Chapter 1305

The person who pushed Mason away and blocked Harlan's punch for him was none other than Selena, who had been behind him.

As the strongest person on Earth other than David, Selena was in charge of protecting Earth when David was not around. Therefore, she would not watch Mason get killed and do nothing.

If not, how would she explain to David when he came back?

She knew she was not Harlan's opponent, but she had to do something.

Despite blocking Harlan's casual strike, Selena suffered quite a heavy injury.

Harlan even lessened his force at the last minute after seeing that his target had changed.

The two were one realm apart, so even if Harlan did not use his full force, Selena still could not resist a casual strike.

Harlan frowned and looked at Selena who got hurt because of him. He said, "Do you have a death wish, sweet cheeks? If I didn't reduce my force just now, you would be severely injured even if you didn't die. It'll be such a pity for a beautiful lady like you to die just like that."

Mason came back to his senses and flew next to Selena quickly.

"Miss King, are you okay?"

"Old Master Stefani, I'm fine. I can still hold on," Selena answered.

"The only reason you can hold on is that I didn't use full force. If not, a beginner Satellite like you is nothing in front of me. Killing you is just like killing an ant."

"I don't need pity from despicable aliens like you!" Selena wiped the blood off the corner of her mouth and retorted. She did not show Harlan any respect at all.

"You're pretty feisty, sweet cheeks. You can't be like that when you're with me."

"Pah! You're a scumbag and a loser! I, Selena King, would rather die than go back with you. You should give up that thought!" Selena cursed. 1

When she saw how the aliens looked at her, Selena knew what they were thinking.

She also knew how attractive her looks and body were to men.

Unfortunately, that boring guy, David, did not understand this at all, and he was completely blind to her advantages.

“So your name is Selena. Haha! What a brilliant name for a brilliant woman. Not bad! From now on, you will be my maid. Your daily task will be to serve me,” Harlan laughed lewdly.

“You’re shameless!”

Selena glared at Harlan with her beautiful eyes. Her face was red from anger.

Harlan, the pervert, was drooling after he saw that.

“Let’s take action now, guys. Leave Selena to me and catch the others. If anyone dares to fight back, you can just kill them. You’ll be able to relax after you’re done here. I’m sure there are a lot of beautiful women on this planet. We can’t have come here in vain, right?” Harlan yelled.

He could not wait to have Selena.

Even if Harlan had slept with a lot of women using his identity as the direct descendant of the Busch family, he had never met a woman on Selena’s level.

Even if he met one, he was not able to have her.

This time, he had met a beauty on a remote indigenous living planet, so Harlan could not control himself anymore.

“Yes, Master Harlan.” The dozens of bounty hunters showed excited expressions.

Of course, they knew what Harlan meant by ‘relax’. It meant they could have all the fun they wanted.

Even though they would not get a chance with Selena, whom the master fancied, they figured there were still a lot of other beautiful women on this planet.

When they were about to take action per Harlan’s orders, and Mason and the other powerhouses were about to fight to the death, countless guided missiles came from all directions. Some of them attacked the black-horned ships while some flew straight at the dozens of bounty hunters that were at Planet Rank and above.

As Harlan and the others saw the guided missiles, they curled their mouths into disdainful smirks.

The people with the lowest rank among them were all Planet Rankers, so would they be scared of these toys?

Even if they were hit, it would be not different from tickles. It would not hurt them in the slightest. Not to mention the black-horned ships. The guided missiles would not even penetrate their defense.

Boom boom boom boom boom!

Countless explosions could be heard, and the scene was shrouded with heavy smoke.

At the same time, a lot of fighter jets appeared around them.

When the smoke dissipated, the dozens of black-horned ships, Harlan, and the aliens were still standing there unharmed.

However, as the smoke from the explosions blocked Harlan's vision, Mason and the other powerhouses fled and escaped the circle that the dozens of aliens had surrounded them in.

Now, the two parties were confronting each other.

One side consisted of the powerhouses from Earth with Mason as their leader.

Chapter 1306

On the other side were the aliens with Harlan as their leader.

However, no matter how one looked at it, the difference in their strength was too big.

At this moment, a few people came over. They were Julia, Celia, and the others.

They were worried that Mason and Selena might be in danger, so they came here with the Somerland Fighter Jet Formation.

