A Man Like None Other Chapter 2241

A Man Like None Other Novel

Kai and Skyler stepped forward, protecting Verner and the others behind them. Meanwhile, the Grand Elder of Flying Star Sect, Doyle, wore a cold expression and asked, "Who are you people?"

"Doyle, this woman is from Luminous Sect," another elder replied. "Luminous Sect?" Doyle frowned slightly. "Mind your own business and get lost."

"Don't you think the lot of you are supposed to get lost instead?" Kai retorted.

His eyes flashed with murderous intent. He walked up and slapped the Grand Elder, sending him flying. "Flying Star Sect's eldest heir is already dead, and yet you mere elders have the cheek to act arrogantly in front of me," Kai mocked.

"What? You killed our eldest heir?"

The other elders of the Flying Star Sect were stumped. Kai didn't deign to reply and launched an attack at them. The elders were notoriously ruthless, having slaughtered many martial artists. Hence, Kai wouldn't spare their lives.

Verner and the others were at a loss for words to see Kai fighting against the elders all alone. Their strengths used to be about the same. However, it was now clear that Kai was already leaps and bounds ahead of them. "Mr. Chance, please spare their lives..."

Noticing that Kai intended to kill the five elders of Flying Star Sect, Skyler stepped forward to advise him. "Mr. Chance, if you kill all five elders of Flying Star Sect, they will never let you off the hook. There's no need to provoke them. Besides, they will also think that you're the one who killed Avery. Then, Flying Star Sect will wage an endless war against you. It won't do you any good," Skyler reasoned.

Then, she turned to look at the other elders and said, "Your eldest heir, Avery Lindt, is dead. However, Scorching Heaven Sect killed him, and it had nothing to do with us!"

"Mr. Lindt is dead, so you can say whatever you want. Besides, Scorching Heaven Sect has been gone for years, and you're saying that they killed him? Do you think we will believe what you said?" Doyle snickered.

"I don't care if you believe me or not. Even if I don't kill you today, I won't let you off the hook that easily!" Kai said. Then, beams of golden light radiated from atop his palms, striking toward the five elders.

The rays of golden lights were like swords, instantly penetrating through the five elders' bodies. Even though they did not die from the strike, all five elders suffered severe injuries, and their limbs were broken.

Having witnessed Kai's prowess, the five elders no longer dared to say another word. Hence, they could only shoot daggered looks at Kai before they scurried for their lives.

"Mr. Chance, thank you for saving our lives." Verner and the others approached Kai to thank him. "Verner, this is just a small favor. You should leave this place now and never come back. It's not a place that you guys can stay for long!" Kai commented.

He asked them to quickly leave as the place was full of sects from the hidden realm. If a conflict were to break out, the huge disparity in their strengths would only lead to the tragic deaths of outsider martial artists like Verner.

Since Verner and the others had witnessed firsthand how brutal the attacks could be, they wouldn't dare to step foot here again. After they left, Kai and Skyler rushed back to Luminous Sect. He had to save Flaxseed and Godrick as soon as possible.

When they were back at Luminous Sect, Kai immediately retrieved the Spirit Connecting Fruits and fed Godrick and Flaxseed one each. After ingesting the fruits, Flaxseed and Godrick's body shone with golden lights. Their bones and meridians were restored in just a moment.

"Kai, what did you feed us? How is it so magical? I could feel an invigorating force within my body," Flaxseed asked, jumping out of bed. "Kai, I feel a power stirring within my body. It's as if my body's about to explode," Godrick said painfully.

"This is the Spirit Connecting Fruit. The Spring of Regeneration's water nourished the Spirit. Connecting Tree, and the fruits it bears have the magical power to reconstruct damaged. physical bodies. The two of you should hurry up and refine the force you feel inside your bodies. You might even get to level up, especially you, Godrick. You should hurry up and refine the force you're feeling inside your body since you have a lower level. Otherwise, you're going to explode to death!" Kai urged.

Upon hearing Kai's words, Flaxseed and Godrick immediately began to cultivate and refine the power within their bodies. Kai stayed at Luminous Sect as he planned to wait for both of them to complete their cultivation before leaving for Jadeborough.

