A Man Like None Other Chapter 2075

A Man Like None Other Novel

Kai's eyes were filled with rage when he saw Josephine. He was clenching his fists and gritting his teeth. While holding Skylar's head, Kai glared at Malphas. "Let my girlfriend go, or I'll kill him right now."

Malphas sneered, "Go on. He's nothing but a piece of trash. He doesn't serve Evil Heart Sect any purpose. However, your girlfriend is very important to you."

Then, a man dressed in a black robe appeared next to Josephine with a whip in his hand and started whipping Josephine. Although Kai couldn't hear anything, he could clearly see that Josephine was in an immense amount of pain.

Seeing that Josephine was being tortured right in front of his eyes, Kai started trembling, and his heart was bleeding. All of a sudden, Kai's terrifying murderous intent filled the air and enveloped half of Jadeborough.

Several martial arts families quickly ran out of their houses in fear because none of them had ever felt such an intense wave of murderous intent. At the Department of Justice, Arthur frowned and looked in the direction where the Warriors Alliance was. "When will Kai ever learn to control his temper? If this goes on, others can easily take advantage of it."

"Mr. Sanders, if you're so worried about Kai, why don't you help him?" Xavier asked in bafflement. Mr. Sanders is always worried about Kai. He's more than capable of solving Kai's problems for him. Why doesn't he just do that?

"I can't help him for the rest of his life, can I? He needs to solve his problems on his own. After all, it's his life, and this is his destiny." Arthur let out a sigh and went back to his room.

At that moment, Kai was staring at Malphas ferociously like a madman. "F*ck you! I swear I'm going to kill all of you," he declared and dashed toward Malphas.

Boom! Kai thought he had knocked Malphas down, but he ended up running through and breaking an illusion of Malphas' body into pieces.

"Haha! Listen to me, Kai. If you kill Skylar, your girlfriend will suffer from a worse form of punishment than whipping," Malphas said icily before the illusion of his body vanished.

Kai saw red immediately, but his hands were tied. Although he was dying to go on a killing spree, he couldn't do so because he still couldn't enter the secret realm.

“Kai, you must stay calm. It’s so obvious that the old man was provoking you!” Flaxseed urged when he saw that Kai was on the verge of losing his temper.

“Stay calm, Kai...” Godrick quickly advised as well. Kai gradually calmed himself down, and the fury in his faded away. I still can’t get in... Kai stared at the entrance of the secret realm and sighed. “Let’s head back.”

Kai walked up to Skylar and kicked him fiercely before going back to Deragon Sect. Needless to say, Kai knew how important Skylar was to Evil Heart Sect. If that wasn’t the case, Malphas wouldn’t have appeared and threatened to hurt Josephine.

Although he kept saying how insignificant Skylar was, he was warning me against killing Skylar. Even if Evil Heart Sect didn’t warn me against doing so, I would still let Skylar live. After all, I want him to watch how I take Evil Heart Sect apart. I’ll gradually push Skylar toward having a mental breakdown.

“Don’t give up, Kai. This is not the end for us. When Mr. Schneider is finally done, I’ll go to Crafting Clan with you to get the Divine Scroll!”

Flaxseed patted Kai’s shoulder when he saw how worried Kai was. “Mr. Flaxseed, don’t worry. I’m not giving up so easily.” Kai forced a smile.

Over the next few days, Kai stayed at Deragon Sect and started planning in his mind. Now, only the Divine Scroll can help me open Evil Heart Sect’s secret realm. That day, Godrick entered the room when Kai was busy cultivating.

“Kai, Mr. Gunderson is here,” Godrick said. “Invite him in.” Kai rose to his feet instantly. I haven’t contacted the Gunderson family recently, so Fernando must be here because something has happened.

“Mr. Chance,” Fernando greeted respectfully. “Do you need something from me, Mr. Gunderson?” Kai asked. “Mr. Chance, Great Elder is looking for you. He said he has something to talk to you about,” Fernando replied.

“Sure! Let’s go.” Kai nodded. As Kai was walking toward the Gunderson family estate with Fernando, Kai asked, “Mr. Gunderson, did Great Elder not tell you what this is about?”

Fernando shook his head. “No, but Great Elder didn’t look good, and the atmosphere in the secret realm has become rather tense recently.”

