

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2054

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2054-Therefore, she thought Lorraine had the same heavendefying talent as David and her cultivation speed was extremely fast.

Naturally, since she was able to fight against four reputable elders, she was a True Saint.

Nova felt that her mind was about to be blown.

Back then, it was David. Now, it was Lorraine.

Both were from the same planet.

The arrival of the seniors of the Iridescent Sect temporarily interrupted the two sides who were about to fight.

“Nova, take everyone away. You have no place in a battle of Saints,” Eira said loudly.

“Reputable elders, what the hell is going on? Why are you fighting Lori?” Nova stated her doubt.

All the other seniors also cast curious gazes on Eira.

“Don’t ask what you shouldn’t! Leave!” Eira said in a deep voice.

Although there were countless doubts in her heart, Nova did not dare to disobey the orders of the reputable elders.

Therefore, she could only reply respectfully, “Yes, Reputable Elder.”

She was just about to leave with the seniors when Lorraine spoke.

“Lady Dream, seniors, do you want to know the secrets contained in this forbidden area and what is the purpose of the establishment of the Iridescent Sect?”

Those words stopped everyone from leaving.

Of course, Nova wanted to know.

Otherwise, she would not ask David to come to explore the secrets of the forbidden area.

The forbidden area had always been the most mysterious place in the sect, and other seniors of the Iridescent Sect also wanted to know what secrets it held.

“Nova, take them away!” Marin ordered again at this moment.

“Lady Dream, the establishment of the Iridescent Sect is not to let everyone have a stable home. There is a shocking secret hidden behind it. Why does the sect not have any Saints except for the four reputable elders? Have you thought about it? In reality, the four masters are not...”

“Shut up!”

Marin yelled and stopped Lorraine from exposing them. At the same time, she was already rushing toward Lorraine.

The other three also took action.

Lorraine was interrupted and the four reputable elders attacked her at the same time.

Therefore, she could only temporarily stop to deal with her teachers first.

She originally wanted to reveal the secrets of the forbidden area so that the seniors of the Iridescent Sect would support her.

Then, this might allow her to escape the chaos, but her four teachers did not give her a chance to say anything.

When she saw that another round of fighting had begun, Nova hurriedly led the people back away from the vicinity, but she herself did not leave.

What Lorraine said just now had managed to arouse her interest.

‘What is in the forbidden area?’

‘Why didn’t the Saints of the sect come out after entering?’

‘One or two of them might be understandable.’

‘However, how many people have disappeared in the forbidden area since the Iridescent Sect was formed?’

‘Are they dead or alive?’

Bang bang bang!

They could hear the sounds of collision in the battle.

Eira and her sisters’ attack this time was obviously much more violent than before, leaving Lorraine with little power to fight back.

Lorraine suffered constant attacks and her injuries also worsened.

The four of them had thrown caution to the wind.

Regardless of whether they were weak or if this battle would cause them permanent damage, they would not care even if the aftermath of this war would leave them with serious consequences.

If they could win and their Master could wake up, it was all worth it.

Recommended Novels