

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1249

Chapter 1249 As time passed, David and the gang ended their travels and went back to the Royal Palace. The state banquet was in three days. As the princess, Astrid had to attend the state banquet.

Empress Gamora also summoned her over during these two days to make various preparations.

David could finally relax.

He would drink tea in the courtyard every day. At the same time, he would release his mind power to scan the new powerhouses arriving on Planet Royal. There were a lot of powerhouses on Planet Royal these few days.

The rarely-seen Infinity Rankers all showed up on Planet Royal.

Of course, there were also a lot of Cosmo and Celestial Rankers.

David could even detect a lot of peak Infinity Rankers.

It seemed that the empire was going to do something to the Sangruil Sinners.

However, this was expected. The Sangruil Sinners just started to infiltrate the empire, so the empire should use this opportunity to eliminate this crisis before it could worsen. If they dragged this on, it would be difficult once the Sangruil Sinners infiltrated too many forces.

There might even be a split again.

Of course, the empire did not want to see this.

In David's honest opinion, if the empire and Sangruil previously both consisted of humans, and if their war was not too large in scale and did not cause countless casualties, he would not care about it.

However, those fellas from Sangruil abandoned their identities as humans and became monsters so that they could win. David could not stand this at all.

It would not be good if humans in the Milky Way were dominated by a bunch of monsters.

Plus, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan ate humans. Since Sangruil were granted their power, they must have promised to provide humans to the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan as food.

David could not tolerate this.

After all, he was also human.

How could he watch his fellow humans become food for other races? Sorry, but David could not do that. Therefore, even if he almost fought Nimbus, he would not hesitate to take action if the empire were in danger and it was within his power.

However, he would only do what was within his power. If the Nine-Headed Serpents sent someone at Eternal Realm, David would hide and run away as fast as he could.

He would then eliminate these foreign races when he was strong enough to avenge the humans.

One day until the state banquet.

David sat in the courtyard. When he was about to take a sip of his tea, he stopped suddenly. His teacup stopped by his lips but he did not drink it. A few seconds later, David came to his senses and took a sip before putting the cup down. "David, what happened? Do you feel unwell?" Mia saw David pausing and asked. "No, I just remembered something interesting," David said with a smile. He used his mind power to sense something unusual in the Royal Palace.

The entire Milky Way was saying Emperor Nimbus was the strongest person in the Milky Way and he was the only one at partial Eternal Realm.

However, just now, David found that there was another person at partial Eternal Realm inside the Royal Palace aside from Emperor Nimbus. 'Interesting. How interesting!' As expected of an empire that had ruled the Milky Way for so many years. It was so good at keeping secrets. Truly, no other force could compete with its history. There were two people at partial Eternal Realm. David might be at a disadvantage if he had to fight them.

However, David had never fought them before so he did not know where his limit lay. He did not have a clear understanding of his strength. He had three top combat skills, and they were trained all to perfection. Plus, he had an Evil Splitting Sword that could slash through all evil in the universe. David, who was at partial Eternal Realm now, badly wanted to find an opponent who was at the same level as him to duel them unrestrainedly and carefreely.

However, he never got this chance. He could always defeat his opponents in seconds, so there was no suspense at all. "What is it?" Mia asked curiously.

Chapter 1250 “You will know soon. If I’m not wrong, the state banquet this time won’t be boring. There should be drama unfolding.”

‘Drama?’

Mia was dumbfounded.

David still wants to watch drama unfolding during the state banquet?

‘He offended His Majesty. Shouldn’t he run as far away from Planet Royal as possible while His Majesty doesn’t have the time to think about us during the state banquet?’

‘If not, His Majesty will surely come for us when he has free time after the banquet.’

After all, David scolded His Majesty. ‘No one in the Milky Way dares to do that. David is the first person who can successfully live for so long after insulting His Majesty.’ If Princess Astrid did not show up in time, Mia suspected that might have already died. Mia was also so scared that her clothes were drenched with her sweat. However, David was still indifferent and had not been nervous at all. He did not realize the seriousness of the matter. Mia did not understand David. ‘Is he stupid? Even so, he knows and understands everything.’

