

I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2334 - 2338

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2334-Since killing Blue last time, the story of David saving Star Kingdom had spread.

The Iridescent Sect had become a sacred place in Star Kingdom.

The small courtyard where David lived in seclusion was considered the most sacred place among the sacred places.

Countless people wanted to visit it.

However, to avoid affecting David, Nova had set this place as a forbidden area such that no one was allowed to approach. Even the disciples who guard the gate had been dismissed.

After leaving the small courtyard, David used his Divine Power to confirm Nova's location. Then, he went straight to her.

After chatting with Nova for a while, he learned that Star Kingdom was fine, but two people were waiting for David in the sect.

One was Amadi, the younger head of Star Mansion.

The time he had known David was second only to Celeste among all the people in Star Kingdom. i

In the beginning, Amadi and Celeste went out to perform tasks together.

They went to level 3 civilization, the Milky Way, met David, and brought David back to Star Kingdom.

At that time, Amadi wanted to recruit David into Star Mansion.

Unfortunately, a series of things happened later that caught Amadi by surprise.

Now, David had become the savior of Star Kingdom, a superpower beyond Saint Realm.

It was simply unbelievable.

Amadi lamented more than once.

If Amadi recruited David into Star Mansion the moment he came to Star Kingdom, wouldn't Star Mansion be the sacred place of Star Kingdom now?

How would the Iridescent Sect get a chance to rise to this level?

Of course, the seniors of Star Mansion were extremely remorseful.

The first time Amadi returned to Star Mansion from the Milky Way, he told them about David.

He wanted to promise David some gratuity so he could recruit him.

However, no one paid attention to him.

Star Mansion's seniors all felt that David was just a kid from a level 3 civilization. So, even if he had some talent, it would not be enough for Star Mansion to take the initiative to recruit him.

If David went to them, they would reluctantly accept.

If David did not, then forget it.

Later, David soared into success.

Gradually, he made the seniors of Star Mansion experience what it was like to feel remorse.

How would they expect a kid from a level 3 civilization to rise all the way and grow to this point?

The other one was Alba, the current first-in-line heir of the Fellowes family and the future head of the Fellowes family.

She broke the rules of the Fellowes family. As a woman, she was about to take over the Fellowes family and become the head of the Fellowes family.

However, anyone with a discerning eye knew that all this was for David's sake.

The grandmasters and seniors of the Fellowes family were not fools either.

With the relationship between Alba and David, they naturally wanted to use it to gain more benefits for the Fellowes family.

David followed Nova to the VIP area of the Iridescent Sect and went to meet Amadi first.

David had a good impression of the younger head of the Star Mansion.

When they left the Milky Way, they joined forces to fight against dozens of Eternals from the Beast Galaxy.

As soon as he saw David, Amadi got up quickly and came to David. Then, he put his hands together, bowed, and said politely, “Amadi from Star Mansion is greeting you, Master David!”

“Amadi, we are friends who once fought side by side, so there is no need to be so polite!” David smiled.

When Amadi heard David calling himself by name, he immediately became terrified.

“Oh no! No way! This is absolutely not allowed! How can I be your friend? I will be scolded to death if word of this gets out!”

Seeing Amadi’s appearance, David frowned. However, he was relieved and recovered soon.

This was not the first time he had seen this situation. So, he joked, “Amadi! If you keep talking like that, 111 turn around and leave.”

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2335

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2335-When he heard David joking with him, Amadi looked up and saw David smiling.

While he was waiting for David in the Iridescent Sect these days, he had been rehearsing countless times in his mind what would happen when he met David.

He had thought of all possibilities, and he even imagined David closing the door on his face.

After all, with David's current strength and status, not everyone could see him.

The only thing he did not expect was this current situation.

As he was looking at David's heartfelt smile, he knew that this was a smile that would only appear when one was meeting old friends.

Therefore, Amadi knew that the David in front of him was still the same.

Although his strength was already so great that the entire Star Kingdom could only look up to him, his heart had not changed.

No wonder he had achieved so much.

This nature alone was not comparable to ordinary people.

"Master David! I..."

Before Amadi could speak, he was interrupted by David.

"Huh? You still want to call me Master David?"

"I... I dare not call you anything less! If word spreads, the consequences will be very serious. I'm afraid even Star Mansion will be attacked and insulted by countless people, let alone myself." Amadi smiled bitterly.

David was the belief in the hearts of everyone in Star Kingdom.

So, Amadi genuinely did not dare to call David by his name like he did in the past.

Otherwise, once word got out, the consequences could be disastrous.

Star Mansion could not bear the consequences.

“Fine, Amadi, I understand so I won’t make it difficult for you. When there are outsiders, I don’t care what you call me, but in a situation like the one we are in right now where there are no outsiders and we are alone, you can address me how you used to. What do you think?” David thought of a compromise. With the change in his strength and status, some things were unavoidable. He could not make things difficult for others.

“Okay, then I’ll boldly call you David!” Amadi agreed after thinking about it. He was not pretentious.

If Star Mansion did not need to ask David for help, he definitely would not have come to David.

It was just that he did not know how to face David, his former friend.

