

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1517

Chapter 1517

David and Celeste were blown away by Nek's sudden burst of Saint Realm energy.

They hit the wall of the room and then fell to the ground.

When they hit the wall, the entire living room shook violently.

It seemed that the wall could not bear this force, so it was a little shaky.

If it were not for the fact that the room used the highest quality materials, and there were several defensive formations engraved in it, it might have already collapsed under this powerful force.

Although David used his mind power to protect the two in time at the last moment, they were not injured, they had a tacit understanding to pretend to be seriously injured to prevent Nek from continuing to pester them.

Not only did they vomit blood, but when she got up, Celeste dragged her injured body to support David.

"Cough cough cough..." David coughed violently.

Blood kept gushing from his mouth.

In order to make him look like he was seriously injured and dying, he went all out.

David was nothing more than a beginner Ruler Ranker.

It would be unreasonable for him to suffer the same level of injury as Celeste, a Sovereign Ranker.

"David, are you... Are you alright?" Celeste asked nervously.

"C-Celeste, I... I'm fine!"

While David was talking, blood was still pouring out of his mouth.

Only then did the others in the living room realize what had happened.

As they were looking at the two people who were seriously injured, they were extremely shocked.

A Saint was indeed terrifying.

Even a Sovereign Ranker like Elder Red was seriously injured by Nek's words.

"Nek, you are in the Iridescent Sect, not at your house. What are you doing? Are you declaring battle with the Iridescent Sect?" Nova stared at Nek and questioned loudly.

"Why did you say that, Lady Dream? I made it very clear that she shouldn't insult a Saint in Star Kingdom. As the head of the Iridescent Sect, it is impossible for you not to know this! Celeste dared to call me by my name directly and even shouted at me, so she was clearly insulting me. Hence, I decided to teach her a lesson, is there any problem with that? Even if her teacher comes, I will still be in the right," Nek replied contemptuously.

He had no regrets for attacking just now.

As for accidentally affecting that young man David, Nek did it on purpose.

In his opinion, that brat did not show any signs of respect when he saw him, and since he was so familiar with Celeste, didn't that mean he was also insulting Nek?

Celeste was the woman Nek had his eyes on.

Even if she was not clean, no one else could touch her even if he did not want her now.

www

Besides, a guy like David was like an ant in his eyes.

Nek was pissed at David no matter how he looked at him, and that was why he also taught him a lesson.

"Well then, I'll also call you by your name directly. Are you going to teach me a lesson too, Nek?"

Nova was furious at that moment.

They indeed could not insult a Saint, but that also depended on the situation.

Could people with and without backgrounds receive the same treatment?

For example, a Pre-Saint Saint like Nek would definitely not dare to attack when facing the direct descendants of a Sacred Saint even if he were insulted.

Otherwise, the other party would just find an excuse to kill him.

The Iridescent Sect was supporting Celeste and she had four Saint Realm reputable elders as backers.

Therefore, it was too much for Nek to directly attack without showing any sign of respect.

Chapter 1518

“How are those things the same? How can they compare with Lady Dream? You are the head of the Iridescent Sect, and you are on the same level as me. Who is Celeste? She’s just an elder, so what qualifications does she have to call me by my name?” Nek replied casually.

“Do you know that Elder Red’s master is Eira, one of the reputable elders?”

“I know! That’s why I just taught her a little lesson, and I didn’t use my full force. Otherwise, do you think she could stand up now?”

Celeste had already walked over while supporting David.

David’s face was pale, as if he was seriously injured.

“Nek, you scoundrel! You planted a mind seed in my body to monitor me without my consent. Now that I have removed it, you dare to hurt me in the Iridescent Sect. Do you think Saints can do whatever they want? Today, I will call my Master out to see if she will allow you to mess around in the Iridescent Sect!”

Celeste gritted her teeth and glared at Nek, anger rising in her heart.

This scoundrel dared to attack so suddenly.

Not only did she get hurt, but Nek also hurt David.

No matter what happened today, she would ask her teacher Eira to come forward.

Celeste did not believe that her teacher would turn a blind eye after their extensive master-student relationship.

David felt very helpless at this time.

‘Oh, Celeste! I finally escaped the catastrophe, why did you say that?’

‘You even scolded him directly.’

'Aren't you asking for trouble by doing that?

'Since we can't beat him, can't we keep a low profile? Can't we come back when we are strong enough and fight back with ten times or a hundred times more force?

'Why do you have to trigger him?

"If this guy exerts a little more strength, my body will not be able to bear it.

'At that time, my mind power will inevitably be exposed in order to protect me."

At the same time, David heard something in Celeste's words.

It turned out that Nek left the mind seed in Celeste's body.

He glanced at Nek out of the corner of his eye and secretly remembered this guy in his heart.

Nek better not let David find a chance.

Otherwise, David would definitely avenge himself a hundredfold for what happened today, as well as the matter regarding the mind seed.

At this moment, David realized the law of the jungle in Star Kingdom, and he longed for power.

Therefore, after passing through this calamity safely, he had to spend a lot of money as soon as possible to get a lot of lavish points to improve his strength and strive to be a Saint as early as possible so that he could seek revenge on Nek.

At this time, David was ready and waiting for Nek to make another shot.

In his opinion, Celeste had scolded him to his face, so with Nek's temperament, he would definitely not bear this.

This time, it would definitely be more serious than before.

However, what David did not expect was that Nek did not make a move right away.

Instead, he looked at Celeste with an unpleasant expression, and asked in a sinister tone, "Celeste, are you looking for death?"

Facing the threat of Nek the Saint, Celeste was not afraid at all. She directly replied, "Yes, I am looking for death. Nek, kill me if you have the balls. If you don't, you are a coward. A p*ssy!"

David was speechless.

'Why is Celeste acting like a child?

'Does she not understand that he who runs away lives to fight another day?

'She continues to provoke Nek even though she knows that he is invincible. 'Only a fool would do something like this.'
