

I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2348 - 2352

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2348-However, his lavish points had risen to more than 80 thousand points after half a year of accumulation.

He only needed 10 thousand more to upgrade his Body to Overlord Realm. Once achieved, his combat power in the real world would undergo earthshaking changes.

This upgrade would elevate him from a partial Overlord to a real Overlord. Even though it was just a half-step difference, in a real fight, an Overlord could destroy a partial Overlord with just a finger.

Those two were not on the same level at all.

David originally wanted to go to the main city first, but half a year has passed since his stay, so he decided to wait for a few months, collect 100 thousand lavish points, and upgrade his Body before leaving.

Ever since deterring the Wier business circle half a year ago, it had not been smooth sailing for him in the past six months.

A few major forces had come to sound David out but in the end, they were all frightened away when David displayed some of his strength. So, no one had bothered him until now.

While David was deep in thought, Pebbles turned her head suddenly and asked, "Davey, what are you thinking?"

"Uh... Nothing! I was just thinking if we should leave Wier. Most of the precious treasures here are in the hands of a few big forces and we have bought almost all of the scattered ones. If you want to continue to grow, you need treasures of better quality, which can only be bought in the main city," David came back to his senses and said.

"Davey, thank you for being so kind to me! You are always so concerned about me. It's great to meet you." The little girl showed a knowing smile.

"Since you're treating me like your big brother, I should treat you well! Be good, Pebbles, don't be so modest with me in the future or I will be unhappy," David said as he wanted to reach out and pat Pebbles' head like before.

However, he stopped halfway.

Pebbles was no longer the little girl she used to be, and this action seemed out of place.

Seeing David's hand in the air, the girl narrowed her big beautiful eyes slightly before tilting her head toward David's stilled hand.

He could feel something in his hand. David touched it lightly and quickly retracted his hand.

"I know, Davey, don't worry. I won't be so modest to you anymore because I will marry you when I grow up, so we should share everything, right?" the girl said with a smile.

Her eyes were narrowed into a crescent shape and they looked stunning.

"Uh... Hehe... Yeah!"

As soon as Pebbles said that, David felt a severe headache and could only reply with a bitter smile.

He wanted to explain the matter to Pebbles clearly, but he was afraid of hurting this adorable girl.

'Gosh!

'Pebbles is about 15 or 16 years old now, so why can't she remember where her home is?

'Or does she not have a home and was abandoned?

'That would be troublesome.

'No one will have the heart to abandon such a cute little girl, right?

'Could it be that something happened at home?'

David had no idea why Pebbles would be reduced to stealing in Sole.

Perhaps only the person involved knew the truth of the matter.

"Davey!" The girl called out suddenly.

“Huh? What’s the matter?” David wondered.

“No matter how I change in the future, I will always be your Pebbles. So, please don’t be alarmed, okay? And don’t ignore me, okay?” The little girl looked at David and said seriously.

When David heard that, he wondered, ‘Could it be that Pebbles remembered her past?

‘Otherwise, she won’t say something like that out of the blue. f

He looked at Pebbles and when he saw the sincerity on her face, he answered, “Okay! Pebbles, don’t worry, no matter what changes you have in the future, you will still be Davey’s Pebbles and this will not change in the slightest.”

“Davey, you are so nice! I am so blessed to have met Davey.”

The little girl happily finished speaking and continued to inch closer to David.

After she got closer, she tilted her head and gently leaned on his shoulder. However, since Pebbles was only about 15 or 16 years old, she was not tall enough to rest her head on David’s shoulder.

David did not stop her either.

The girl would always nuzzle against him and even wanted to hold him when she was sleeping, so this was normal for her.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2350-Usually, after David left, Pebbles would be waiting for him at home.

However, not this time.

Shortly after David left, the girl took out a piece of paper in the room and began to write. She soon filled the entire page.

After that, she put the paper she wrote on the table and placed a cup on top of it.