They both arrived in front of the entrance of the secret realm. Fernando chanted something and waved his hand in the air. Right away, a door appeared. The door then vanished after Kai and Fernando walked through it.

Upon arriving at the Gunderson family estate, Kai sensed that nothing had changed apart from the presence of a murderous aura in the air. The guards at the entrance opened the doors and bowed respectfully when they saw Kai. In the main hall, when Chester saw Kai, he dropped to his knees, "Greetings, My Lord."

"You don't have to do this, Great Elder. Also, please stop addressing me that way. I would like to keep a low profile." Although Kai was the overlord of Dragon Sect, he still felt uneasy being addressed so.

"Evangeline, hurry up and express your gratitude!" Chester yelled. Very soon, Evangeline walked up to Kai and bowed deeply. "Thank you, Mr. Chance." Kai nodded slightly in response. He was glad when he saw that Evangeline had recovered completely.

"I shouldn't take credit, to be honest. If not for Mr. Baal, Ms. Gunderson wouldn't have recovered!" Kai felt he didn't deserve the gratitude shown. After all, he didn't play any role in Evangeline's recovery...

"Mr. Chance, Fernando has told me about what happened on Encanta Island. If not for you, Mr. Chance, Baal wouldn't have helped!" Chester uttered gratefully.

"May I know why you asked to see me, Great Elder?" Kai cut to the chase without wasting another second. I'm very busy now. In a few days' time, I'm going to visit Crafting Clan!

Upon hearing that, Chester scanned his surroundings and said, "Fernando, Evangeline, give Mr. Chance and me some privacy. We need to discuss something."

Fernando and Evangeline left, so Kai and Chester were the only ones left in the main hall. "Mr. Chance, did you sense the changes in the secret realm when you arrived just now?" Chester asked.

"I did. Although the environment stays the same, there's a murderous aura in the air!" Kai nodded. Chester sighed heavily. "Chaos is upon us. The Eight Major Secret Realms are in utter chaos! Initially, all the sects and prestigious families of the Eight Major Secret Realms lived in peace because everyone knew things would only turn chaotic during the restoration of spiritual energy. All the sects and prestigious families. were conserving their energy and avoiding getting into fights.

However, the restoration of spiritual energy failed on Encanta Island. No one knows when the next spiritual energy restoration will happen. Many sects and prestigious families ran out of patience and started fighting for resources in the secret realms.

Within a few days, quite a few sects. and prestigious families have disappeared from the Gate of Fire due to such fights!"

"Did the Gunderson family suffer any losses?" Kai asked concernedly. "Not at the moment. We're in an alliance with The Adamantine, so no one has come after us yet. However, I don't think we'll be safe for long. The Secret Realm Conference that was canceled years ago is happening next month. By then, many people will definitely die because of resource allocation and conflicts of interest, and the battles between the major secret realms will happen again." Chester shook his head.

Kai furrowed his brows when he heard that. / stopped the restoration of spiritual energy to stop the suffering in the mundane world. Who would've known that would bring chaos to the heavenly realm in the secret realms?

"What is the Secret Realm Conference for, Great Elder?" Kai asked in a confused tone. "Many years ago, the Secret Realm Conferences were held annually, and the Eight Major Secret Realms would each send out a representative to attend the conference. The aim is to let everyone compete and distribute resources from other secret realms.

The winning secret realm will then take the resources they desired from the losing secret realm. Conferences were then terminated when rumors of the restoration of spiritual energy surfaced. All the sects and prestigious families decided to conserve their energy and waited for the spiritual energy restoration to happen. Yet, that ended up not happening, so a Secret Realm Conference will be held again," Chester explained.

"Where will the Secret Realm Conference be held? After all, the secret realm that's organizing the Secret Realm Conference will have an advantage."

"The venue isn't in the Eight Major Secret Realms. The conference will be held in an ownerless secret realm. That secret realm isn't rich in resources, so no one wants to conquer it. That secret realm is a fair playing field for all the other secret realms, Chester answered.

"Why did you look for me, Great Elder? What do you want me to do?" Kai was perplexed. With my capability, I'm not qualified to join such a competitive conference! Although I dominate the mundane world, I'm nothing in the secret realms! After all, the secret realms have Martial Arts Saints in abundance. The Gunderson family alone has plenty of Martial Arts Saints!

