I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2143-David sat in the carriage with his legs crossed.

Beanie knelt in front of him respectfully.

If this scene was witnessed by someone outside, their jaws would definitely fall onto the floor.

The number two member of the Nacht family, the person in charge of The Spirit Cage, was kneeling in front of an adventurer?

How incredible!

How unfathomable!

Only Beanie, the person involved, knew that she was willingly doing this and it was only right for her to behave this way.

If David was not around, not only would the Nacht family have badly suffered, but Beanie's life would also have come to an end.

Even before death, she would be humiliated.

To Beanie, it was very normal to kneel for her savior even though he looked young.

"Master David, you're right! With my current strength, I couldn't detect who was making the move in secret, but my sixth sense has always been very accurate. From the first time I saw you, I knew that you were definitely not an adventurer scraping by at the bottom, but a distinguished personage," Beanie replied.

"Oh? Is it because I don't look like an adventurer?"

David looked at the clothes on his body. Indeed, he did not look like one.

In truth, he discovered this problem when he first entered The Spirit Cage.

However, he did not care too much, so he did not bother to deliberately dress up.

"It's not just a question of clothing! Master David, a person's temperament, demeanor, and tone of voice will also reflect the environment they grew up in and their status. I can feel the energy that only bigwigs have from you, Master David. Plus, the powerhouse secretly defeated Linus and the other guy in secret. That was why I thought of you," Beanie explained.

'A bigwig?'

David chuckled.

He was originally a university student who did deliveries, but after obtaining the system, he came all the way here from Earth to the Milky Way, and then from the Milky Way to the Star Kingdom. He predicted that he would also go from Star Kingdom to Leila soon.

Everywhere he went, he would rely on the system, the master of this place.

With the continuous improvement of strength, his status was also constantly changing.

Subconsciously, David felt that he had indeed changed a lot.

“Ms. Beanie, now that you’ve found out, I won’t hide from you anymore. I’m indeed not an adventurer, but I came to The Spirit Cage for training, and I just arrived not long ago. As for my origin, I can’t tell you and I hope you can understand the reason for this. At the same time, I hope you can keep this a secret for me for the time being and not expose me. In return, if you need help in the future, just ask and I will try my best to help you as long as it does not violate any principles.”

After David finished speaking, he waved his hand and a force lifted Beanie.

“Please rest assured, Master David! I, Beanie Nacht, swear that even if I face the threat of death, I will never share your information! If I break this oath, I will be tortured to death.” Beanie promised excitedly.

Of course, she was excited.

David said himself that if she had any difficulties in the future, she could go to him.

What did this mean?

It meant that she would have David as her major support.

Both she and the Nacht family would benefit immensely.

“Alright, I believe you. Okay, if there is nothing else, I will take my leave. Remember, you are still the employer, and I am the adventurer you hired, understand?”

“Understood! Master David, bye!”

David stepped out of the carriage while Beanie bowed behind him.

However, they were still inside and not outside, so they were not worried about being seen.

After David left, Beanie calmed her nervous heart.

At the same time, she was also glad.

She never expected David to acknowledge her.

Perhaps this accident would completely change the Nacht family and her fate.

Meanwhile, David returned to his carriage.