Pebbles surveyed the room carefully, a look of reluctance in her eyes.

She decided to be resolute.

Immediately after that, she moved and disappeared from the room.

Only two crystal-clear drops of tears were left, which fell on the table.

When Pebbles reappeared, she was standing on top of the tree on the hilltop where she often came with David.

As she looked at the endless forest in the distance, Pebbles muttered to herself, "Davey, Pebbles is leaving. Thank you for taking care of me during this time. If possible, I want to stay by your side, but I still have very important things to do, and if I don't go, it may not be long before you will be implicated too, Davey.

"I want you to be safe all the time and live happily. I hope that one day we can meet in Leila. Perhaps at that time, you will be surprised! But Davey, you promised me that no matter what kind of changes I have in the future, you will not change how you feel toward me in the slightest. I will still be your Pebbles."

At that moment, the power hidden in the girl's body began to burst out and fill her tiny body.

In fact, Pebbles had been holding back for several days now. She could already release this power hidden in her body a few days ago.

She knew that David would leave every eight or ten days.

So that was why she waited until now. It was because she did not want to bid farewell to him in person.

At that time, she was afraid that she would be reluctant to leave.

The huge strength caused a painful look on her face. Thus, she kept clenching her teeth and persevering.

Slowly, with the strength spreading to every corner of her body, a faint shadow appeared behind the girl.

She was wearing a lady's armor, revealing part of her supple snow-white skin.

She was wearing a crown and holding a long green sword.

She looked extraordinarily soldierly.

On the most central continent of Leila, there were five statues, tens of thousands of feet high.

One of them was exactly the same as the shadow behind Pebbles.

And this statue represented someone.

Someone who the creatures in Leila adored.

Not only that, but she was also one of the beliefs of all Leila's beings.

Without exaggeration, the status of this person in the hearts of all Leila's creatures was much higher than David's status in Star Kingdom.

She was one of the five rulers of Leila.

Empress Elora.

An Overlord who had lived for tens of thousands of epochs.

When the shadow behind Pebbles was visible, it suddenly dissipated and turned into specks of starlight, merging into Pebbles' body.

At the same time, countless memories frantically flooded into Pebbles' mind, combining with the fragments of scenes she already recalled, to form a complete memory.

From how she grew up and became an Overlord, to becoming one of the five Leila Rulers.

To her fight with the Robotias, being attacked by the Soul Devourers, and getting seriously injured.

Then, finally abandoning her body to gain a chance at life, and pouring the remnants of her soul into the Emerald Lotus Sword so that it could escape with her.

The memory appeared to her in The Spirit Cage and her instinct told her to find useful treasures to eat.

Then, she met David.

It seemed that the energy of this person was of great help to her growth.

Therefore, she attached herself to him every day and refused to leave, even for a second.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2349-The two leaned against each other like this, quietly waiting for the passage of time.

Seeing that it was getting dark, David spoke.

“Pebbles, it’s getting dark, let’s go back.”

“Let’s stay a little longer, Davey! I don’t want to go back yet,” Pebbles replied.

David smiled wryly upon hearing this.

It was as if they would part ways after they went back.

Except when David returned to the real world, the two were almost inseparable.

However, since the girl made a request, David had to fulfill it.

Anyway, the night had no effect on them.

“Davey, you clearly know that I remember something from the past, why don’t you ask me?” The girl asked David as she leaned closer.

“Didn’t I tell you last time? That I won’t ask questions like this in the future and you shouldn’t think about it either. It will be best if you can remember it yourself. Don’t be afraid if you can’t remember too because I will always support you,” David replied.

“Davey, you are so nice! I did remember a lot during this time but it is not complete. I always feel that there is something important I should do, but I still can’t remember what it is. I am so annoyed.”

“Then don’t think about it. There is God’s will in everything. When it’s time for you to remember, you will naturally remember, but when you can’t, it’s useless to try. You might even fall into anxiety and pain instead. So, just let it all come naturally!”

