

Chapter 5593

The other side.

Charlie was still in the mid-level villa in the Champs Elysees, having a long conversation with Maria and Jeremiah.

Although he has decided to sing "Empty City Strategies" to Victoria, there are still many details that need to be clarified gradually.

Maria said to Charlie, "Master, the idea of "Empty City Strategies" is brilliant,"

"But the only risk is that if the three elders come to Aurous Hill,"

"But Victoria hasn't paid attention to the portrait of the master, how should we deal with it?"

Charlie laughed and said, "Don't worry, the most popular short video platform right now is the Wade family's industry."

"I tried to find a way to send this painting to the Painting and Calligraphy Association this morning."

"Within a few hours, I can naturally arrange this painting to be popular."

"As long as Victoria is still paying attention to Aurous Hill, she will definitely see it."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "I guess if it is really like Miss Jeremiah said,"

"Victoria will definitely send three elders, then I guess These three elders are about to leave."

Maria nodded, and said, "It's a long way to China from the edge of Antarctica,"

"And it's impossible to take off and land ultra-long-range airliners on their island,"

"So they must go to Argentina first. They must be on the way to Argentina."

Charlie looked at the time and said with a smile, "If they are efficient,"

"They will probably be here by seven or eight o'clock in the morning. If they've already taken off to China."

Charlie paused for a while, and then said, "After they get on the plane to China,"

"I'll make the paintings of Old Ancestor Meng public, and Victoria will probably see it soon."

"Summon them back urgently, and the mentality of these three people will probably collapse at that time."

Maria nodded slightly, and said with a smile, "The three of them have retreated for a hundred years,"

“And they were about to succeed. They are suddenly called out by Victoria to perform a mission.”

“Opinions are the same as those of the Wu family, this is human nature.”

Both Charlie and Jeremiah agreed with Maria’s point of view.

Jeremiah lamented, “There are opinions for sure. After all, they have practiced on it for a hundred years,”

“But it is only a short step. It is suddenly interrupted. I don’t know how long it will be delayed.”

Charlie smiled and said, “The key is that if there is an urgent task, they are duty-bound to leave customs,”

“But everyone has been tossing around, and they have not yet arrived in Aurous Hill,”

“And then they are called back. If you drag the dog back, the dog will be dissatisfied.”

Maria asked with a smile, “What is the young master’s plan now?”

“How can this painting be given to the painting and calligraphy exhibition?”

Charlie replied, “My father-in-law is the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association,”

“And they have been looking for exhibits everywhere recently, so I can give this painting to him.”

Maria said with some concern, “The identity of the young master is sensitive,”

“And Victoria has always wanted to find out the whereabouts of the young master.”

“If the young master gives the painting to the father-in-law, in case Victoria sends someone to investigate,”

“Maybe she can find out the young master’s identity information,”

“And in that case, it will be exposed?”

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, “I must choose a clever way to give this painting to my father-in-law.”

As he spoke, he thought of an idea, and said, “I have a solution, and I will do it later.”

After speaking, he looked at Jeremiah and said, “Miss Jeremiah,”

“The formation that Victoria left in your Niwan Palace needs a special formula to activate, right?”

Jeremiah nodded and said, "That's right."

Charlie asked again, "Then Have you used your spiritual energy to investigate the mystery?"

Jeremiah said, "I have, but the Niwan Palace is usually closed, and our spiritual energy cannot enter at all."

Charlie nodded and sighed, "It seems that Victoria's control of your body is indeed very strong,"

"And I have never opened the Niwan Palace. I can't even open my own Niwan Palace, let alone try to open someone else's."

"Therefore, the self-explosive formation in your body should not be able to be removed in a short time."

Jeremiah sighed softly, and said, "I never thought about getting rid of the formation,"

"But I just hope that this formation will not affect other innocent people."

"Anyway, I don't have too long to live, and there is only the last thing left in my life. It is just a matter of not more than two years."

Charlie asked curiously, "Why do you say that?"

Jeremiah said, "I have the strange poison left by Victoria in my body."

"I have to take the antidote every three years, otherwise my meridians will be cut off and my internal organs will be destroyed."

Charlie frowned and said, "I wonder if I can check it out?"

Jeremiah hesitated for a moment, then nodded slightly, and handed Charlie her right hand.

Charlie put his fingers on Jeremiah's vein gate, and a trace of aura entered her body.

After running through her body for a while, he found that her meridians, dantian, and even internal organs were surrounded by a strange energy.

Charlie can vaguely feel that this energy has been completely fused with her meridians and internal organs.

With Charlie's current ability, it is completely impossible to separate this energy from her body.

What's even more strange is that he can feel that this energy is extremely manic in nature,

But the reason why it can be stably integrated with her body without interfering with the other is that there is another energy that is like a stabilizer, constantly interacting with this energy. The strands of energy interact to keep the former stable.

Moreover, Charlie can feel that the latter has been absorbed by the former at an extremely slow speed.

This kind of slow absorption can not only keep the former stable but also allow the former to absorb continuously for a long time.

In the middle, it will gradually become stronger and stronger, while the latter will become weaker and weaker because it is continuously absorbed by the former.

Charlie couldn't help but said, "Miss Jeremiah, there are two strange auras in your body, do you know?"

"Yes." Jeremiah nodded, and said, "These two auras are poison and antidote."

He sighed, "It seems that the spiritual energy in the deepest part of Miss Jeremiah's body should be the poison itself,"

"And the spiritual energy involved with it is the effect of the antidote."

"As long as the effect of the drug is still there, the poison's properties can be stabilized."

"The effect of the antidote has been slowly absorbed by the former, and once the latter, which has the function of a stabilizer,"

"is absorbed by the former, the former will explode, and you will die from breathlessness."

Charlie said again, "The blood in your body has a kind of toxin that is completely different from the situation of the dead man and the cavalry."

"The toxin in the body of the dead man and the cavalry is a kind of poison with a complex structure."

"Presumably it should be a special toxin mastered by Victoria. The poison in your body is not so much poison as it is a special aura."