"Selena, are you hurt?" Celia asked in concern.

The other women showed looks of concern as well.

"I'm fine. Celia, you should take them back now. Don't show up at this place so that I won't have to waste energy protecting you all when we start fighting." Selena said nervously to Celia.

She knew the aliens did not come in peace.

The aliens might pounce on them when they saw Celia and the other pretty women.

Now, they had no chance of winning, so everyone might be in trouble.

However, Celia could not suffer any harm.

Otherwise, David would go crazy once he came back.

To be honest, Selena was too naive.

Celia was not the only one that was important to David.

All of them were equally important.

David would go crazy if something happened to any of them.

Once someone at Eternal Realm went crazy, the sky and earth would shatter. He might even crush whole planets into pieces.

"No, Selena. We want to stay with you. We can fight too," Celia rejected. This was rare coming from her.

After spending so much time with Selena, Celia had a lot of understanding about her.

Selena wanted to endure this by herself.

"Hahaha! We have so many pretty women joining us. Even if our plan failed, we didn't come here in vain!" Harlan laughed.

"Master Harlan, you said just now you'd take Selena while we can have fun with the others," one of the Stellar Ranked bounty hunters said as he stared lewdly at Celia and the others.

"Yeah, Master Harlan. You have to be a man of your word."

"Of course! I only want Selena. You can have the rest if you can catch whoever you want."

Harlan knew he could not have the women all to himself.

There were still four Stellar Ranked bounty hunters with him.

“Thank you, Master Harlan! Boys, get ready. You can have anyone you want as long as you can catch them. Hahaha!”

The dozens of bounty hunters rubbed their hands together and could not wait. They decided to capture a woman before they did anything.

At this moment, Sandy said suddenly, “Wait! Listen to me, we’ve notified Dave and he’ll be back soon.

He’s the Master of the Milky Way, so if you dare to do anything to us, he won’t spare you when he comes back. He will kill all of you!”

The noisy scene suddenly plunged into silence.

Then...

“Hahahahaha!”

Laughter resonated across the sky.

‘What did we just hear?

“Did this little girl call the Master of the Milky Way Dave?

‘Is she scared stupid?”

Even though they did not know who that person who just became the Master of the Milky Way was, there was no way he came from Earth, a planet that was on the edge of the Milky Way.

“Are you scared stupid, little girl? Come, let daddy take good care of you. You’re still a virgin right? Daddy likes girls like you.”

A Stellar Ranked bounty hunter took action after he said that. He appeared next to Sandy in a blink of an eye and extended his claw toward her.

Sandy closed her eyes from fear and screamed, “Dave, save me!”

The rest could only watch. They did not have time to react at all.

“No one can save you today! Come here, let daddy take good care of you. Hahaha!”

When his claw was only 1cm away from Sandy, it suddenly stopped.

Then, a voice that sounded like it came from hell entered everyone's ears.

"Do you think this is funny?"

When Sandy heard that voice, she opened her eyes and screamed in surprise, "Dave!"

Chapter 1307

When they heard this voice from hell, Selena, Celia, and the others all had looks of surprise on their faces.

They were very familiar with this voice.

They even dreamed of this voice when they slept at night.

They had waited so long for this voice to appear in reality.

Meanwhile, Harlan and the aliens all had looks of terror on their faces.

This was because they realized they could not move once they heard that sound.

No matter what they did, they could not escape it.

'How is this possible?

'What technique is this?"

Then, a scene that made Harlan and the other's souls leave their bodies appeared in front of them.

The space between them started moving and immediately after, a crack appeared between the two parties.

Afterward, a tall figure stepped out from the crack.

'Is this a space crack?

'Who is this person?

'How could he walk out of a space crack unharmed?

'Emperor Nimbus can't even do that.

"Wait!

'Is this...

'Was that little girl telling the truth?

'Is Master of the Milky Way David, who had just entered Eternal Real, from this planet?

'N-No way!

'Impossible!'

Even though Harlan and the others were forcing themselves to not believe this, the truth was right in front of them.

They saw this person come out of the space crack with their own eyes.

Only someone at Eternal Realm could tear open the void and travel into another space unharmed.

No one like this had existed in the Milky Way before David announced he got into Eternal Realm and become the Master of the Milky Way.

Harlan wanted to pass out right now.

He did not want to face reality.