"Skyler, did you guys really enter the ancient ruins of Narcissus Palace?" Archer asked. Sensing the aura on Skyler and Kai, Archer grew green with envy. After all, Skyler's strength was no match for Archer when she left, but after their trip to the ancient ruins of Narcissus Palace, her strength had surpassed his.

It was especially true for Kai. Archer could clearly sense the terrifying aura emanating from Kai. He feared he wouldn't even be able to take a single blow from Kai if they were to fight.

"Of course. We saw the Spirit Connecting Tree as well..." Skyler happily recounted her experience at the ancient ruins of Narcissus Palace. When Archer heard that Kai had defeated the Ninth Level Martial Arts God from Scorching Heaven Sect, Elgado, he was taken aback.

If that were the case, Archer knew that so much as a single breath from Kai was enough to suffocate him now. Kai stayed at Luminous Sect for another three days, and Matthew had only rushed back from a meeting then.

Matthew didn't seem surprised at the sight of Kai and Skyler. "Master, we have returned from the ancient ruins of Narcissus Palace, and-"

Upon seeing Matthew, Skyler eagerly tried to share her experience. However, the former waved his hand and interjected, "I already know!" He wore a grim expression and said, "You guys had a conflict with people from Flying Star Sect and Stormwind Sect. Not only that, but you also killed them all. Did Emiliano and Avery also die in your hands?"

Skyler was stumped and didn't understand how Matthew knew it all.

Kai calmly replied, "We did have a conflict, but we didn't kill Avery and Emiliano. They were killed by the guardian of Scorching Heaven Sect, Elgado. He absorbed their powers and ultimately killed them." "Scorching Heaven Sect?" Matthew frowned. "They have appeared?"

"Master, Scorching Heaven Sect has always been in Kazillion Mountains. Besides, Alchemical Sect has also been working with them this whole time. Some of the resources that we have sent to Alchemical Sect all over the years were given to Scorching Heaven Sect, Skyler explained.

Matthew's expression darkened further. For so many years, they had been treated like a fool by Alchemical Sect! "How despicable of them! No wonder Isaac can't cure my disease. So, he did it deliberately." Matthew gritted his teeth.

"Master, how did you find out about what happened in the ancient ruins?" Skyler asked curiously. "Now the whole hidden realm knows. Besides, Flying Star Sect and Stormwind Sect have already taken action. I'm afraid they'll soon start hunting down Kai! You'd better leave the hidden realm and go into hiding," Matthew said.

“Mr. Campbell, but what will happen to you and Luminous Sect if I leave?” Kai asked. “They won’t do anything to Luminous Sect, and we’re no pushover either,” Matthew said. Kai nodded. He knew that with his current strength, he couldn’t compete with the two major sects.

Now that Flaxseed and Godrick were done refining the forces within their bodies, it was time to leave. After bidding goodbye to Matthew, Kai brought Flaxseed and Godrick back to Jadeborough.

Inside Flying Star Sect’s grand hall, five grievously injured elders were in their seats. In front of them was an eighty-year-old man with a scowl on his face. He was none other than the leader of Flying Star Sect, Wrey Lindt, and Avery was his only son.

As Wrey had his son in his later years, he ended up spoiling Avery, causing the latter to grow up with an androgynous character. Even then, he would never reprimand his son one bit. Consequently, he was devastated to learn of Avery’s death. “Master, Luminous Sect is responsible for your son’s death and beating us up,” Doyle related to Wrey.

“I know. The man responsible is called Kai Chance. He isn’t part of Luminous Sect and is an outsider. However, why didn’t you protect Avery?” Wrey questioned the five elders with an icy look in his eyes.

“Mr. Lindt told us to stay behind and stand guard outside, so... so...” Doyle explained in a trembling voice. “I ordered you to protect my son, but you return with him dead. I think I should bury all of you with him.”

Before the elders could react, Wrey unleashed an overwhelming force of martial energy with a wave of his hand. All of them were turned into mush before they had the chance to even scream.

As Wrey stared at the pool of bloodied remains on the ground, his eyes brimmed with murderous intent. “Kai Chance, I’m going to make you pay with your life.” Back at Stormwind Sect, Emiliano’s mother was crying her eyes out in Tucker’s arms.

“Tucker, our son is dead. Dead! Why did you allow him to go to the ancient ruins? Why didn’t you stop him?”

