

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 2025

Chapter 2025

As they watched the Palmore family leave in a grandiose manner, the Fellowes family immediately burst into loud cheers.

They won.

They blocked the Palmore family's attack.

Henceforth, the Fellowes family would be independent in Star Kingdom.

There would no longer be any forces that would dare to attack them.

This joy came too suddenly, so most of the Fellowes family members started with weep with emotion.

The day before, they were still in despair. They were quietly waiting for death to come and there was nothing they could do.

Almost all forces in Star Kingdom believed that the Fellowes family's downfall was imminent.

Except for a few top forces with Sacred Saints, no force could resist the Palmore family.

However, only one day had passed and the Fellowes family had completely turned the tide.

Not only did the Fellowes family not expect this, but neither did the spies of other forces watching from the outside world.

They thought they were going to watch a good show, but it ended so silently.

"Grandpa Vai, did we win? Please tell me I'm not dreaming!" Alba asked slowly.

She could not believe that everything in front of her eyes was real. She was afraid that it was just her own fantasy and that she would return to reality in the blink of an eye.

"Yes! We won! We won! The Fellowes family won! From now on, we will never be restrained by anyone ever again!" Valerio replied with a smile.

Although laughing, the old man had tears in his eyes.

How long had the Palmore family been a threat to them?

The Fellowes family had submitted time and time again, but they could not satisfy the Palmore family's ambition.

Only today, the threat had finally completely disappeared.

"Really? Grandpa Vai, you aren't lying to me, are you? Why do I feel like I'm dreaming?" Alba still looked a little slow.

"Really! All of this is true! Alba, the Fellowes family survived this genocide and you're the one who made this happen! If you didn't know Master David or didn't bring him back because you shared a good relationship with him, this would not have happened to the family," Valerio replied excitedly.

Upon hearing this, life finally filled Alba's blank stare.

Yes, all thanks to Master David, the Fellowes family could survive this disaster.

And she was the one who brought Master David back.

From a certain point of view, it was not an exaggeration to say that she saved the Fellowes family.

After watching Zenon leave, David's clone did not say anything and silently retracted his peak Sacred Saint energy.

If he continued to fight, Zenon would definitely use his trump cards and he would lose the opportunity to accumulate combat experience.

David could not win without revealing his partial Pre-Deity strength.

Now David did not intend to use his full strength.

He would always keep save some strength for emergencies as this was David's long-standing habit just in case something unexpected happened.

Soon, the Palmore family's battleship disappeared from everyone's eyes.

However, the Saints Association's law enforcement team that came with the Palmore family did not leave.

They were formed by Sid, and they had developed to their present strength under his command.

In addition to that, Sid's selflessness won the hearts of the people on the team.

Therefore, in the hearts of all members of the Saints Association's law enforcement team, Sid was their head.

The reason they followed Zenon later was also due to their helplessness.

Sid had not appeared since the defeat, and the Saints Association's law enforcement team could not find a way to resist. Moreover, Zenon used his power to suppress them, so they could only obey temporarily.