“Haha! That’s more like it. Amadi, please sit down.”

“After you, David.”

The two sat down and chatted about the past.

David was a nostalgic person.

So, no matter how his strength and status changed, he still liked to chat with some old friends about the past.

However, except for Celia and the other women who had close relationships with him, the rest of the people would not be able to behave as they did in the past as long as they understood how strong David was.

It was like this on Earth and it was also like this on the Milky Way later on.

Now, the same went for Star Kingdom.

During the chat, David could also feel how restrained Amadi was.

He could not help this.

No matter how approachable David was, his strength and identity was evident.

Except for Celia and the others, perhaps no one dared to speak to David in a joking tone.

After chatting for a while, David saw that Amadi seemed to have something to say, so he knew Amadi must have come to him for something but had no idea how to start.

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2336

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2336-He took the initiative to say, “Amadi, we can be regarded as friends who fought side by side, and without you and Celeste, I would not have been able to reach Star Kingdom. To be honest, I am very happy that you can come to me. In the future, just ask if you need my help in Star Kingdom. As long as it’s within my power, I will definitely not refuse.”

Amadi knew David must have sensed something and that was why he said that.

Now that David had cut to the chase, there was no need for him to keep hiding.

“David, to tell you the truth, I came to you this time because I genuinely need your help,” Amadi stood up and said seriously.

“Amadi, sit down! Don’t stand. Just sit down and tell me. I don’t have any guarantees elsewhere, but in Star Kingdom, my words carry some weight.”

Amadi forced a smile when he heard this.

With David’s identity and status, his words did not only carry some weight in Star Kingdom.

He was someone whose words were law.

Who would dare to disobey him unless they were tired of living?

Even if David did not take action himself, someone would do it for him.

When one got to David’s level, just one look could determine the fate of an entire force.

In Star Kingdom, there was nothing that David could not solve with a word.

Therefore, Amadi came to ask David for help under the instruction of Star Mansion’s Due to this.

In fact, the matter in Star Mansion was not complicated nor was it as serious as imagined.

Even without David’s help, Star Mansion could survive safely.

It was one thing that they asked Amadi to come to David for help to solve the problem.

More importantly, it was to let people in Star Kingdom know about the relationship between Star Mansion and David as this was more important than anything else to Star Mansion.

If not, they could solve the problem in front of them just fine with a little thought, a little effort, and a loss of some profits.

Taking advantage of the relationship between Amadi and David to push Star Mansion to an unprecedented level of glory was what all of the seniors of Star Mansion hoped for.

Just when Amadi wanted to say what he came for, David suddenly added, “But Amadi, the time we have been together is not too short, so you should know my personality. If someone else bullies you, then I have absolutely no reason to reject your request, but if Star Mansion is the one bullying others and the other party is now seeking revenge, don’t blame me for being a bad friend.

I won’t be able to help you so please don’t ask me this.”

David had his own reasons for reminding Amadi in this way.

He knew that as soon as he made a move, his relationship with Star Mansion would be exposed.

In the future, all forces in Star Kingdom would be respectful toward Star Mansion.

Just like the current Iridescent Sect.

At that time, it would be bad if Star Mansion relied on its relationship with David to commit anything outrageous.

David did not want to help Star Mansion out of trouble now only to drive them into hell with his own hands.

“Don’t worry, David. Although Star Mansion is not a selfsacrificing force that will save the world, I will never do things that will oppress fellows of the same trade or commit any outrageous acts. This time, we are the victims,” Amadi immediately assured.

‘That’s good! Since you’ve promised you, I will believe you. Tell me, what kind of trouble did Star Mansion encounter and what do I need to do?’ David nodded.

Next, Amadi briefly introduced to David the predicament Star Mansion faced, but at the same time, he slightly exaggerated the situation.

After listening to what Amadi said, David roughly understood Star Mansion’s intention.

However, Amadi was his friend and the younger head of Star Mansion.

It was also understandable for him to use his relationship with David to develop and grow Star Mansion.

To be honest, David would not object to this.

Didn’t he work hard to train just so he could protect the people around him and help his relatives and friends?

Amadi was also one of his friends.

David’s request was simple.

As long as Star Mansion did not do things that would allow them to make personal gains to the detriment of others and commit outrageous acts, it would be fine to David.

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2337

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2337-After saying goodbye to Amadi, David went to the place where Alba lived.

It was also in the VIP area of the Iridescent Sect which was not far from Amadi.

Alba did not have as many problems as Amadi.

Many forces in Star Kingdom knew the relationship between the Fellowes family and David.

Basically, no force would dare to cross the Fellowes family.

She came to David because she was too lazy to listen to the grandmaster of the Fellowes family.

Ever since David killed Blue the Deity from the Feather family and saved the entire Star Kingdom, his strength has also been exposed to the public.

This was a true Deity!

David's strength was not as simple as an ordinary Deity.

After that, the Fellowes family's grandmaster kept nagging in Alba's ear, asking her to meet David to catch up on the old days, and while she was at it, she should strengthen her relationship with David.

As time went on, Alba had no choice but come to the Iridescent Sect.

