

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2295

Married at First Sight Chapter 2295-After the kiss, Elisa gently touched Remy's face, and asked softly, "Are you still angry?"

Remy planted another delicate kiss on her face, "After knowing that Young Master Bucham has found the destined girl, I am relieved, but I am still scared, you should give me some warmth and make me calm down."

Elisa smiled, "I'll give you a gift and a kiss, isn't that warm enough?"

Pressing her head against his chest, he smiled lowly: "It's warm."

Shouldn't something like this happen in the future, and if it happens a few more times, I'll be scared to have a heart attack.

We want to get engaged as soon as possible, and then hold a sensational engagement banquet in Wiltspoon, which will be more lively than the engagement banquet between Callum and Camryn."

Elisa responded meekly: "Then I'll wait for you to give me a sensational engagement banquet in Wiltspoon."

Soon, she left his arms and asked him, "Are you busy? You go first, and I'm going back to the company too."

Remy pulled her back again and hugged her, "Come here, stay with me, I don't even have the mind to deal with business."

His wife was almost gone, so he didn't have the mind to deal with business.

"Let's have dinner together in the evening, and then let's go to two movies?" Elisa also knew that Remy was frightened, and it was not enough just to give gifts.

She decided to take Remy to two movies tonight.

Remy: "Okay, you arrange it."

Looking at the gift from Elisa, Remy whispered, "You bought coat, shirt and tie for me, why didn't you buy me a pair of trousers?"

Elisa: "You haven't even looked through the clothes in the bag."

Hearing what she said, Remy let go of her, then picked up the bag to look through it, and found the new one she bought for him in the bag.

It's bright red.

Remy: "...It's all red?"

He never wore red.

In the past, when he was young, his mother bought it for him. When he was in his birth year, the clothes his mother bought for him were mainly red, whether it was the coat or the bottom.

He was very resistant to red, and then he made up his own mind.

But every time his birth year comes, his mother would still buy him a lot of red clothes. He had never touched those red clothes, and they were still in the bottom of the box.

At this moment, when he saw that the woman he loved bought him a new one for the first time, the color was actually red, and it was all red.

It made Remy suspect that it was his mother who said something in front of Elisa.

"Don't you like red? I think the road of love between us has not been going very smoothly this year, so I bought red clothes to wear."

Remy: "...Wearing red clothes can improve luck?"

Elisa's beautiful eyes flickered, she didn't speak, she just laughed.

Remy: "I seem to have seen a ghost movie, saying that wearing red clothes is easy to attract ghosts."

Now it was Elisa's turn to be stunned, and she asked: "Really? Wearing red clothes is easy to attract ghosts? I really like red, it's bright red, it's very dazzling and beautiful, look at my car, everyone likes to buy red ones."

When Elisa came out, she liked to drive a red sports car.

Remy: "That's a lie, but I don't like red old bottoms. Other things are red, which is barely acceptable. I don't like red for the underwear I wear on my body."