Chapter 141

“No.” Rosalynn’s tone was indifferent

Wayne looked at her, his eyes sinking

“Why are you looking at me? Didn’t I text you the other day and said no?” Rosalynn glanced at him

Probably because she had been subservient to Wayne for too long Now being stared at like this, she felt inexplicably guilty “You rejected me because you wanted to leave,” Wayne said word by word. “Rosalynn, are you still thinking of running away?” Rosalynn’s heart skipped a beat She desperately tried to stabilize her emotions and expression

“No.” she replied

Wayne’s heart felt like it was being stabbed one after one with a blunt knife

She was lying

“Then go accept the job offer Wayne’s tone was indisputable

Gradually, Wayne realized that Rosalynn couldn’t let go of many things, including friends, family, and career. All these things were irreplaceable to her.

Giving her ties to Energy Corporation would mean having one more reason not to leave.

Even if it wasn’t for him. As long as he could keep her firmly by his side

“President Silverman, I won’t be good at it.” Rosalynn frowned, still refusing

“Whatever, I have enough money to afford the loss” Wayne was equally unyielding “It seems you don’t need a break either. Go back to work tomorrow. Ashley has left. First, as my secretary, attend Energy Corporation’s preliminary meetings. Once preparations are complete, we will officially announce your appointment as president.”

The president of Energy Corporation was a hot position, which countless people would fight to have.

Suddenly announcing Rosalynn as president would leave her exposed to many attacks and distrust.

So Wayne chose to let her participate in the preliminary meetings first to show the technical experts Rosalynn's abilities. With their approval, the rest could be solved slowly

He also planned to give Douglas's Sales Division 1 to Rosalynn as the sales department of Energy Corporation. Those people recognized her abilities and wouldn't need much time to adjust.

Of course, Wayne wouldn't tell Rosalynn these things. He was never good at boasting, so all Rosalynn could think about was that he wanted to use Energy Corporation to bind her long-term

It seemed she couldn't wait any longer

She had to fake her death as soon as possible and end this terrible situation

"I understand" Rosalynn lost her appetite and put down her chopsticks "You can take your time eating. I'm going to..."

"Sit down, Wayne looked at her. His eyes were cold and terrifying

Rosalynn clenched her fists under the table, "I'm done eating"

"I don't think so. Wayne tapped the table with his fingertips. "Keep eating. I'll tell you when you're done eating!"

Rosalynn knew that, Wayne's temper was on the verge of erupting

To avoid worse consequences, she gritted her teeth, picked up her chopsticks, and continued eating slowly.

Neither of them spoke again. However, to Rosalynn's surprise, Wayne finished a bowl of soup and poured another.

He wasn't supposed to eat spicy food due to a weak stomach, Rosalynn wanted to stop him, but when she thought about his overbearing attitude, she bit her tongue and kept quiet

Later, she dawdled out of the bathroom after taking a shower, and saw Wayne curled up in bed, clutching his stomach.

This was totally asking for trouble!

At first, Rosalynn wanted to pretend not to see it and ignore him, but in the end, she couldn't bear to do so

Chapter 142

All of Wayne's usual meds were in Rosalynn's place. She went out to get them for him, prepared some warm water, and squatted by his side.

"Your stomach is not in good shape, and you still ate so much spicy food. What were you thinking?" Rosalynn asked

Wayne opened his eyes, finally without that annoying arrogance. I thought you would stop me."

His tone was so pitiful, which left Rosalynn speechless

"Take your meds She handed both the water and medicine to Wayne

Wayne obediently took them and swallowed

After that, Rosalynn went to dry her wet hair. She took her time, waiting for the medicine to take effect and Wayne to fall asleep first.

When she went back to the bedroom, Wayne was still curled up, but he seemed to be asleep. She breathed a sigh of relief, turned off the light, and slowly climbed onto the bed Just as she settled in and she didn't even have time to let out a breath of relief, the person on the other side turned and reached for her, holding her in his arms.

