I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1949-West End of the Central Sacred Continent, where the main residence of the Fellowes family was located.

The place was under surveillance by the Palmore family.

The powerful members of the Palmore family had come to the Central Sacred Continent long ago, but they had been hiding in the dark.

When the Palmore family's grandmaster Zenon became the head of the Saints Association, they no longer had any scruples. Therefore, they collectively showed up and surrounded the Fellowes family. They would only allow anyone to enter but not to leave.

Since a top power like the Palmore family wanted to take action against the Fellowes family, they would have no reasons to spare them.

Zenon tried his best to win over the other four deputy heads so they would force Sid to abdicate. Then, he became the head of the Saints Association himself so that Sid would not stop him when he made a move on the Fellowes family.

Now, he had succeeded.

With Sid ousted, the Palmore family could start taking action.

There was nothing the Fellowes family could do about the Palmore family.

They could only stay at home temporarily and try not to leave out of fear of starting a conflict with the Palmore family.

However, this only bought them some time.

Zenon would definitely come with his people soon.

After all, the Fellowes family had three True Saints. If Zenon, the Sacred

Saint, did not make a move, the Fellowes family would still remain intact. Even if the Palmore family won, it would inevitably be a miserable victory.

In truth, as the situation became more and more unfavorable recently, the Fellowes family had made some preparations. They quietly sent out some of the family's most talented direct descendants.

Those direct descendants had already arrived at Large Trade Zone 47.

The reason they went to Large Trade Zone 47 was that the elders of the family knew that David the True Saint was there.

Hence, if the Palmore family came after them after finding out the truth, they would still have a chance to fight back.

With David's True Saint Rank strength, he could protect some of the Fellowes family's bloodline.

Three old men were sitting together in the forbidden area of the Fellowes family.

One of them was True Saint Cedar who had just rushed back to the Fellowes family.

Compared with the other two, he looked much younger.

A True Saint would get to their destination very quickly via the sevendimensional space.

The other two were also True Saint grandmasters of the Fellowes family.

However, like Sahar, they were still injured.

"Ceddy, how are things going?" Asked an old man who seemed to be on the verge of death.

"Great-grandpa, everything has been arranged. The talented direct descendants of the family have all been sent out and they should all be there now. With David around, there will be no accidents, so don't worry,"

Cedar replied.

This old man was Cedar's great-grandfather.

This was truly unexpected.

"That's good! They can destroy the Fellowes family, but they can't destroy our bloodline."

"I understand! Zenon has become the head of the Saints Association, and I don't expect to be able to rely on David and his master to make a comeback. I just want their help to maintain the Fellowes family's bloodline." "Alas! No one thought that Zenon, who hid so deeply, could defeat Lord Sid. I am afraid that he is already a peak Sacred Saint. This will be the death of the Fellowes family," the old man sighed.