At this moment, he could not control his body at all. He could not even kill himself, let alone pass out. When David walked out of the space tunnel, he looked around and noticed Celia and the others were still fine. They did not lose any limbs and everyone was still there, so he finally let out a sigh of relief in his heart.

It would be okay so long as everyone was fine. Everything could be discussed if that were the case.

David was terrified of something bad happening to the people he cared about.

If that happened, he would go mad.

What was the use of being at Eternal Realm if he could not protect the people most important to him?

However, at the same time, David noticed the blood stain on the corner of Selena's mouth.

He quickly went to her and asked, "Are you hurt?"

"I'm fine. It's just a minor wound," Selena answered with a smile.

She was glad that David was so concerned about her the moment he showed up.

"Who did this?" David asked with a dark face.

"David, I'm fine!"

"I asked you who did this."

Selena looked at David who had a dark and serious expression on his face. Then, she smiled understandingly and reached out a finger to point at Harlan in the distance, "Him."

At this moment, Selena felt that even if she was severely injured, it would be worth it.

David looked where Selena was pointing, and Harlan's heart sank.

Chapter 1308

Harlan wanted to say something or beg for mercy.

However, he realized he could not speak and could only show terror in his eyes.

"I risked my life to protect the Milky Way from any foreign invasions, but you sons of b*tches have the balls to come to my homeland to try to attack my family! Who gave you the courage to do so? Do you want to ask if Nimbus dares to do this?"

As the aliens listened to David's calm speech, even if they could not speak, they showed a terror through their eyes that came from the very depth of their hearts.

Judging from what David did and said, they had no doubts that they had offended the new Master of the Milky Way.

'What kind of luck is this?

'There are millions of living planets in the Milky Way and we went to the homeland of the Master of the Milky Way.'

These people cursed Harlan a million times in their hearts.

Would they come here if not for Harlan?

Meanwhile, Harlan was cursing Floyd. He even cursed Floyd's ancestors.

As for Floyd, he still could not come back to his senses.

'What kind of people did Master Pavan of the Tuffin family offend?

'Perhaps this new Master of the Milky way was responsible for the annihilation of the Tuffin family, and the Dallarosa family had only been there by chance.

David looked at everyone at the scene and continued, "I don't care who you are and I don't want to ask who your elders are. You don't need to mention them to scare me. I am the one with the supreme right to speak in the Milky Way. Now, as the Master of the Milky Way, I sentence you to death!"

After he said that, to their horror, Harlan and the Stellar Ranker who reached his hand toward Sandy noticed their hands disappearing gradually.

Starting from their fingers to their palms, and then to their arms.

The huge mental pressure from the intense pain in their body and watching their body part disappear slowly caused them reach the brink of a mental breakdown.

After their arms disappeared, their legs started to disappear as well. Then, their bodies started to slowly disappear.

When only their heads were left, they were still alive.

Everyone could still see their struggling heads and eyes that turned blood red from fear.

In just ten seconds, the two disappeared without a trace or a sound.

Not even a speck of dust was left.

The other bounty hunters from the Royal Region felt their scalps turning numb when they saw this.

The weaker ones could not handle such huge pressure, and they started to break down and hallucinate.

To David, Harlan and the Stellar Ranked bounty hunter were nothing but ants.

However, they were pretty bold. One of them dared to hurt Selena and the other dared to assault Sandy.

Even though those two women did not have any substantial relationship with David, they had a pretty high position in David's heart and were David's weakness.

At this moment, Sandy ran into David's arms and yelled excitedly, "Dave! I knew you'd save me!"

David caressed Sandy's head and said adoringly, "Of course! I will kill anyone who dares to bully you."

"Yay! Thank you, Dave!"

Sandy nuzzled against David's chest.

It was possible that she ever since she was young and the apple of the Luther family's eyes, she had been well protected by her family, so she was very innocent.

When someone was trying to assault her just now, Sandy was not scared at all. She believed that David would come back in time to save them.

Now, she was proven right.

David came back at the most critical time.

"Alright now. It's been so long since I saw you. You've grown, Sandy."

Sandy let go of David reluctantly and stood at one side with a blush on her face.

Even if she wanted to keep staying in this warm and safe hug, she knew David did not belong to her alone.

However, Sandy never thought of dominating David.

She would be happy to get a small corner of him for herself.