“Okay! Davey, I see. When I remember everything, I will tell you and won’t hide anything from you.”

“It’s okay! It doesn’t matter whether you tell me or not. I just want you to live a good life. Nothing else is important.”

Two months later, David’s lavish points reached the 100 thousand mark again.

He first went to Thor and Beanie to say they would leave Wier in a few days to go to the nearest main city.

At the same time, he also asked if they would like to go.

The two of them naturally had no opinion.

Being able to follow David was their greatest blessing, so wherever their master went, of course, they would.

Since they were willing to follow, David asked the two to prepare.

Then, he informed Pebbles before he went back to the real world to upgrade his Body.

After two months, Pebbles was about 16 or 17 years old.

Her physical changes were also increasing.

David genuinely could not take it anymore. On Earth, a 16 or 17-year-old like Pebbles would be an adult and a young woman soon.

Still, she would bury herself in his arms every day. How would he explain to outsiders if they saw this?

The girl did not care at all, but David cared!

He was only in his twenties. What would he look like holding a 16 or 17-year-old Pebbles in his arms?

For a long time, David did not dare go out with Pebbles.

Even if he went out, he would run as fast as he could to a place on the mountain where no one was around.

David had a plan.

After he upgraded his Body and came back, he would make sure to talk with Pebbles.

She could no longer nestle in his arms every day whenever she wanted.

A young woman should behave like a young woman.

It only took two years for Pebbles to go from a 7 or 8-year-old girl to a 16 or 17-year-old young woman.

One could even say that David raised Pebbles.

In two years, they spent more than 90% of their time together.

They were only away from each other for one or two months.

Everytime David returned to the real world, he would return in two or three days at most, sometimes in one day.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2351-In fact, Pebbles gained more benefits from attaching herself to David every day than she gained from eating treasures.

With only a wisp of her soul remaining, she needed the right time, place, and people to be able to grow to this level in such a short period.

Among them, the one who played the biggest role was David.

Or rather, David's soul body.

If Pebbles had not met David, she would not have grown to where she was today even with an infinite supply of treasures of heaven and earth.

Celeste's soul power skyrocketed because she had strayed into a fantasy with David and had soul contact.

It had far exceeded the strength of her Eternal Realm late Sovereign Rank, and that was why she could cultivate her soul power to the limit.

However, Celeste's realm was still very low, so the benefits of a strong mind power had not yet emerged.

Once she broke through peak Sovereign Rank, she would know how difficult it was for others to cross the astronomical barrier from Eternal Realm to Saint Realm, but how easy it would be for her with powerful soul power.

Starting from Saint Realm, the strength of one's soul power would determine future achievements and heights.

As long as they had strong enough soul power, there would be no such things as obstacles.

Therefore, The Spirit Cage, a place that could strengthen the soul power, became the second world.

Countless people were scrambling to enter and make a better future for themselves.

Not just humans.

Even other races wanted to go in.

Celeste had soul contact with David, which then made her soul power soar. Meanwhile, Pebbles clung to David every day and would burrow into David's arms. Moreover, she would even sleep in David's arms. Since both of them had soul bodies, this was also regarded as soul contact.

Therefore, one could imagine the benefits for Pebbles.

The Spirit Cage was like a huge fantasy that would accommodate the souls of countless creatures.

David and Pebbles were just two of them.

It was the combination of the benefit she got from being with David all the time and the countless treasures of heaven and earth that David prepared for Pebbles that enabled her to grow so fast.

Otherwise, nobody knew how many years she would need to grow to be 16 or 17 years old.

After David's mind power broke through to Overlord Realm, she especially felt her body recovering rapidly with every moment in David's arms.

Of course, this was just the beginning.

If she wanted to return to her peak, there was still a long, long way to go.

After all, it was not that easy to recover the soul power of an Overlord.

After the energy in her body was stimulated and absorbed, Pebbles' body grew again.

She started talking to herself once more.