Indeed, Evangeline, who was only in her twenties, was already a Martial Arts Saint. "Mr. Chance, I asked to see you because I want you to join the-"

Before Chester could finish his sentence, Kai waved his hand dismissively and said, "Forget about it. You're joking, right? With my capability, I'm only going to embarrass myself at the Secret Realm Conference."

"Mr. Chance, I'm not asking you to compete. I just want you to familiarize yourself with the Eight Major Secret Realms. More importantly, quite a few families in the Eight Major Secret Realms are colluding with Evil Heart Sect. Now that there isn't a spiritual energy restoration, these families want to take over the mundane world by taking advantage of the fact that the Evil Heart Sect isn't restricted by the laws of nature. Furthermore, I also heard that they're looking for something that can induce the restoration of spiritual energy," Chester said.

"Induce the restoration of spiritual energy?" Kai was flabbergasted. Well, it seems that Evil Heart Sect is really stronger than I have imagined. If the families in the secret realms join forces with Evil Heart Sect, it'll be even harder for me to take them down!

"Great Elder, when will the Secret Realm Conference be held? I need to arrange my schedule!" Kai asked. "The fifteenth of next month," Chester responded.

"Okay. I'll check out the people from the Eight Major Secret Realms by then!" Kai nodded firmly. I need to attend the conference to broaden my horizons. Otherwise, I'm going to end up being an ignorant fool if I keep staying in the mundane world!

After leaving the Gunderson family estate, Kai started planning his schedule. I must rescue Josephine before the Secret Realm Conference! The most pressing matter now is to get my hands on the Divine Scroll.

"Let's just hope that Mr. Schneider is a reasonable man." Kai sighed softly while holding the calligraphy brush Arthur had given to him. I hope I won't run into trouble again when I go to Crafting Clan to obtain the Divine Scroll.

Meanwhile, Kai was sitting in his room in Deragon Sect, and Thousands of Miles Away was in front of him. At that moment, Kai was in a hot spring in a snowy place.

Kai didn't unroll Thousands of Miles Away to cultivate. Instead, he merely wanted to take a dip in the hot spring to calm his mind. Clearly, being in a hot spring in a place with a cold environment was the perfect way to relax.

Kai knew no one would show up there, so he was relaxing in the hot spring without a worry in the world. With his eyes shut, he immersed himself in nature. This is the only time I can truly loosen up. Little did he know that there were two girls walking toward the hot spring.

“Ms. Hargreaves, you’re coming to the hot spring very often. Do you really think Kai has been here before? That’s impossible because he can’t enter our secret realm. Even if he could, he couldn’t have found this hot spring. Mr. Hargreaves said the Secret Realm Conference coming soon, so he wants you to learn a thing or two by bringing you along. He said you should cultivate whenever you can!” Autumn advised Hailey.

“Autumn, you sound like my mom when you nag! What are you on about? I just want to take a dip in the hot spring.” Hailey rolled her eyes at Autumn. After that, they walked toward the hot spring silently.

While Kai was enjoying his rare moment of peace and quiet, someone suddenly knocked on the door and woke him up. Kai’s body slowly vanished from the hot spring.

Hailey arrived at the hot spring in the nick of time to catch a glimpse of Kai before he disappeared from the hot spring, and she was in disbelief when she saw him.

“Kai!” Hailey called out excitedly. However, Kai vanished into thin air without responding. “Kai! Kai!” Hailey shouted a few more times, but Kai’s body was already out of sight.

“Ms. Hargreaves, Kai isn’t here. Do you miss him so much that you’re hallucinating?” Autumn scanned the surroundings and saw no one else there. “Autumn, I wasn’t hallucinating. I really saw Kai! It was him!” Hailey was elated. How did Kai disappear, though?

While Hailey was looking everywhere for Kai, he was already in the mundane world with his eyes wide open. As he gradually stood up, he couldn’t help casting Thousands of Miles Away a glance. When my spiritual sense left Thousands of Miles Away, I think I heard someone shouting my name. That person. sounded like Hailey.

Despite having that thought, Kai shook his head to clear his mind. I must be hearing things because of my unstable mental state! How could I have heard Hailey’s voice in Thousands of Miles Away?