She was still cold, but Wayne's body felt very gentle and warm.

"You're not asleep Rosalynn muttered

"Almost Wayne affectionately rubbed against her neck, his hands were naughty.

Rosalynn pressed his hand down, and he immediately grabbed her fingers tightly.

Rosalynn's heart raced.

"Don't be afraid Wayne kissed her earlobe, his voice as gentle as a spring breeze, "I just want to hold you while we sleep."

"When she remained silent, Wayne continued, "Rosa, don't be scared of me. It was my fault before. I'll treat you better from now on, even better than how you treated me"

In the work notebook, whatever her original intentions were, Wayne saw all the good things Rosalynn had done for him.

Even his own parents didn't understand him as well as Rosalynn did.

If he could get her kindness back, he would do anything!

"I'm not afraid of you," Rosalynn said, feeling that Wayne's drowsy voice made him sound less serious, and that's why he would say such nonsense.

But who doesn't want to hear their crush say something they like?

"Yes, you're not afraid of me. You just dislike me," Wayne tightened his arms, burying his head deeper. It was as if she would disappear if he loosened his grip

Rosalynn sighed softly, "Go to sleep..."

"My stomach hurts... Wayne said pitifully. "Before, when my stomach hurt, you would warm it with your hand"

Rosalynn felt helpless and paused for a moment. She turned around, and Wayne wisely loosened his grip. Her still-cool hand was placed on Wayne's stomach and gently rubbed

In the darkness, Wayne's eyes remained fixed on Rosalynn, Suddenly, he asked, "If I were yours, would you still hand me over to someone else?"

Rosalynn's hand stiffened, and then she applied more force

Wayne instinctively grabbed her hand and brought it to his lips for a kiss, "Are you trying to murder your husband?"

This remark made Rosalynn even more uncomfortable.

"You'll never be mine, and you're not my husband," she snatched her hand back, "Enough of this nonsense, just sleep."

Rosalynn turned back again, facing away from Wayne. A few seconds later, Wayne held her from behind again.

"Rosa, I am yours, Wayne said

Rosalynn pursed her lips. Pretending to ignore him, she didn't respond.

But in her heart, she told herself. "It's all fake."

“Just sweet talk”

Chapter 143

Rosalynn didn't sleep too well that night.

Wayne's mumblings before bed haunted her dreams. At dawn, she was awake

Wayne still had his arms around her, so she tried to break free. But all she got was a tighter hug

“What's wrong?” Wayne woke up and asked with a hoarse voice

“I have to go to the bathroom!” Rosalynn smacked his arm, “Let go!”

Wayne muttered an “okay” and released her

Rosalynn washed up and, while Wayne was still asleep, went to the living room, found her pillbox in her bag and decided to take some folic acid and other vitamins

As soon as she swallowed them, she heard Wayne's voice from behind “Why are you taking pills?”

Rosalynn got startled and choked on the water in her throat, coughing violently

Wayne quickly rushed over, lightly patting her back to help her catch her breath

Her face turned red from coughing, and she angrily punched Wayne, “What are you doing? You scared me to death!”

Instead of getting mad, Wayne was actually pretty happy. To him, this little tantrum was absolutely adorable.

“What's the medicine for anyway?” Wayne asked

“Last time I had a check-up, the doctor said I'm anemic and need to take some supplements,” Rosalynn replied.

Wayne frowned, ‘Anemic. Why didn't you eat properly?’

She hardly touched her food last night

“Most of the time, I eat properly if someone doesn’t piss me off,” Rosalynn shot back.

The annoyed Wayne remained silent,

“It’s only 6 am. Let’s sleep a bit more.” Wayne scooped up Rosalynn as if she was the princess, “A good sleep will also help you recover!” Rosalynn

“You go sleep, I’ve gotta make breakfast” Rosalynn pushed him away.