Of course, this was what it looked like on the surface.

In reality, deep down in her heart, she also wanted to meet David.

This man was so incomprehensible.

When facing the Lightfoot family in the Central Sacred Continent, David asked her to buy him time.

And now, he managed to kill a Deity from a level 9 civilization in seconds.

This difference was too big!

If she had not witnessed David's rise this entire time, Alba would have suspected that David had hidden his strength from the beginning.

As she was facing this mysterious man with terrifying strength, Alba would be lying if she said she was not intrigued.

All the women who had met and interacted with David were tempted by him. Moreover, after being with David for such a long time, when Alba looked at other men, she figured none of them could compare to David.

Just like the people who had seen phoenixes. Would they still be interested in chickens?

Alba was also self-aware. She knew that she and David were not from the same world, and she had tried hard to forget David and accept other men. Despite this, everytime she met another young man, she could not help but compare David to him.

The conclusion would always be that they were miles apart.

Calling them as different as heaven and earth was already very flattering to the other party.

Compared with David, these excellent men in Star Kingdom were garbage, or even worse than garbage.

If she had no chance to end up with David, Alba felt that she would not fall in love with any man.

If she could be by David's side, even as a maid, she would be willing to give up everything she had now, even her status as the heir of the Fellowes family.

The quote 'A glance at David would ruin one's views on romantic relationships' still held true from Earth, to the Milky Way, and then to Star Kingdom.

Alba was taken aback at first by David's surprise visit, but she soon got used to it.

After all, she had been with David for a long time so she knew David quite well and she also knew that David was not the kind of person who would forget his roots.

She was not quite the same as Amadi.

David is very comfortable chatting with Alba.

They were like two old friends who had not seen each other for a long time.

Although Alba had some restraints, she was much better than Amadi.

The two chatted for a while before David left under Alba's reluctant eyes.

At the last moment, Alba still failed to say that she wanted to follow David.

Even so, with David's IQ, how could he not know what Alba had in mind?

However, since the other party did not say anything, he certainly would not take the initiative to reveal the matter.

Would he be causing more trouble for himself?

The relationship they had right now was the best.

They were closer than ordinary friends, but they were not lovers.

If Alba made it clear, David was afraid that if he refused, the two parties would not even be friends anymore.

After all, women were thin-skinned.

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2338

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2338-David ended up the way he was today because he did not want to hurt anyone.

He did not know how to deal with the relationship between the women. It could be said that those women were all women that David was not willing to hurt.

The same went for Alba.

Had it not been for her help, it would be unknown whether David could get to where he was now.

Even if he could, it would take a very long time.

If that were the case, the outcome of the incident with Azul might have changed.

In short, the situation would not be as good as it was now.

Star Kingdom might have ended up in the hands of the Feather family.

It would definitely not be like how it was now where David had the strength of a partial Overlord and could kill the grandmaster of the Feather family if he came.

Star Kingdom was already invincible, and David was a man who knew how to be grateful.

He would never forget Alba's kindness.

So, no matter what request she had, as long as she put it forward, he would try his best to meet it.

It was a pity that Alba did not say anything.

Otherwise, after more comprehensive considerations, Celia's team would probably increase by one more person.

Before going to The Spirit Cage, David publicly stated that he and Amadi, the younger head of Star Mansion, were old acquaintances.

Even if it was a simple sentence and he did not even show his face, it had completely solved the current predicament of Star Mansion.

At the same time, they became the darling of Star Kingdom, second only to the Iridescent Sect and the Fellowes family.

Now, who in Star Kingdom would not want to have a little connection with David?

They did not need much. Just a little would benefit them endlessly.

However, there were only three forces that could confirm their relationship with David.

Of course, David living in seclusion in the Iridescent Sect was enough proof. That left the Fellowes family and Star Mansion.

These two forces were bound to become behemoths, and even the six Sacred Saints' forces in Star Kingdom dared not provoke them.

No, it should be the five major Sacred Saints' forces since one of them was killed by Blue.

Amadi got the result he wanted. So, he went to the sacred place where David lived in seclusion and muttered, "David, thank you! It is my blessing to know you. When I take over Star Mansion, I will definitely do more good deeds to benefit mankind and I will never let you down."

After speaking, he turned around and prepared to leave the Iridescent Sect to return to Star Mansion.

However, David's voice reached his ears.

"Amadi, I feel relieved that you can say that. You are my friend so no matter how my strength and status change, this relationship will never change. If you need anything, please feel free to come to me. Of course, you can come talk to me too even if you don't need anything."

"Thanks!"

Amadi left.

What would greet him soon would be the highest-standard reception of Star Mansion, as even the grandmasters would all come out for him.

From the moment David uttered the words, Amadi's status in Star Mansion became even higher than that of the grandmasters.

The moment he was strong enough, the seniors of Star Mansion would be dying to have Amadi as the head.

Master David personally said that he and Amadi were old acquaintances.

What did that mean?

To put it plainly, Amadi was David's friend, so if any of them dared to bully him, they would have to ask for David's permission.

Just one sentence.

As long as David was around, Amadi would benefit a lot throughout his life.