‘Is he smart? However, he’s so stubborn on some things and refuses to think from another perspective.’

David could have given in and briefly recounted his experience to the emperor to get through the situation. At the same time, he could also get on the emperor’s good side 1

However, he insisted on going against the emperor and making him mad. Wasn’t he asking for trouble? “David, I have a suggestion,” Mia blurted out. “What is it?”

“I think we shouldn’t go to the state banquet tomorrow. Instead, we should leave Planet Royal during the banquet when His Majesty doesn’t have time to care about us. If not, we won’t be able to leave after the state banquet.”

David was in between laughter and tears after he heard what Mia said.

How should he explain to Mia that he was not scared of Nimbus? On the contrary, he wanted to have a duel with Nimbus to see where his limit was.

Mia would not believe him.

Not a single person would believe him, let alone her.

After all, the emperor’s prestige was etched in everyone’s heart. In everyone’s heart, Emperor Nimbus was the strongest person in the Milky Way, and no one could defeat him. "Mia, do you think I am an idiot?" David asked. "Huh? What are you saying? How are you an idiot? If you are an idiot, it means there aren't any smart people in the universe," Mia shrieked to show how affirmative she was. However, she was murmuring to herself on the inside.

'You're not an idiot, but you are stubborn.

'You refuse to think from another perspective sometimes

'Aside from this, there's nothing else wrong with you.' "You should believe me since I'm not an idiot. No matter what I do, you should support me because I have my reasons and consideration for everything I do. Perhaps you won't understand now, but I believe you will soon." David said earnestly.

Mia looked at David.

She felt that he looked serious and did not look like he was joking at all. "Alright, maybe I'm just overthinking.'

Even though she was still confused about what benefits David could gain by offending the emperor, the strongest person in the Milky Way, since David said this, it means he must know something. Therefore, she did not need to remind him of anything.

She just needed to focus on her job.

"Since you have thought this through, I won't worry about you anymore. No matter what you do in the future, I will support you unconditionally and I won't question you," Mia answered.

"That's more like it."

A smile appeared on David's face.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1251

Chapter 1251 In the deep part of the Royal Palace, Wilfred suddenly felt as if a pair of eyes were staring at him.

However, when he tried to detect it again, he found nothing.

'What's going on?' Wilfred was curious.

He had cultivated a special combat skill, so his detection ability was very strong.

At the very least, his perception was better than Nimbus', another person at Eternal Realm.

This feeling of being watched would not be appear without reason. 'Have the Sangruil Sinners infiltrated Planet Royal?' Wilfred wondered in shock 'It's possible!

"This is not good. I have to tell Nimbus so he can be prepared.

'The state banquet tomorrow might not go peacefully. 'The Sangruil Sinners might act at the state banquet tomorrow. 'Moreover, the other party has noticed me, while I didn't get the chance to detect the other person so I don't know how strong they are.' Wilfred realized the seriousness of the situation. 'This person could not only infiltrate Planet Royal silently, but they can also go undetected while probing Planet Royal.

"This is bad!"

Wilfred immediately asked Nimbus to come over. Soon, Nimbus arrived at the secret room. He said directly, "Uncle Wilfred, why did you ask me to come in such a hurry?"

"Nimbus, you're here. Sit," Wilfred said.

"Uncle Wilfred, I am very busy. Please tell me what's going on now," Nimbus sat down and urged.

The state banquet was tomorrow and he had a lot to prepare.

He did not just have to gather all the forces for the state banquet, the entire Barlowe family also needed to offer sacrifices to Heaven. When the time came, everyone from the Barlowe family would have to attend the ceremony, including Nimbus and Wilfred who were at partial Eternal Realm.

"Nimbus, leave it to the others. I have something important to tell you." As Wilfred said this, his expression turned serious. Nimbus also noticed Wilfred's change, and his expression also became solemn.

He knew his uncle would not act this way for no reason.

"Uncle Wilfred, please tell me. I'm listening," Nimbus recomposed himself.

"Just now, I noticed someone probing the Royal Palace in secret. However, when I tried to detect who it was, I couldn't find anything," Wilfred said imposingly.