I get someone to bring it over Wayne insisted

“I’ve already bought the ingredients” Rosalynn argued, “And I want to cook it myself!”

Wayne was speechless

Moments later, Rosalynn was cooking in the kitchen while Wayne followed her around like a little puppy, occasionally resting his chin on her shoulder like a human noodle
“Last night’s soup was really good, when will you make it again?” Wayne asked.

Rosalynn was surprised Wayne had changed his taste preferences.

“Probably won’t happen again,” Rosalynn replied.

Wayne frowned, “Why?” He actually sounded quite displeased

“My boss forced me to work, and I’m so tired. I don’t want to cook anymore Rosalynn answered calmly.

The quiet atmosphere and the aroma of food filling the air, made people feel better,

Rosalynn even managed to stay calm and jest with Wayne.

Wayne

He then grunted, “Your boss is really terrible. I’ll talk to him! Tell him to let you come home and make soup for me!”

Rosalynn rolled her eyes at him. Wayne couldn’t help but think even her eye rolls were adorable.

It’s not too much to sneak a kiss when she’s this cute, right?

Rosalynn was kissed out of the blue and glared at Wayne, not talking to him anymore. She heated two cups of milk and prepared a stomach-friendly drink for Wayne

Wayne happily watched this girl bustle about under the dim light. He thought about how he nearly lost these ordinary moments. It gave him chills

“I’m not going to the office with you later” Rosalynn took a bite of her toast, crispy on the outside and fluffy with milky sweetness on the inside, very delicious. “Why not?” Wayne frowned

Chapter 144

Back in the day when he lived here, he and Rosalynn always went to the office together.

“What do you think? Rosalynn looked at him and asked slowly.

“Before President Silverman didn’t have a fiancée, and both of us were single. Even if people suspected I slept with you, at most they’d call me a gold digger who was in it for money. But now you have a fiancée, and I still hang out with you, what they gonna say about me?”

“Do you care so much about what others think?” Wayne asked.

“Absolutely! Rosalynn said firmly!

They faced off for a moment

Wayne gave in “Alright, I get it”

Rosalynn didn’t say anything, leisurely finishing her breakfast. Then she went to change her clothes and put on makeup.

When she came out, Wayne had also changed into a suit. His soft demeanor when wearing his home clothes was gone, and he looked serious again.

He handed his tie to Rosalynn when he saw her

Rosalynn walked over and, as always, helped him tie his tie, “Regarding the matter with New Energy Corporation, please take some more time to consider. There are seniors in the company who are more capable than me. It wouldn’t be fair for you to directly hand it over to me

That was what in her mind.

"I've already decided on this, no need to mention it again" Wayne always kept his word.

Rosalynn was a bit annoyed. Why did he go back on his word about ending up with her though?

"What are you thinking?" Wayne gently scraped her nose.

"I'm wearing makeup!" Rosalynn instinctively slapped Wayne's hand

Her own hand felt a bit numb, showing how much strength she used. After that, she sobered up a bit.

Oh no. Wayne was gonna flip

But to her surprise, Wayne didn't get angry but laughed instead "You're so fierce."

Rosalynn's cheeks flushed a bit, "Just get going! I'll leave after you're gone!"

"One kiss." Wayne bent down.

Rosalynn: "

She quickly kissed Wayne on the lips.

With that, Wayne happily left the car key to Rosalynn, feeling satisfied.

Rosalynn stood at the door, feeling a bit lost. How did Wayne change so much all of a sudden?

Five minutes after Wayne left, Rosalynn also walked out. After parking the car, Rosalynn had just pushed the car door open when a resentful voice rang out behind her. "Rosalynn!"

Rosalynn turned around

It was Ashley, who just got out of another car.

Her hair was messy, and she was not wearing makeup, seemingly having been crying. Her eyes were swollen, and face puffy.

"Did someone hit you?" Rosalynn asked.