In the midst of her cries, a grim expression descended upon Tucker’s face. Right then, the room door was opened and in came Hugh. Only then did Tucker frantically push Emiliano’s mother away. “Hugh...” Tucker greeted.

As for Emiliano's mother, the sight of her husband caused her to panic and throw herself into his arms. "Hugh, our son has been murdered. You have to exact revenge on his behalf, or I won't be able to carry on living!" Emiliano's mother cried out in tears. "Don't worry, I'll definitely make his killer pay."

Hugh was a sea of calm, devoid of the expression one would usually have after losing one's son. "Tucker, I don't care how you do it, but capture Kai and bring him here. I'm going to torture him to death," Hugh instructed Tucker.

"Don't worry, Hugh. I'll definitely drag him here with my own hands and tear him limb from limb, Tucker declared through his gritted teeth with his eyes burning with rage. "Good!" Hugh nodded before pushing his wife aside. "Tucker, take care of my wife while I go check on Garthor."

The moment Hugh stepped out of the door, a vicious glint flashed across his eyes. "Dad, did Kai kill Emiliano? I'm going to take his life for this," asked Garthor angrily upon returning from Reflection Cliff. "Your brother is dead. I have instructed Tucker to capture Kai and bring him here. As for you, continue your training at home, and don't get involved," Hugh ordered Garthor.

"Dad, even though we're brothers from a different mother, it's my responsibility as the elder one to exact revenge on his behalf." With rage swelling within him, Garthor felt the urge to kill Kai. "Enough. Listen to me, continue your training and don't interfere."

Hugh walked away the moment he finished. He had wanted to tell Garthor that Emiliano wasn't his brother at all.

Meanwhile, at Scorching Heaven Sect, Yona was secretly monitoring the meeting between the nine sects of the hidden realm. He was delighted by the knowledge that the nine sects were currently on edge and open conflict could ignite at any moment.

The chaos that ensued would provide Scorching Heaven Sect the opportunity to reemerge in the world with no one to stop them. In fact, they might be able to dominate the entire hidden realm subsequently. Amidst Yona's delight, the injured Elgado returned. The latter's aura was no longer one of a Ninth Level Top Level Martial Arts God.

The fact that his strength relied on absorbing the powers of others made it unstable. After being injured, the chaos in his aura resulted in a drop in his cultivation level, leaving him at the early stage of Ninth Level.

“What happened, Elgado?” Yona asked with a frown when he saw Elgado. “Lord Green, I have found the ruins of Narcissus Palace and the Spirit Connecting Fruit. It’s just that a young man had gotten to all the fruits before I could,” Elgado reported in a regretful tone.

“What?” Yona was stunned. “You’re a Ninth Level Martial Arts God who sucks the power of others with your Demonic Cultivation. Yet you’re no match for this man? Within the entire hidden realm, who else can give you trouble other than the old fogeys in the meeting?”

It blew Yona’s mind that someone other than the leaders of the nine sects could beat Elgado into such a miserable state. “He’s a kid named Kai Chance who’s an outsider. A girl from Luminous Sect was with him back then,” Elgado explained to Yona.

“Kai Chance?” Yona fell in deep thought before recalling the young man who was working on alchemy together with Isaac. “Can it be him? But he isn’t a Martial Arts God yet. It would be impossible for him to be your match.”

Yona was filled with disbelief. “That kid elevated himself to Third Level Martial Arts God by swallowing a few Spirit Connecting Fruits. There’s no way I can defeat him now. If I hadn’t used teleportation magecraft, I’m afraid I would have already been dead!”

Just the thought of his battle with Kai was enough to send a chill down Elgado’s spine. “I didn’t expect that kid to be so proficient in battle on top of possessing outstanding alchemy skills.” Yona narrowed his eyes slightly. “All right now. You should recuperate from your wounds. I’ll deal with the rest.”

After nodding in acknowledgment, Elgado was about to leave when he stopped abruptly. He subsequently revealed, “Lord Green, I’ve killed Avery of Flying Star Sect and Emiliano of Stormwind Sect. I was forced to do so to increase my strength.”

Shocked by the news, Yona glared at Elgado.. “You fool, are you trying to ruin Scorching Heaven Sect?” Even though their sect had gained much power, it was still not strong enough to withstand the combined attack of all the other sects.

