

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 1801

• • •

Chapter 1801

As David was wondering how he should contact Celia to tell them to not worry and he was fine, his communication device rang.

When he glanced at it, his eyes lit up.

“How did I forget about him?”

Amadi from Star Mansion.

Back then, they traveled from the Milky Way to Star Kingdom.

Even though they did not spend a lot of time together, David had a pretty good impression of Amadi.

The two of them fought together in the Beast Galaxy as well.

Therefore, they were considered good friends.

Amadi even invited David to join Star Manion.

Unfortunately, after David got to Star Kingdom and entered the Iridescent Sect, he ran into Nek the Saint and caused Celeste to be sent to the ice cavern.

Therefore, David did not have time to join Star Manion to waste his time there.

He needed to upgrade to Sacred Saint as quickly as possible to save Celeste.

This was the most important thing right now and the rest were irrelevant.

This was because Nova told him if someone stayed in the ice cavern for a very long time, their personality would be affected.

That was why David could not waste any time. If not, it would be too late.

If he was not wrong, Star Mansion had a close relationship with the Iridescent Sect.

Since he could not go to the Iridescent Sect himself, why not ask Amadi to help him?

He only wanted to let Celia and the others knew he was safe.

That way, they would not be worried about him and they would not risk their lives coming out to find him.

He could also stay here safely to gain lavish points and only go out after he became a True Saint.

“That’s the plan!”

When David was about to answer the call, he stopped.

He thought of another possibility.

Amadi did not contact him this entire time but chose to contact him at such a critical time, so he must have seen the warrant from the Lightfoot family.

Will he betray me for his own interest?

Then, David shook his head

This was not impossible, but to be honest, the chances of this happening were not too high.

Star Manion was not inferior to the Lightfoot family

Amadi, as the younger head, could have anything he wanted.

Therefore, the two rewards from the Lightfoot family were pretty much useless to him.

Judging from their interaction before, David figured Amadi was not someone who would sell his soul for gains.

The only possibility was that Star Mansion wanted to please the Lightfoot family and David was a very good chip.

‘No matter what, I should answer it first.

‘I’ll find out why he’s contacting me and then decide.’

Then, David answered the call.

A figure appeared in front of him. This was none other than Amadi, whom he had not seen in a while.

• • •