"Despicable" Ashley, still reeking of alcohol, raised her hand and tried to slap Rosalynn.

Rosalynn dodged, and Ashley lost balance and fell onto the car's hood.

The engine had just been turned off, so the hood was still hot. She screamed and got up.

"Are you crazy?" Rosalynn frowned and asked

"Yes! Driven crazy by you! Didn't you say being with Wayne was just part of your job? Why? Why did you come back? He kicked me out of Bane Corporation because of you!" Rosalynn didn't know Ashley had been fired But her intuition told her that it must have something to do with that notebook.

Just as she was about to say something with a cold face, a gentle voice interrupted.

"Secretary Tesdal, is there a problem?"

Chapter 145

Ashley heard the voice and immediately looked back

It was Heatherway.

Accompanying Heatherway were several middle-aged men and women dressed in suits and ties.

One of the men, a blonde with blue eyes, caught Rosalynn's attention. He was an executive in an investment bank under the Rosso family.

"Ms. Rosso"" Ashley stumbled towards them

Heatherway's bodyguard immediately stepped forward, "What do you want?"

"Ms Rosso, it's mel' Ashley squeezed out an awkward smile.

"Secretary Walley Heatherway's flawless face was full of surprise, "What happened to you?"

"It's all her fault" Ashley turned around, pointing at Rosalynn, her voice almost cracking

Rosalynn stood there, looking cold and indifferent

“Secretary Tesdal” Heatherway greeted her politely, remaining gentle and kind. As if nothing happened last night in the parking lot.

Rosalynn nodded slightly, acknowledging the greeting, and then turned to leave.

“Don’t you walk away” Ashley, as if completely crazy, ran towards Rosalynn to grab her.

She probably spent the entire night partying at a club, still wearing her red heels, her long nails covered in various diamond decorations.

Rosalynn, caught off guard, had her arm grabbed by Ashley. Thank goodness it was winter, and her thick coat was on, or else this scratch would have likely drawn blood

After grabbing Rosalynn, Ashley hurriedly turned back to continue speaking with Heatherway. “Ms. Rosso, it’s this woman who lured President Silverman and got him all hot and bothered! You can’t leave her around President Silverman; she will ruin your marriage with him!”

“Slap!” A loud slap echoed through the garage.

Ashley holding her face, fell down to the ground in disgrace.

Rosalynn frowned, disgusted, as she waved the hand that had slapped Ashley, now stinging in pain.

“Ashley, you know why President Silverman kicked you out of Bane Corporation” Rosalynn said disdainfully. “Don’t turn into this crazy bitch, biting everyone you see.” “How dare you hit me?” Ashley covered her cheek, her eyes full of fury

Rosalynn glanced at the time. She was running late because of this little incident.

She didn’t bother wasting her life on Ashley Ignoring the shocked crowds around her, Rosalynn turned and walked towards the elevators

The patrolling security guards noticed the commotion and hurried over

Ashley, rage-filled, got up, still cursing and wanting to pounce on Rosalynn. “You shameless slut! How dare you hit me! I’ll kill you!!

Seeing this, the security guards broke into a cold sweat. Yesterday, they received instructions that Secretary Walley was not allowed in the Bane Corporation building Now, not only had she entered the building, but she had also gone crazy and tried to attack Secretary Tesdal – this was unacceptable!

A few guards rushed over and restrained Ashley

Rosalynn didn't look back.

However as she waited for the elevator, she could still hear the furious cursing of Ashley on the ground.

"Rosalynn, you're also shameless! Just for money, you're willing to sleep with any man! Wayne's getting married, and you're still clinging to him, you disgusting mistress!" The elevator door opened with a "ding" sound.

Wayne, with a serious face, was talking to Bane Corporation's vice president. He looked up and saw Rosalynn's pale face.

"What's wrong?" Wayne walked out and tried to reach out to touch Rosalynn's face.

