I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2155-On The first day entering the Demon Ridge, the Nacht family's team did not encounter robbers who could be so ignorant.

Although there were quite a few people on the way watching them secretly, they gave up the moment they saw the Nacht family's banner.

After all, the Nacht family was quite famous in Nightingale City, and they were not weak.

The robbers did not need to take that risk.

With the lessons learned from the Beam family many years ago, the robbers who were now entrenched in the Demon Ridge would all act with caution.

The consequences would be disastrous if there was another siege like the one launched by the Beam family the last time.

Halfway through the next day, everyone felt that they could safely pass the Demon Ridge.

Woosh!

An arrow shot out from the dense forest, directly piercing the neck of the guard steering the first carriage of the Nacht family.

"Ugh!"

The guard did not understand what was going on. He covered his neck with his hands and his eyes widened with fright. After that, he fell to the ground after feeling some difficulty breathing and died.

Immediately afterward...

Woosh! Woosh! Woosh!

Countless arrows shot out from the dense forest, attacking the five carriages of the Nacht family.

"Enemy Attack! Enemy Attack! Enemy Attack!"

The guards of the Nacht family who discovered this shouted frantically.

At the same time, they rushed out of the carriages and gathered in front of Beanie's carriage.

As the Nacht family's guards, their main purpose was to protect their masters.

Of course, there was a second reason for this. Since Beanie was powerful, it would be easier to survive standing around her.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

The arrows and the weapons in the hands of the guards continuously collided.

These guards were the elites of the Nacht family selected by Beanie, and their strength should not be underestimated.

Except for the guard who drove the first carriage, who was killed by the enemy's sneak attack and caught off guard, everyone else quickly took out their weapons to block the incoming arrows.

Although some of them were injured, none of them lost their lives.

Beanie froze for a moment when she first heard the enemy attack. After that, she came back to her senses and was burning with anger.

She had already raised the banner of the Nacht family.

Unexpectedly, there were actually ignorant people who dared to attack the Nacht family.

They were really asking for it.

"Niv, stay inside and don't go out. I'll go and see who has the balls to attack the Nacht family."

After Beanie finished speaking, she immediately jumped out of the carriage without giving Nivia a chance to answer.

Boom!

She burst through the ceiling of the carriage and rose into the air.

She grabbed the arrows shot from the dense forest one by one. Then, she returned each of them with force.

"Ah!" There was a flurry screams in the dense forest.

After this wave of attack, there were piles of broken arrows around the five carriages.

Most of the Nacht family's guards were wounded, but only two or three had been killed.

On the contrary, the people who attacked them secretly from the dense forest suffered heavy casualties.

These ordinary robbers were nothing before Beanie.

“Who dares to attack my Nacht family? Come out if you dare! Don’t try to be sneaky and hide in the dark like a lowly rat!” Beanie shouted as she stood on the top of the carriage.

After a while, no one responded.

She continued to sneer, “What’s wrong? You have the guts to do this but don’t have the guts to show yourself? I guess the Demon Ridge is just so-so. You are all some mobs with no courage!”

“I’ve heard that there’s a woman in the Nacht family from Nightingale City who’s not any inferior to men. If she were not a woman, she’d be the head of the family. Now that I’ve seen you, you do indeed live up to your name,” a voice said from the forest.

‘Who’s there? Get the hell out!’

Beanie then threw the remaining arrow.

Woosh!

The target was the source of the voice.

However, after the arrow was thrown, it looked as if it had disappeared into the ocean as the voice also stopped.