Kai went to open the door after keeping Thousands of Miles Away in his Storage Ring. It was Flaxseed at the door. “We need to get going. I think Mr. Schneider has already returned.”

“Sure!” Kai nodded. When they were on their way to Crafting Clan, Flaxseed asked in a worried tone, “Kai, what if Mr. Schneider hasn’t returned? What if he doesn’t want to lend us the Divine Scroll? What are we going to do, then?”

“We’ll snatch it away from him,” Kai replied flatly. That response showed how determined Kai was. This time, there were people at the entrance of Crafting Clan waiting for Kai and Flaxseed to arrive. It was as though they had been expecting them to show up. “Has Mr. Schneider returned?” Kai asked the members of Crafting Clan.

“Mr. Schneider has returned, and he told us to welcome both of you,” one of the members of Crafting Clan said. Soon, Kai and Flaxseed were led into an enormous room that was obviously not the room Kai met Sherman in.

The room was bigger, and it had a lot more magical items inside. At a glance, one could tell those magical items were even better than the ones Kai had seen the last time.

“Since you’re here, please have a seat,” Pascal said as he emerged from the back of the room. “Are you Mr. Schneider, the person in charge of Crafting Clan?” Kai asked Pascal flatly.

“That’s right. I’m Pascal Schneider. My son told me that you had been looking for me. Since it was Mr. Sanders who told you to come, I have to treat you with respect.” With that, Pascal instructed his subordinates to serve Kai and Flaxseed drinks.

Kai and Flaxseed breathed a sigh of relief inwardly when they saw how courteous Pascal was. We thought he would be angry at us because we trashed Crafting Clan the last time we visited. If that were the case, we would have trouble trying to borrow the Divine Scroll from him. Judging by the current situation, however, it seems that he isn’t mad at us at all!

“Mr. Schneider, we have something important to attend to, so we’re in a rush to return with the Divine Scroll. I would be very grateful if you could lend us the Divine Scroll,” Kai uttered. politely.

“That’s not a problem. However, did Mr. Sanders ask you to bring me something?” Pascal asked. “Yes!” Kai nodded instantly before taking out the calligraphy brush and delivering it to Pascal.

“Many years ago, Mr. Sanders did me a favor, and now he entrusts his brush with me. I must show him respect, so I’m lending the Divine Scroll to you.”

Pascal whipped out a palm-sized token from his waist. That token looked old and rusty, and one could definitely not tell what was special about it. “Thank you very much, Mr. Schneider.” Kai reached out to take the Divine Scroll.

Right then, Sherman barged in and asked in a puzzled tone, “Dad, are you really lending the Divine Scroll to them? You promised me otherwise. That fellow hit Mr. Yandle and me. He even killed quite a few of our men. He’s the reason Crafting Clan is in a mess right now. How could you still lend the Divine Scroll to him?”

After Sherman was done shouting, Pascal glared at him and fumed, "Shut up! You have no right to speak!" Sherman zipped his mouth when he realized how angry his father was. At that point, all he could do was give Kai a death stare.

Kai wanted to explain himself because he didn't want to risk not being able to borrow the Divine Scroll. "Mr. Pascal, it's a misunderstanding. If not for what your son did Before Kai could finish his words, Pascal interrupted, "There's no need to explain yourself. Since Mr. Sanders told you to come here, I'm certainly lending the Divine Scroll to you. After all, I'm returning the favor."

As soon as Pascal was done talking, he tossed the Divine Scroll toward Kai. Pascal was very clear with his words. He was only lending the Divine Scroll to Kai because he was returning Arthur's favor. In other words, it had nothing to do with Kai. Kai received the Divine Scroll and uttered, "Thank you, Mr. Pascal!"

Right when Kai was about to leave with the Divine Scroll, Pascal stopped him by asking him coldly, "Have you forgotten about something?" Kai froze momentarily before turning toward Pascal and asking, "What is it, Mr. Pascal?"

"Well, I've already shown Mr. Sanders my respect, and I've already lent you the Divine Scroll. However, you hit my son and killed the members of Crafting Clan. You even destroyed countless buildings. Are you not going to make up for your actions?" Pascal asked in an indifferent tone.