Chapter 146

Rosalynn took a big step back like she'd been electrocuted

The next second, Wayne heard Ashley's filthy swearing

Wayne's face darkened, and with one look at Rosalynn, he led everyone in the elevator to walk quickly toward the outside.

Sean was the last to go, looking worriedly at Rosalynn

Rosalynn shook her head at him, then went into the elevator alone.

Once she was in the President's office, Rosalynn found out that today, the Rosso family and the Silverman family were going to sign a huge cooperation contract.

Wayne and the deputy director went downstairs, probably to pick up the deputy director sent by the Rosso family

When Rosalynn returned to her own office, she found that all of Ashley's stuff had disappeared.

Wayne even replaced her entire desk and chair with new ones, and there were beautiful flowers in a vase.

Rosalynn sat down, spun the chair, and looked out at the heavy fog through the floor to ceiling windows.

There were quite a few people in the underground garage in the morning This farce would soon spread throughout the company in lots of different versions, huh. But the unchanging core of it all was her filthy relationship with Wayne.

Wayne hadn't mentioned the deal with the Rosso family to Rosalynn, so naturally he wouldn't let her get involved.

Rosalynn had a peaceful morning

Around eleven, Sean came in after knocking on the door.

"Secretary Tesdal, President Silverman is having lunch with guests."

Rosalynn nodded her head, "Got it."

Sean stood there, hesitated for a while, and then said, "Secretary Tesdal, in the next few days, President Silverman will gradually remove all of Mrs. Fuller's duties in the Silverman Group and Bane Corporation"

Rosalynn got a little panicky, "Oh?"

Wayne was such... a good son.

"Uh Ashley has been taken away too, I guess she's gonna be in a shitshow! Sean continued

Oh Rosalynn looked away.

What's the meaning of being in a shitshow now? Trouble had already taken root

"President Silverman, um

"Sean," Rosalynn interrupted him, "President Silverman has been annoyed with Mrs Fuller interfering in his management of the Silverman Group and Bane Corporation for a long time. Now he's just using the matter of the care center to sort out this issue. Also, with the Silverman family's cooperation with the Rosso family around the corner, Ashley pulled this stunt right in front of Heatherway. Even if it had nothing to do with me, President Silverman would still punish her."

Rosalynn finished speaking and gave a bright yet pale smile.

"You've been with President Silverman longer than I have, don't be so naive as to think that he's doing all this just for me, okay?"

Sean looked somewhat embarrassed.

Rosalynn looked out the window again. Most of the fog had lifted, leaving only a thin layer.

“Sean we’ve known each other for quite a few years now. You know somewhat how Wayne treated me before, right? Rosalynn asked.

Sean didn’t speak, just lowered his head.

In the past, she was like Wayne’s pet, always at his command.

“Now, you see him treating me differently, but don’t get the wrong idea. It’s just because of my change of temper and his ego.”

Rosalynn paused. “He likes submissive ones, and the novelty will wear off eventually. That guy... when he really gets bored, whoever is close to me will most likely get bad luck, understand?”

Sean was taken aback, and an inexplicable chill ran up his spine. The situation Rosalynn talked about had indeed happened several times before. However, the victims were senior executives of the Silverman Group or Bane Corporation Still, the same logic seemed to apply

“Go and do your stuff Rosalynn waved her hand I’m gonna take a nap”

Sean didn’t say anything more, and Rosalynn got up and went to the resting room.

Chapter 147

Sean walked into the secretary’s room, looking all bummed out.

There was someone standing outside the door. He looked up, bewildered, and almost fell on his butt from the shock. He had no idea how long Wayne had been standing there.

“President Silverman. Sean started to tremble

“Get out,” Wayne said coldly.

How could Sean not feel the fury hidden beneath Wayne’s icy demeanor?

He tried to tough it out “President Silverman, Secretary Tesdal, she...”

“Get out!” Wayne cut him off.

All of Sean’s courage was instantly scared away, and he nodded his head, sticking to the side of the door as he left.

