

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1944

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1944-'What the hell is this?'

However, after what Alba said, he could vaguely understand what she meant.

The Palmore family's grandmaster became the head of the Saints Association, and the Fellowes family was completely doomed, so Alba came here to tell him to go.

She probably thought his master was not capable of saving the Fellowes family!

After all, the head of the Saints Association was quite intimidating.

It seemed that the Saints of the entire Star Kingdom were under the jurisdiction of the Saints Association.

When others heard of the news, they would definitely be scared out of their wits, so they would no longer dare to interfere in the affairs of the Palmore family and the Fellowes family.

However, David did not care.

He did not know how the Palmore family's grandmaster had suddenly become the head of the Saints Association, nor did he care.

'So what if he's the head of the Saints Association?'

'As long as his strength does not exceed Sacred Saint Rank, I have no reason to be afraid of him.'

'Even if he's a peak Sacred Saint, I can still face him.'

'Of course, not now.'

'It will happen after my breakthrough and my combat power surpasses that of Sacred Saint.'

'Since the Fellowes family isn't in a life or death situation, nothing is stopping me from continuing to break through.'

'I should send Alba away quickly and continue to improve!'

'When I surpass Sacred Saint Rank, I can solve everything in Star Kingdom.'

'If they can replace the head of the Saints Association once, they can do it a second time.'

'I want to make the Palmore family's grandmaster the shortest serving head of the Saints Association.' "Miss Fellowes, don't worry! I said that I want to help your family, so there is absolutely no reason to back down. It will be the same no matter who the enemy is. Even if the Palmore family grandmaster becomes the head of the Saints Association, it will still be the same. Plus, my master is not the type to bully people who are weaker than him whilst fearing the ones who are more powerful than him. If there's nothing else, you should leave now. I still have something I haven't told my master. How about we talk about this when I'm done?" After David said that, he immediately asked Alba to leave.

He did not have time to listen to Alba say meaningless things now.

Improving his strength was the most important task right now.

He had enough lavish points, and it was so depressing that he could not spend them.

Alba was waiting to receive David's anger, but what she got instead surprised her.

Her mind went blank.

'What did Master David say?

'That he would continue to help the Fellowes family? Even his master will do so?

'It doesn't matter who the enemy is?

'It will not change even after he learned that the Palmore family's grandmaster has become the head of the Saints Association?'

Alba was overwhelmed by a great sense of happiness.

She felt that David was doing this for her.

Otherwise, why would he do everything to help the Fellowes family even when he was not related to them?

"M-Master David... Boohoo... Thank you, you are so kind to me. I can only repay this kindness in the next life. Boohoo..." Alba continued to sob.

At this moment, she still did not think that David and his master could fight against the Palmore family and save the Fellowes family.

David looked at her.

'Wait, is there a misunderstanding?

'Did I say something that made her misunderstand?

'Whatever.

'This is not the time to think about that. I should improve myself now.' "Um, Miss Fellowes. Let's talk later, okay?" David asked her to leave again.

"Okay, I'll go now. Master David, you have to tell your master about this. I don't want you to have a fallout with your master because of us." "Alright, I got it. Bye, Miss Fellowes," David answered quickly.

Alba turned back with every step she took. Then, she said again, "Bye, Master David." "Bye, Miss Fellowes." After David said that, he slammed the door shut.

He did not want to continue talking with her.

Alba turned to leave after she saw David closing the door.

Recommended Novels