

Chapter 5509

Although Ervin's request was harsh, the two agreed unanimously when they thought of the considerable income.

Ervin was also unambiguous, and directly transferred 30,000 yuan to each of the two on WeChat,

And said to the two, "This money will be regarded as my advance payment of your labor expenses for 10 days in advance."

"If you dare to be lazy and play tricks in these 10 days,"

"Don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Louis patted his chest without hesitation and assured him,

"Don't worry, Brother Ervin, I'm so forthright with you,"

"I'm fcking wearing adult diapers to stay there!"

"I'd rather Urinate my crotch, and never leave the post!"

Tenner also immediately stated, "Ervin brother,"

"I won't eat or drink during the day, and I will never let you lose the chain!"

"Okay." Ervin nodded and took it out of his pocket.

He took out the two jade fingers and handed them to the two of them respectively, and said,

"Put these two fingers jades on your hands and don't take them off."

"This is a token used by big customers to verify your identities."

Without hesitation, they immediately took the bracelet.

Louis played with the bracelet in his hand for a while,

Put it under his nose and smelled it, and said in a low voice,

"Dmn Ervin, this... this bracelet is something born out of a hole!"

"Really?" Teng also sniffed it in a similar way, and asked suspiciously,

"Brother, how does this thing look like it was born out of there?"

Ervin interrupted the two of them, and said,

"If you two want to make this money,"

"Just remember, talk less, and ask less questions."

Louis smiled and said quickly, "Ervin is right, anyway,"

"We are responsible for picking up people, other things we don't ask."

Ervin nodded, and said to the two, "Sir, you go back to the printing shop,"

"And put a sign saying 'To receive Hong Kong businessman Larson Chen',"

"And Tenner put a sign saying 'To receive Hong Kong, Brian Shang',"

"You can start working directly, and I will calculate your wages for you today!"

Louis said in surprise, "Brother Ervin, are you in such a hurry?"

"I haven't had time to settle down yet,"

"Why don't you wait for me In a moment, I will ask my brother-in-law to come over and help me watch..."

Ervin waved his hand, "I'll keep an eye on your stall."

"Anyway, your stuff is fake, so I'll try my best to sell it for you as high as possible."

"After you get someone, you can bring them to me."

The two listened to these words, they no longer hesitated,

Nodded immediately, and happily went to the printing shop together.

Ervin knew that it was impossible for these two people to get someone.

After all, these two names were made up by him temporarily, and it would be hell if they could get it.

He didn't know why Charlie asked him to do this, but like a human being, he knew a purpose very well in his heart,

That is, never ask about things that shouldn't be asked, let alone try to find out the truth.

So, he sat down directly at Louis's booth, looked at the tattered booth,

And placed the piece of lightning-strike wood that Charlie gave him in the center.

Although he didn't know what the purpose of this thing was,

He kept in mind Charlie's order that no matter who came to ask for the price,
He would ask for five million. After guarding the booth for more than an hour,
A few people from the antique street came to Ervin's booth,
Thinking of picking up the leaks. The broken handicrafts are all sold at a high price of more than 4 digits.

After closing a few orders, Ervin couldn't help but feel like a fish in water.

Although selling fake antiques to deceive people has no great future,

For him, doing this thing gives him really a sense of accomplishment.

Seeing those wronged people with the dream of picking up leaks and getting rich,

Buying fake things at high prices, and all of them looking happy, Ervin felt very happy.

He couldn't help thinking in his heart, "It seems that this antique business can't be completely thrown away,"

"Half of the happiness in life comes from this place... In the future, if Master Hong is not so busy, I can come here every now and then to have fun. "

Ervin was happily thinking about it in his heart when suddenly a familiar voice came and said with a pleasant smile,

"Oh, Ervin, when did you come back to set up a stall again?"

Ervin looked up, and immediately said respectfully, "Oh, President Willson!"

"I haven't seen you for a while!"

It was Charlie's old father-in-law Jacob who spoke.

Although Jacob is now the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, his love for antiques is still the same as before.

Some time ago, because of a broken relationship, he was not in a good mood, and he didn't come here for a few days.

In the past two days, he has calmed down a little, and it coincided with the weekend, so he came up with the idea of an antique street again.

It's just that he didn't expect that when he arrived here, he saw an acquaintance, Ervin.

Hearing that Ervin respectfully called him President Willson, Jacob felt very proud, and with his hands behind his back like a leader, he said with a smile,

"Ervin, I heard that you followed Orvel Hong and became the military advisor beside him."

"Why did you come back to Antique Street again?"