Wayne went in, closed the door, and locked it. Then, as he walked towards the lounge, he ripped off his tie with one hand.

He was worried about her, as she was unhappy about what happened in the morning, so instead of having lunch with the guests, he had decided to go and buy her some lunch himself

As he arrived, he had heard her remarks. In her heart, he had no sincerity whatsoever!

Wayne pushed open the door to the lounge, and didn’t see Rosalynn. However, there seemed to be sounds coming from the bathroom.

He put down the food in his hands.

Was she throwing up? Wayne frowned, about to go over and listen carefully.

But then the noises from the bathroom stopped, and after a moment, the door opened. Rosalynn’s face was pale, her eyes rimmed with redness, and her hair was a mess. looking particularly haggard.

Wayne’s heart skipped

“What’s wrong with you?” He took two steps to Rosalynn’s side.

2

Subconsciously, he raised his hand, and the back of it touched Rosalynn’s forehead. She didn’t seem to have a fever.

Rosalynn stared blankly at Wayne Was she seeing things from throwing up? How come Wayne was here?

As she came to her senses, Rosalynn removed Wayne’s hand “Weren’t you having lunch with Ms. Rosso. the guests?”

“Cancelled” Wayne’s tone was a bit stiff and cold. “What’s wrong with you? You threw up last night too!

*Probably because I got angry this morning” Rosalynn said as she walked towards the bed,

She finally understood how difficult it was to be pregnant. She threw up until there was nothing left, and she couldn't eat anything.

Wayne grabbed her wrist. “Eat first, then sleep!”

Rosalynn glanced at him, not wanting to say an extra word, and allowed him pull her over to the small table by the window

He took out the dishes one by one and opened them.

“All of these are very nutritious,” Wayne said.

He was still angry when he first came in, but seeing her like this, he just felt bad for her

Rosalynn looked at him, feeling a strange discomfort in her heart. She would rather Wayne stayed cold and violent towards her, ignoring her, and treating her as a plaything!

His sudden tenderness made her feel uneasy.

“Did the talks with the Rosso family go smoothly? Rosalynn asked casually. “I heard it's a huge deal.”

“Good” Wayne replied as he fed her

Rosalynn looked at the fish Wayne had picked up. The fishy smell hit her nose, making her feel nauseous.

She couldn't help it, put down the food, and ran back into the bathroom. Wayne hurried to follow her behind.

Rosalynn locked the door behind her, and the few bites she had just eaten came back up.

When Wayne stood outside the door, somehow, a thought flashed through his mind.

Then, this thought was suppressed. He and Rosalynn had always been careful with contraception.

After a while, Rosalynn opened the door.

Chapter 148

This time, her face wasn't pale, but rather flushed with a sickly red color.

"Wayne, I don't eat fish Rosalynn said slowly, looking at him.

"I know." Wayne went over to hug her, gently stroking the back of her head. "I'll have someone take you to the hospital later."

Rosalynn froze

Pushing Wayne away, she asked, "What for?"

Wayne was silent for a moment before gently brushing his finger over her thin cheek. "Rosa, are you pregnant?"

Rosalynn's hairs stood on end

"Are you kidding? Rosalynn sneered. "I just had my period two weeks ago.

She pretended not to care, but also noticed Wayne's relieved look.

As expected

Rosalynn went around Wayne and continued eating. Wayne came over and took away the fish.

After taking a few bites, Rosalynn suddenly turned to Wayne

When she was young, her grandma used to say she was stubborn and wouldn't stop until she had experienced failure.

As she grew up and faced the uncertainties of life, she had changed a lot.

"President Silverman, I'm suddenly curious."

"What?" Wayne looked at her.

"If I were really pregnant, how much money would you give me to get an abortion? Rosalynn smiled and asked. "We hadn't discussed that, had we?"

“True” Rosalynn shrugged nonchalantly.

But deep down, she was heartbroken.

