Chapter 9: Dorje Subduing Demon

"Both the east and the west courtyard are Jiang Mansion's properties. Your east courtyard is declining and short-handed at the moment. Many industries have been affected by this situation and they are making much less revenue now. In the end it's your Jiang Mansion that will be troubled. That's why I am here. I am trying to help you take care of the business." Jiang Chen saw Li Hong's cheeky face as soon as he passed through the crowd. Li Hong totally ignored Fan Tu's angry

On their way back, Fan Tu couldn't let his loss go and nally said to Jiang Chen, "Young Lord, it's no big deal that Li Hong's state has been greatly enhanced. However, it looks he has learnt a very powerful palm method! I don't think I can match it." "Take it easy. His palm method isn't that frightful. Steward Fan, I'll teach you a set of st methods which can secure your victory seven days from now."

I will start to practice seriously, too. What Jiang Chen had been doing was only to recover his meridians, but at the time, he was going to practice a method for real.

and store it in the body.

He had some better options. Besides, practicing a method didn't have so many requirements as practicing a secret method did. All methods aim to take in the spirits of the universe. There are only differences in characters. Those characters are obedience, willingness, pillage, and devouring. The obedience is the most popular. Most of the methods will teach you how to communicate with the spirits of the universe,

The pillage is easy to understand as well. It means whether the spirits are willing or not, you'll take them in by pillage.

The voluntary is more powerful. This character will attract the spirits of the universe to come to you voluntarily.

The devouring is the most powerful and the least popular. It's quite similar to the pillage. But the pillage is such a bossy method that the spirits gotten from it are not pure enough. As a result, there will be risks as time passes.

But the devouring is different. No matter if the spirits are pure or not, the devouring will convert them to pure genuine Qi

The character differences of these four methods are correspondent with four levels in the Nine Heavens Continent, which are sky, earth, black and yellow. The obedience is the yellow level and the devouring is the sky level.
