I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2220-Furthermore, those five Elf women were the cause of the conflict between the two parties.

On seeing David, Basil did not stop. He strode into the front yard with big strides, followed by a group of seniors from the Macee family and some powerful elites.

There were hundreds of people on the team, not including the guards outside.

All of the powerful figures of the Macee family were here.

Fortunately, the front yard of the mansion that David bought was big enough, so the team of more than a hundred people only occupied one corner.

To prevent the Macee family from doing sneak attacks, David also went out to the yard in advance to wait.

“Are you from the Macee family?” David asked.

“I am Basil Macee, the head of the Macee family in The Spirit Cage and also the mayor of Sole,” Basil replied.

“Are you here to avenge Conway?”

“I’m here to investigate the truth of the matter.”

Basil’s answer surprised David.

Originally, he thought that when the other party arrived, they would attack indiscriminately because this was what some big forces would do.

It did not matter whether David was at fault or not. They would take him down first and then talk about it later.

However, after thinking about it, David understood in his heart. It seemed that the Macee family was intimidated by his strength.

“Based on the influence of your Macee family in Sole, you should have found the answer long ago!” David smiled.

“We are generally clear about what happened, but there are still some details that need to be clarified by you. After all, the other party, Conway, has died in your hands.”

“It’s very simple. Conway and I participated in an underground trade fair and we had our eyes on the same things at the same time. Then, I outbid him and bought them. He refused to accept it, so he used his family’s connections to find me. Then, he broke into my place last night and killed my men. Therefore, I killed him and made him a burial offering. It’s that simple. I will accept whether your family wants to fight me or make peace.”

After David finished speaking, he crossed his legs and looked indifferent.

He had always been a man with the principle that if others did not offend him, then he would not offend others.

He would not take the initiative to look for trouble, but he was also not afraid of trouble.

This was the end of the matter, and David would not pursue it any further.

A few guards of the Nacht family were sacrificed on his side while a descendant of the Macee family also died, so it was even.

So, if the Macee family insisted on avenging Conway, then they should not blame him.

After David said that, the members of the Macee family at the scene all waited for Lord Basil to explode.

From their point of view, with Lord Basil’s temper, he would never be able to swallow this grievance.

However, the actual situation surprised them.

Basil did not fly into a rage immediately, but asked calmly, “ May I know where you are from? What are you doing in Sole?”

‘That’s none of your family’s business, right?’ David asked back.

“As the mayor of Sole, I have the right to ask you whether your purpose of coming here will endanger the safety of the people of Sole,” Basil said righteously.

David smiled when he heard this.

“Enough, don’t pretend to be so righteous. I know what you’re trying to do. You just want to know if I have any strong support behind me and then decide whether to fight or make peace, right? I can tell you now, I just entered The Spirit Cage not long ago and I don’t have any strong backers. I don’t like to cause trouble, but I am also not afraid of trouble. Your family has come to trouble me time and time again, so you think I am weak?”

While speaking, the smile on David’s face gradually disappeared and was replaced by a serious look.

His answer stumped Basil and Basil did not know what to do for a while.

David was undoubtedly a direct descendant of a certain force. That was for sure.

Otherwise, he would not have the achievements he has now.

Yet, after an entire night of investigation, the Macee family could not find any surrounding cities with the Lidell family’s name.

Even the nearest first-tier city Wier did not have a family with the surname Lidell.

Where did David come from?

Was he telling the truth? Or did he change his name? Or did he come from a further place?

The last possibility was very small.

Anyone who could enter The Spirit Cage would not stay too far away from their departure point. Normally, they would stay near the area. If not, it would be very hard for them to leave safely once they encountered an emergency.