She knew what decision Wayne would make on this matter, and that was why it hurt

After getting some food in her stomach, the feeling of nausea was temporarily suppressed and Rosalynn went to bed for some rest.

A few moments later, Wayne still couldn’t resist coming closer.

He held Rosalynn, kissing her cheeks, earlobes, and neck tender and extremely intimate

As Rosalynn indulged in the affection, she tried her best to remind herself to stay awake.

“Rosa.”

It was a long time before Wayne finally spoke softly.

Rosalynn ignored him, pretending to be asleep.

“Answer me. I know you’re not asleep Wayne shook her.

Rosalynn was annoyed. “Can’t you just let me take a nap?”

“No” Wayne thought about the cold words she had just told Sean. By the end, all those words had become one message: She was always prepared to leave him. “So, what do you want?” Rosalynn asked impatiently “Rosalynn Wayne couldn’t help it, pulling her collar open and biting her collarbone.

Rosalynn couldn’t help but tremble

After biting her, Wayne felt as if he had been too rough, so he kissed her again. He knew very well how to tease her.

Just when Rosalynn’s mind was getting a bit muddled, Wayne kissed along her collarbone, up to her ear, and the hand circling her waist gently rested on her lower belly. “Rosa, would you be happier if we had a child

In a daze, Rosalynn thought she had heard it wrong

But then Wayne said seductively. "If you're really pregnant, I won't let you get an abortion. That's our child, how could I not want it?"

Rosalynn snapped back to reality

She violently shoved Wayne away and leaped out of bed.

"Wayne, do you even know what you're saying? What's gotten into you?!"

Chapter 149

Wayne sat up Because of Rosalynn's overreaction, his face was gloomy, and his gentleness was gone

Today they suddenly talked about pregnancy, and it also gave Wayne a wake-up call.

If they had a child would she still want to leave him?

"You asked me if I'd make you abort the baby after getting pregnant. I said I wouldn't!" Wayne said in a deep voice, "Rosalynn, do you really not want my child that much?"

"Think about it." Rosalynn was going crazy. "Wayne, you're getting married! If we're having a child, what would he be considered as? A hidden illegitimate bastard?"

"If you want, he could be the child of the Silverman family!" Wayne blurted out.

Rosalynn laughed after hearing that

"So, I'm screwed, I have to be your Substitute lover, and also help Heatherway have a child?"

Wayne and Heatherway were husband and wife. If the child's the kid of the Silverman family, wouldn't that be Heatherway's child?

"He'll be raised by your side just the same! For a rich young'master like Wayne, this kind of thing was not surprising.

Rosalynn laughed as if she heard a big joke, her shoulders shaking, and tears streaming down her face.

Wayne's complexion grew increasingly unpleasant.

“Forget it” Rosalynn shook her head “President Silverman, why are we arguing about things that won’t happen?”

Wayne’s heart was suddenly hurt. Having a baby with him, in her eyes, was something that can’t happen?

Rosalynn’s heart was in a mess. She didn’t want to continue sleeping, so she went towards the door

But after just two steps, Wayne chased up, grabbed her, and threw her back onto the bed,

Fortunately, the quilt was soft

Then, Wayne turned over, his face full of anger.

“Impossible things?” He sneered, “What if I insist?”

“Wayne, what do you think the child is? A tool for venting anger? It’s a life!” Rosalynn said sternly. “You don’t love me, so you won’t love my child”

When he likes her, of course, he would coax and love her. What if he doesn’t like her? By the time the novelty and feelings are gone, and he’s tired, he will give her money to get rid of her, but he will never give her the child.

“How do you know I don’t love you? Wayne stopped her from talking. When he said this, Wayne himself was startled.

Fortunately, at this time, his phone rang

Rosalynn glanced at it, and the call was from Heatherway. He frowned, picked up the phone, got up to answer the call, and walked out to the lounge.

