

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2141

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2141-Beanie forced herself not to think about David.

However, when she closed her eyes, her mind was in a mess. David's face kept reappearing and she could not do anything else at all.

She still felt that she needed to find out David's true identity in order to feel at ease.

It was pretty worrying to have such a powerful person accompanying them.

Hence, Beanie called her maid and asked her to invite David over.

Meanwhile, David was chatting happily with everyone in his carriage.

As the number of topics grew, he started to learn more about The Spirit Cage.

Suddenly, a voice came from outside.

"Excuse me, is Master David in there?"

David was taken aback.

He looked around and noticed everyone looking at him.

'She's asking for me, right?

'But this is the first time I came to The Spirit Cage, I probably don't know anyone.'

Confused, David asked aloud, "Who are you looking for?"

The voice said again, 'I'm looking for Master David Lidell!' 'So she is indeed asking for me.'

David got up and walked out of the carriage. Then, he saw a woman in a green shirt who looked about twenty-seven or twenty-eight years old standing outside.

"I'm David. May I ask what you want from me? Do we know each other?" David asked.

"My lady is looking for you. Please follow me." The woman in the green shirt said respectfully.

She looked at David with curiosity in her eyes.

Before coming, the lady gave special instructions not to show any disrespect to David and to invite him over respectfully.

What the woman in green did not understand was what did this adventurer have that deserved the lady's attention?

Who was the lady?

She was the younger sister of the head of the Nacht family of Planet Lucio. She was deeply valued by the head, and she had excellent strength and ability. Furthermore, she had a very high status in the Nacht family which was almost second only to the head.

In addition, Beanie was also the person in charge of the Nacht family members who entered The Spirit Cage this time.

Even the head of the family needed to pay attention to what she said.

Meanwhile, David was just an adventurer making ends meet at the bottom.

'Even if he's good-looking, it's not enough for milady to pay so much attention to him, right?

'Could it be... Could it be that the milady has a crush on him? Is she trying to make a move on someone younger than him?

'Gosh, it's possible.

'Otherwise, why would milady scold Master Nas in order to help David, an adventurer?'

When she thought of this, the woman in green began to carefully examine David's appearance.

The more she looked at him, the more her eyes lit up.

Apart from being an adventurer and being somewhat unworthy of the lady, David was almost perfect in terms of his image.

He was a perfect match for the lady.

David was so captivating and pleasing to the eyes.

The woman in green had never seen such an attractive man before.

None of the men on Planet Lucio who pursued the lady could compare, and they were miles apart from David.

The only issue was that David's status was too low.

When David heard the woman in green say that her lady was asking for him, he already knew roughly what was going on.

Recommended Novels