"Davey, my name is Elora! But I still think the name you gave me sounds nicer. I really want to be Pebbles all the time and let Elora die in that battle."

After she said that, she paused for a second before continuing,

"Unfortunately,

this is impossible! The Robotias and the Soul Devourers have teamed up to attack Leila. I must report this as soon as possible and prepare everyone.

Otherwise, the consequences may be very serious. If that happened, the lives of countless races and creatures in Leila will be threatened. Davey, you will also be in danger. You have protected me for so long, so I will protect you in the future, Davey, I'll see you in Leila in the future!"

After Pebbles finished speaking, her body turned into a ray of light and sped towards the main city, Amber City.

In the blink of an eye, she disappeared and her speed was shocking.

Although her memory was restored and she knew her name and identity, her soul power was far from the peak, so she could not even leave The Spirit Cage.

She needed more and more precious treasures of heaven and earth to recover some more.

At least, she needed to restore her soul power until she could leave The Spirit Cage and return to the real world.

Facing the combined sneak attack of the Robotias and the Soul Devourers, she self-detonated to seek a chance at life.

The most difficult time was now over.

This time, Elora made the right bet.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2352-However, matters were far from over. She must return to the real world as soon as possible and pass the news to Sylvio and the other four Overlords.

So that they could lead Leila in defending themselves lest they are caught off guard by the Robotias and the Soul Devourers.

The Robotias and the Soul Devourers could never have imagined that Elora would recover in such a short time after being ambushed and self-destructing, leaving only a wisp of her soul.

According to their guess at the time, even if Elora did not die, it would take more than ten thousand years for her to wake up.

Even if the other rulers found her, she would still need more than a hundred years to wake up with the help of the four Overlords.

This period was enough for them to launch their plan.

As Leila's enemy for many years, the Robotias certainly knew of The Spirit Cage's existence.

However, they never thought that a sword could send the remnants of Elora's soul into The Spirit Cage so that it could grow.

Coincidentally, she also met David, the guy who owned a system from the God Tier Civilization.

Perhaps it was all kinds of coincidences or maybe it was God's will that created the current situation.

In short, Elora spent two years mobilizing her backup plan and restoring all her memories.

Next, she would go to the eight main cities of The Spirit Cage to collect the most precious treasures of heaven and earth. After taking them, she would strengthen her soul power, leave The Spirit Cage, return to the real world, and spread the news of the collusion between Robotias and the Soul Devourers so that she could face the upcoming crisis in Leila with Sylvio and the others. Elora wanted to protect all of Leila's creatures, which was also her responsibility as an Overlord.

At the same time, she also wanted to protect her Davey!

David sat quietly inside the secret room in the Iridescent Sect in Star Kingdom.

The clothes on his body were all soaked.

He was gritting his teeth in severe pain.

It was very torturous for him whenever he needed to upgrade to a new realm.

Fortunately, he was used to it and was mentally prepared.

David had also accepted this.

He knew that because of the system, he would not encounter any obstacles.

As long as he had enough lavish points, he could break through and never fail. So, it was only right for him to bear some pain.

Not long after, David suddenly opened his eyes.

His Overlord energy involuntarily spread out, causing the entire Star Kingdom to buzz.

It was as if such a powerful person should not be in Star Kingdom.

All creatures living in Star Kingdom felt fear in the depths of their souls.

David opened his eyes and immediately withdrew his energy.

After he stood up, he found his clothes soaked.

So, he moved his body slightly and his clothes dried automatically.

David turned on the system to check.

One hundred thousand lavish points disappeared.

His Body had been raised from Ancestral level 10 to Supreme level 1.

Now, both his Body and Mind had reached Overlord Realm.

Now, he was a true Overlord.

David did not expect to reach Overlord Realm before going to level 9 civilization, Leila.

Even if he did not know the specific situation of Leila, he could guess.

There would not be too many Overlords.

After all, the strongest person in the Blue family was only an Ancestral Deity.