Rosalynn felt exhausted and collapsed on the bed, gasping for air, trying to calm her chaotic heart. Wayne said he wouldn’t make her abort the baby, which was completely unexpected

If it was a little earlier, before her grandmother passed away, maybe she would happily tell Wayne she was pregnant. As long as Wayne agreed that she could have the baby, she would be grateful.

Rosalynn got up, sorted out her clothes, put on her coat, and went to the bathroom to wash her face.

it seemed that she couldn’t take a nap, so she opened the door of the lounge

Chapter 150

Wayne had just hung up the phone.

“You’re coming with me to the meeting this afternoon.” Wayne’s tone was totally commanding.

“What meeting? Rosalynn asked

Wayne glanced at her, “The one that didn’t finish in the morning”

Rosalynn frowned: “I wasn’t involved in the morning, what am I going to do in the afternoon?”

“Just sit there and let me see you all the time! Wayne replied unhappily.

Rosalynn laughed speechlessly “You really treat me like a decoration, huh?”

“Decoration?” Wayne came over, pinched Rosalynn’s chin, “Rosalynn, in this world, decorations don’t make people angry!”

Rosalynn held back from rolling her eyes

In the afternoon, although it was a meeting in reality, it was Wayne and the company’s vice presidents, accompanied by representatives from the Rosso family, visiting the Silverman family’s fully automated factory

Rosalynn followed the entire time.

Wayne and Heatherway, now in front of outsiders, already seemed like a married couple. Always standing side by side. Anyone who saw them would say: What a perfect match!

Rosalynn boredly stood to the side, as she listened, she looked elsewhere and zoned out, “Secretary Tesdal!” Suddenly, an executive from the Rosso family called Rosalynn, and everyone’s eyes immediately looked over at her.

Wayne looked calm, glancing at Heatherway

Rosalynn quickly calmed down and nodded slightly: "Mr. Eric."

"I've heard a lot about you" Eric said arrogantly with a smile, full of contempt in his eyes.
"I heard you're quite capable?"

"Thank you" Rosalynn replied

"I heard that President Silverman plans to make you the president of Energy Corporation, a joint venture between Bane Corporation and the Silverman family?" Eric asked leisurely

This was something very few people knew Wayne frowned

Eric continued "I'm very curious about the ability of someone who has gained President Silverman's trust like you."

Rosalynn kept a cold demeanor. She was aware of Eric's malice, but showed no irritation or anger.

"It's just a rumor, Mr. Eric. Don't take it seriously" Rosalynn replied.

Eric laughed and suddenly pointed to a large machine: "Secretary Tesdal, can you tell me what this machine is? Like its function, principle, and other stuff."

Eric knew that Rosalynn was an impromptu addition to the visit.

He thought. Not even Wayne would know the functions and principles of each machine.

A woman who climbed into a man's bed and stole Heatherway's husband would be even less likely to know.

His goal was simple: to humiliate Rosalynn

And to show Bane Corporation and the Silverman family's higher-ups what a useless person Rosalynn was, so they could stop Wayne from giving away such an important business as Energy Corporation to his mistress. It should belong to Heatherway

"Mr. Eric, Secretary Tesdal is not responsible for this area, so why don't I The Engineering Director smiled and began to speak.

"Oh? Secretary Tesdal doesn't know?" Eric raised his voice, "But these machines are all connected to the future of the new Energy Corporation, right?"

Wayne looked at Rosalynn. At this point, she should ask him for help, right? However, Rosalynn didn't even look at him.

“Well, it’s not that I’m completely clueless, but given my limitations in expertise, I only have a shallow understanding” Rosalynn came over, glanced at the machine’s serial number

In her mind, she quickly recalled the relevant information about the number.

She was never careless about work matters. When this factory was first established, Wayne took it very seriously

As a result, Rosalynn had memorized the characteristics, principles, and public information about every machine during that time, just to get prepared for emergencies Little did she know, it really came in handy now.
