I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1851-Another day passed and it was now the next morning.

Today was the last of the three days that Alba had promised.

If there were no accidents, David would complete a 200 trillion Star Dollar deal with Valerio today and get two million lavish points.

Then, he could break through to True Saint Rank.

As for how far he could go, it would depend on how many lavish points there were.

If there were exactly 2 million, he could get to late True Saint Rank.

If there were 2.3 million, peak True Saint Rank would be beckoning to him.

Early in the morning. Treasure Trove welcomed an important guest.

It was Anders, one of the Star Kingdom Six and the first-in-line heir of the Palmore family.

At the same time, the Palmore family had another identity.

That was one of the six top forces in the Star Kingdom with a Sacred Saint. Furthermore, they were also the backers of the Fellowes family.

The arrival of Anders directly alarmed Roald, the Saint Realm grandmaster who was stationed here by the Fellowes family.

He had the highest status in the family, and he was also the most powerful.

Naturally, he would be the one receiving Anders.

Valerio, Treasure Trove's head, was not qualified, let alone others.

Of course, if Roald was not around, Valerio, who had the highest status, would have to come forward.

At this time, two men, one old and one young, were sitting inside Treasure Trove's drawing room.

The old one was Roald, while the young one was naturally Anders.

“Roald, my senior, please forgive me for coming here uninvited,” Anders said politely to Roald.

Although he had a very high status, he still needed to show a Saint some respect when he was in front of one.

Otherwise, if word got out, people would feel that he was rude.

After all, Anders was only a partial Saint now and had not yet become a real Saint.

Only when he got to Saint Realm could he interact with other Saints of the same generation.

“Anders, you don’t need to be so formal with me. The Palmore and Fellowes families have always been close. We’re always helping and supporting each other, so let’s not act like strangers to each other. Since you’re here, you can treat this place as your own home,” Roald also politely replied.

The Palmore family’s ambition had almost spread to all major forces in Star Kingdom.

Roald naturally knew it too.

However, this was not yet time for the two sides to have a fallout.

He would not take the initiative to provoke trouble.

Anders smiled slightly upon hearing this.

Treat this as my home?

‘Since you said this, I won’t be modest with you.

‘Not only this place, but soon the entire Treasure Trove will belong to the Palmore family.’”

“I am relieved now that you’ve said that. I thought you wouldn’t welcome me,” Anders chuckled.

However, Roald felt disgusted by Anders’ chuckle.

He wanted so badly to slap this Palmore b*stard and kill him.

However, he was not allowed to do that so he could only hold himself back.
