

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Aternative

Chapter 2638

When it comes to a critical moment, when you want to fight for a guarantee for your child, you are so brave and forever Break into someone else's wedding.

Sister, you made me understand a little bit.

That is, no matter what kind of bad environment a woman is in, the crown in her heart cannot be lost!

Also, no matter when and where, you can't have extravagant expectations in your heart.

For example, wishing that a Prince Charming would come to my rescue. "

Suzi nodded with emotion: "Yes, when I...was very down, when I was the most down, I couldn't eat enough for a few days, and I couldn't drink a little hot water, and I never imagined it. There will be Prince Charming to save me.

Everything I have is achieved by my own hands and a little bit of hard work.

Galia, good boy, people are in adversity, no matter how difficult the adversity is, it's okay, no matter how embarrassing the situation is, it's okay, as long as you don't do anything wrong, follow your own heart, you are invincible.

Understand? Galia cried and nodded: "

I understand, Sister Suzi, you have inspired me too much. Remember the URL
, I understand the direction of my future life.

It's just that I have to be determined, and I can't follow what others say.

I can't let others mumble a few words about me, saying that I am from the country, saying that I have no education, and I will start to feel inferior and lose my direction.

I can't do this.

I have to have my own thoughts and judgments all the time, and, as far as possible, go to a neutral position and look at others.

And, everything in the past, I will let it go with the wind.

Don't occupy my memory and make me miserable.

From today onwards, I want to be a strong and calm girl!

Come on for me!

Sister Suzi! "

Actually it's very simple, Galia, just do it, let go of everything you shouldn't care about, and never expect anything, but you must work hard to be perfect, and then you have a steel scale in your heart, that's all. "Suzi summed up and said in an encouraging tone.

"Well! I will make achievements to repay your support for me today. Galia stood up and bowed respectfully to Suzi.

Rayna next to him said with a smile, "We used to be three good friends together. We went shopping together, complained together, and went shopping together. A Galia, your name happens to be Galia. If you need any help in the future, just tell me, I can help you too. Galia smiled happily: "

Okay, Sister Rayna, this is what I think now. I want to find a job by myself. No matter if the job is good or not, as long as someone wants me, I will do it, even if it is sweeping the street or on the construction site." Moving bricks will do. I will look for them. After the first job is confirmed, I will buy a second-hand battery car and deliver food. After a pause, Galia said again: "

And then..."

She was interrupted by Suzi as soon as she spoke: "Galia, this is the case, the Fu Group is now recruiting grassroots employees, is the tally clerk. In fact, it is a chore. The daily task is to distribute express delivery to various parts, and then run errands and other chores. Would you like to do it? Galia was very excited after hearing this: "

Yes, yes, very willing!" Sister, I can do whatever you want, even cleaning the toilet!

This is a good opportunity to train me, grind me, and make my mind become peaceful. "

Suzi nodded, and his tone became serious: "Galia, after you arrived at the Fu Group, I didn't recognize you, because the Fu Group is now jointly managed by five directors, and Christopher is out and away from home all the year round. , you can only rely on yourself, you must remember to be humble and sincere."

"Understood! Thank you sister for teaching me, I will work hard!" Galia nodded desperately.

Only then did Suzi ask, "By the way, what did you want to say?"

Galia scratched her head and asked shyly, "Can I...can I take a look at Galia's parents? ?"

Chapter 2639

This request made Suzi and Rayna stunned for a while.

They looked at each other.

Galia hurriedly said: "I know, you must be surprised, but I was dazed and confused when I went to Brother Christopher to find his sister. I think the reason why Brother Christopher did not sit in charge of so many company affairs. Instead, the company spends most of its time looking for a younger sister, and there must be a reason for that, that is, Galia's parents miss their daughter very much."

Suzi sighed, "Who said no."

"If I can do something, just do what I can. It's not in vain for Brother Christopher to help me so much." Galia said sincerely.

Suzi nodded: "Okay, when you're settled, I'll take you to Galia's house. Anyway, we and Rayna went there every now and then. When the time comes, I'll take you with me."

"Well! "Galia nodded heavily.

From this day on, Galia's new life began.

She has been walking according to plan.

The day after she separated from Suzi Rayna, she went to the Fu Group to report.

The job that Suzi said was the lowest level job in the Fu Group. It was discussed with Christopher at that time, but Galia was asked to go to the Fu Group because the Fu Group company was very large.

There are various departments.

If Galia does well in the future, maybe she will be picked up by a department supervisor, experience, etc., and it will not be too late to promote her.

If Galia is sent to an ideal place from the beginning, what if Galia is too cold in high places again?

Another point is that Galia actually has professional skills. For the career change she was engaged in, the Fu Group also has this department in charge. As long as Galia is active and her hands are not idle, one day, her Professional skills will definitely be repurposed.

At that time, if she is personally promoted by the department head or manager, and if she is really capable, the company will not be constrained by whether she has a college degree or not.

But now, if Galia has just joined the company and only has a junior high school education, she can only engage in such a low-level job first.

That's fine, it's also a kind of tempering for Galia.

Although this job is the lowest level, everyone can do it, but this position, Galia, is not easy to recruit. In a group company as big as the Fu Group, people in this position have been replaced many times, and they are always unable to recruit. to the right person.

the reason is simple.

Too tired, too messy, and being yelled at everywhere.

For example, a small cart pushes a large pile of couriers and works hard to deliver them to a certain department. Even if there is something unsatisfactory, they may be taught a lesson by the people in that department.

This is a common occurrence.

The huge Fu Group, with tens of thousands of employees, can't meet anything?

Galia was exhausted on her first day at work.

Looking at the mountains of couriers in the mailing room next to the guard room, Galia almost nodded her head, but in just one minute, she calmed down.

Work doesn't come easily.

What's more, the salary given by the Fu Group is very high.

For such a job, a monthly salary of 5,000 yuan is actually given.

If she was delivering a nighttime takeaway, she would definitely get more than 10,000 yuan a month.

Before she could think about it, she began to bury herself in the mountains of express delivery and began to distribute it.

What is different from the previous employees is that most of the staff recruited in the past are aunts or uncles or something. Who do young people do this?

But this time is different, this time Galia is very young.

Not only that, she is indeed smart. Although she has done a lot of unreliable things before, her mind is clear.

After squatting down and looking at these couriers for about half an hour, she could discern some clues.

Just about to start subcontracting, the doorman came to Galia and said warmly: "Little girl, don't worry, these two days are just a juncture. Usually, at least four people are required to handle the package here. With so many departments, how can one person finish it?"
