

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2157

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2157-“Hahaha!”

There were bursts of laughter in the dense forest.

This was not from one person but from a lot of people.

Everyone was obviously amused by Beanie’s words.

Beanie was indeed not weak, but no matter how strong she was, there was only one of her.

They had assembled dozens of forces entrenched here and the leaders of some forces were not much weaker than Beanie.

If a battle broke out, Beanie would definitely fall.

The reason why they did not attack immediately was because they did not want to make this matter too serious.

When the matter with the Beam family happened in the past, it caused too much trouble and eventually caused the Demon Ridge to be surrounded by many of Sole’s forces, resulting in a bloodbath.

In reality, they did not want to take action this time, but someone brought news.

It was said that there was a complete Silver Flood Dragon worth more than 10 billion with the Nacht family’s team.

More importantly, there was a Beast Crystal in the body of Silver Flood Dragon.

That was something worth nearly a hundred billion.

Who would not be envious?

Who would not want it?

Even if they split the money after those two things were sold, they could still each receive an astronomical amount.

Money touched people’s hearts.

As the saying went, people would die for money while birds would die for food.

Many people in it figured that after finishing this mission, they could call it a day after the money was distributed and stop their life of crime.

“Beanie, since you are still obstinately persisting in going about things the wrong way, don’t blame us for being cruel. We didn’t want to kill anyone, but the things in your hands are too valuable! At worst, we will leave the Demon Ridge after finishing this mission and live out our days somewhere else. If you have money, you can live a good life anywhere. Why bother to work hard here, don’t you think so?”

“Yes!”

A deafening sound came from the dense forest.

This was not the effect that dozens or hundreds of people could achieve.

It was conservatively estimated that there were at least tens of thousands of people in the dense forest.

Only Beanie could keep her cool in the Nacht family’s team, as everyone else was very nervous.

Their faces were pale and there were traces of fear in their eyes.

As they were facing impending death, no one could remain calm.

Beanie was also like this because she knew David was on the team.

Otherwise, she would consider giving up Beast Crystal to save everyone’s lives.

“I’ll count to ten! If you want to live, leave with your people, but leave your things behind. I won’t stop you. However, if you really want money and not your life, we can’t do anything about that.”

“Beanie, I advise you to go! Where there’s life there’s hope. Your life is more important than the treasure, right? If you’re lucky, you can still come across another treasure after this. If you lose your life, you will lose everything.” Another voice persuaded.

“Ten, nine, eight...”

After every number, the hearts of the Nacht family’s guards drummed violently unconsciously.

Their faces also became paler.

They naturally hoped that Beanie would give up the treasure she was escorting this time and take everyone away.

“Three, two, one.”

After saying ‘one’, the Nacht family’s guards were on edge.

They were holding their weapons so tightly that they were rattling.

“Beanie, it seems that you are determined to resist to the end. Thus, don’t blame us for being cruel.”

“Go!”

Buzz!

Woosh!

The second wave of arrows were fired, and it was even denser than the initial wave.

Not only were they longer and thicker, but they were also much stronger.

It was not at the same level as the first wave at all.

The remaining elite guards of the Nacht family were no match for an attack of this strength.

Needless to say, they would be able to directly shoot through the carriages too.

Recommended Novels