“Lord Green, other than Kai and the girl from Luminous Sect, no one else knows that I killed them. During my retreat, I heard that Flying Star Sect and Stormwind Sect have sent men to hunt Kai down,” Elgado continued. “All right. I got it. You should get some rest now.”

Yona waved his hand to dismiss Elgado. Upon the latter’s departure, Yona gathered his men immediately. This was the first time he had heard about an outsider who was a Third Level Martial Arts God that was capable of defeating a Ninth Level Martial Arts God.

As a result, Yona had wanted to personally capture Kai and find out what it was that made the latter so special. “If this kid turns out to be more than a mere mortal, it would be time for me to change out of this old shell of mine.”

As Yona scrutinized his old body, an insidious smile emerged across his face.

Within a mountain range in the hidden realm, Kai, together with Flaxseed and Godrick, were dashing through the forest. Behind them were more than ten terrifying auras in pursuit..

“ Kai, what have you done? Why are there so many people trying to kill us ever since we left Luminous Sect? Tell me, did you steal someone’s girl or did anyone of them cheat with you? Is that why they’re pursuing us so doggedly?” Flaxseed asked while panting heavily.

Kai simply rolled his eyes at him. “All you care about is women. Do you think I’m like you, sleeping with them wherever I go? The only reason I offended them was because I was trying to save you!” Kai related what happened at the Narcissus Palace ruins, filling Flaxseed with gratitude. Nonetheless, being pursued in every direction didn’t make him feel better at all.

Moreover, every single one of their pursuers was so powerful that they could send shockwaves through the martial arts world. “Since when does the martial arts world have so many hidden prestigious families that wield such terrifying power?”

Flaxseed just couldn’t stop complaining.

As for Godrick, the weakest of them all, he was already covered in sweat. Furthermore, he had never seen so many powerful warriors gathered in the same place. Every single one of their pursuers was a Martial Arts God, a deity-like existence from his perspective.

Although he had become a Martial Arts Saint after swallowing a Spirit Connecting Fruit, he still had to bridge a huge gap before achieving Martial Arts God. Soon, the running Kai came to an abrupt stop. Brows furrowed, he unleashed his spiritual sense far ahead of them.

Thereafter, his expression drastically changed. “We’ll have to take a different route. There are men blocking our path in front.” With that, the three of them changed directions and continued fleeing.

Just like that, Kai and his companions were surrounded. Despite running the entire day, they just couldn't escape from the area. "Kai, why don't you leave me and flee with Mr. Flaxseed?"

Godrick, who could no longer take another step, sat down by a tree to catch his breath. He was under no illusion that he was being a burden. That was the reason he was prepared to sacrifice himself.

"What are you talking about? I'm not going to abandon you," Kai asserted. "Why don't we take a break first? I'll set up arcane arrays around so that we can defend ourselves for the time being."

The moment he finished, Flaxseed brought out a few charms and began setting them up a few hundred meters away. In the meantime, Kai stared at the sky with a pensive look, trying to figure out their escape routes.

He hadn't expected their pursuers to be so fast and there were so many of them. Without Flaxseed and Godrick, he could've easily escaped by himself. Unfortunately, both of them were holding him back. While Kai was racking his brains, an anxious expression descended on Matthew's face back at Luminous Sect.

"Master, Flying Star Sect and Stormwind Sect have sent a huge number of men to hunt Mr. Chance and his companions down. Besides them, there's another group from Scorching Heaven Sect. Now that three factions are breathing down Mr. Chance's neck, it would be difficult for them to escape the hidden realm!" Skyler informed Matthew.

"Skyler, Archer, find Mr. Chance at once and help him escape by sea. We cannot afford to let them get caught!" Matthew ordered.

"By sea?" Archer's expression changed slightly at the words. "Doesn't that mean they will have to sail out to sea? With many demon beasts roaming the ocean and the old monster guarding the nearby island, how are we going to get past them?"

"This is the only way out. We won't know until we try. As for the other escape routes, the enemy must have sealed all of them off," Matthew remarked with a frown. "W-What if we run into that old monster? I heard that he's a cannibal."

It was clear from Archer's tone that he was terrified of the monster he mentioned. "That's just a rumor. You shouldn't believe it. Now, hurry up and go," Matthew ordered as he gave Archer a look. Not daring to utter a word of protest, Archer had no choice but to set off together with Skyler.
