fell into a dilemma. If he was a True Saint now, he would not act like this.

At the end of the day, he was still too weak.

A partial Saint was still too weak compared to the two True Saints from the Lightfoot family.

As David was in this dilemma...

Star Continent in Star Kingdom.

This was where Star Mansion was located.

At this moment, the younger head of Star Mansion, Amadi, was looking at the portrait in his hand dazedly.

‘Who is this person if it’s not David?’

He was holding the warrant the Lightfoot family issued for Davdi.

Any top-ranked force within Star Kingdom would get news from a major force like the Lightfoot family almost instantaneously.

Of course, Star Manion was no exception.

However, Amadi could not understand.

How long had it been since he parted from David?

Despite this, he had caused such a ruckus. He even dared to interfere with the Lightfoot family’s business.

To Amadi, this was such a bold move.

Even Star Mansion would need to think twice about offending the Lightfoot family.

David was from a low civilization, so how dare he offend the Lightfoot family?

Did he want to die?

Amadi did not doubt whether the person in the portrait was David.

There were people who looked alike in Star Kingdom, but the ones who looked almost the same and even had the same name were very rare.

After this, Amadi went to the Iridescent Sect. He learned from the head of the sect, Nova, that David had gone to the Central Sacred Continent.

After adding up the information he got, Amadi could be sure that the person on the Lightfoot family's warrant was the David he knew.

'Sigh, troubled times!'

Amadi thought to himself helplessly.

Ms. Celeste's teacher sent her into the ice cavern as a punishment, so her life was basically ruined.

Star Manion could not even save her now.

Now, David had even provoked the Lightfoot family,

Initially, Amadi was waiting for David to join Star Mansion.

Now, even if David wanted to, Star Mansion would not dare to accept him anymore.

Even if David was a rare genius, Star Manion would not offend the Lightfoot family for his sake.

Amadi came back to his senses and got ready to call David to see what was going on.

If David needed help, Amadi would be happy to help him as long as it was within his power.

Now, David had even provoked the Lightfoot family,