'What? Someone was probing the Royal Palace and they could avoid Uncle Wilfred's detection?

'How is that possible?'

Nimbus was beyond shocked.

“Are you sure, Uncle Wilfred?”

“Would I joke about something like this? They might have found out about me, but I don’t know anything about this person, and I don’t know how strong they are. If they can avoid my detection, I’m sure they’re not someone to take lightly. There might be trouble at the state banquet tomorrow, so you have to be prepared in case you get caught off guard.” “Uncle Wilfred, are you really unable to detect this person at all?” Nimbus asked in disbelief.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1252

Chapter 1252 Nimbus knew of Wilfred’s combat skill.

If Wilfred, someone at partial Eternal Realm, used it, it would mean that the people who could avoid detection had either surpassed partial Eternal Realm or had reached Eternal Realm. Or perhaps they had a special cloaking combat skill that surpassed Wilfred’s perception. However, how could these people appear on Planet Royal? Did the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan send them?

“I detected a small trace of them in a split second just now. However, I can’t feel them at all right now. This person has a terrifying hiding skill and they might even be in front of us right now without us knowing,” Wilfred said bitterly.

“H-How is that possible?” Nimbus murmured.

He knew what Wilfred meant by that.

This person had such a good hiding skill, so it would be as easy as pie for them to attack Nimbus and Wilfred if they wanted to. Moreover, tomorrow was the state banquet, and if this person was hiding in the crowd, they would be a huge threat.

“Nothing is impossible. There will always be someone better out there. The universe is too big, and it’s much larger than what you can imagine. The Milky Way is just an unremarkable low civilization. If I’m not wrong, this person might not be from here. Instead, they should have been sent by the Nine-Headed Serpents from the Beast Galaxy to help the Sangruil Sinners.”

“Uncle Wilfred, what should we do then? If you can’t detect them, I can’t either. As long as he is not at Eternal Realm, I won’t be scared of him if he comes forward. However, if he hides in the crowd and launches a sneak attack, I can’t do anything to stop him. Tomorrow, millions of people from the Milky Way will gather here,” Nimbus said as he felt a headache coming. He had a troubled look on his face.

“Why not cancel the state banquet for now for the sake of safety?” Wilfred suggested.

“No! I can’t do that! I announced the state banquet in the name of the Milky Way Empire’s emperor and I sent invitation cards to all the forces. Now that everyone’s here, I will be humiliated if I cancel it at the last minute. How will I show my face in public if I do that?” Nimbus immediately rejected Wilfred’s suggestion.

He knew that it would be dangerous if someone like this was hiding among the crowd at the state banquet.

However, he still had to go through with it even if he was aware of this threat.

The Milky Way Empire had been thriving in the Milky Way for so many years and it had experienced all kinds of crises.

The empire could not afford to stand up all the forces in the Milky Way because of a possible threat.

Furthermore, even if the person was indeed here to attack Nimbus, he would still not cancel the state banquet over this. Wilfred knew it would be unrealistic to ask Nimbus to cancel the state banquet. He was the empire’s uncle and the previously chosen one of the Barlowe family. Hence, he understood he could not sully the glory of the family. Therefore, he stopped advising Nimbus.

Instead, he said, “Since you don’t want to cancel the state banquet, you should be careful. You must keep an eye out for any suspicious people. Plus, you must protect yourself and prevent them from attacking you in secret. I will also help you from the side. You have to take this person down the moment you find them. It doesn’t matter if you catch them dead or alive.” “Thank you, Uncle Wilfred. I will be careful.”

“I am also a Barlowe, so I understand why you’re doing this.”

“Uncle Wilfred, I’ll get going now. Can you please work harder to see if you can find this person before the banquet?”

Wilfred tried again and again to find any traces of David.

He hoped to find David before the banquet tomorrow.

However, how could Wilfred find David since he had the system helping to hide him?

David sat in the courtyard.

When his mind power detected Wilfred, he knew Wilfred had also detected him.

In order to avoid exposing himself, he retracted his mind power and removed all traces of himself.

With this, it would be impossible for Wilfred to find him.
