

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1577

Chapter 1577

After the boorish man said that, the three space pirates at partial Eternal Realm started to act immediately.

They wanted to break through the defense of the merchant ship so they could snatch all the valuables inside, kill the men, and capture the women.

However, at this moment, a voice resonated from afar.

“Stop!”

This unexpected voice stopped the three who were about to make a move.

They followed the sound and saw a battleship approaching rapidly.

It took only a moment for it to reach the scene.

The ship then went past the three and stopped between them and the merchant ship.

The boorish man narrowed his eyes and stared at the uninvited guest who arrived suddenly. Judging by his years of experience, this must also be another gang of space pirates. However, he had no idea who the leader of the other party was, nor how strong they were.

There was usually no communication between space pirate gangs.

If they ever do encounter each other, if there was little difference in strength between the two, they would retreat peacefully to look for their own prey.

However, if one party's strength overwhelmed the other's, the weaker one might be annexed by the stronger one.

However, this was not necessarily the case because there were some powerful space pirates regiments with hundreds or even thousands of people.

They would look down on the low-strength space pirates gangs.

Thus, they might directly kill their opponent or ignore them.

It would all depend on their mood.

The appearance of another battleship made Marlee and others temporarily breathe a sigh of relief.

She also was not sure whether the merchant ship's defense could withstand the attacks of the three partial Eternals.

If they could not, they would be doomed.

It did not matter whether the people on this new battleship were friends or foes.

At least she could delay for a little while longer.

David was sitting in the room, and he had put the little girl Peggy to bed.

When the battleship first arrived, he had already sensed the strength of the incoming people using his mind power.

'There are five partial Eternals.

'How fun!

"With the first three, now there are a total of eight partial Eternals.

'However, so what if there are more partial Eternals? I am a real Eternal myself.

'What's the difference between them and ants?

'Once I use my Eternal Golden Body, all these partial Eternals can be easily dealt with without even using a Soulbound Weapon.

'The five new partial Eternals should also be a group of space pirates."

David, who was already preparing to make a move, decided to wait.

He wanted to see how the two groups of space pirates would settle this.

If they could fight among themselves, it would be interesting.

"Guys, you're being a bit rude, don't you think? Our boys discovered this merchant ship first, and we are about to take it down. What is the meaning of this? Leave as soon as possible, or don't blame us for being merciless," the boorish man threatened the battleship in the field loudly.

As the saying goes, fortune favored the brave.

Although the boorish man still did not know the strength of the space pirates on this ship, he should not be timid in this situation.

The opponent was obviously here to snatch their prey.

If the boorish man showed any signs of weakness, the cake that was near his mouth would change hands.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1578

Chapter 1578

He was also testing the other party by saying that.

“Haha! What a joke, does it belong to you just because you found it first? I can also say that I have been watching this merchant ship for a long time, but I just haven't done anything. As for how you want to be merciless, just come at us. We will take all of your blows,” a disdainful voice came from the battleship

It seemed that the three partial Eternal Realm space pirates were not taken seriously at all.

The boorish man frowned.

Things were not going well.

The other party knew that he had three partial Eternals on his side, yet he dared to be so unscrupulous

They were not scared at all, so this was a bit troublesome.

It seemed that it was impossible for him to conquer this merchant ship today.

The first thing the boorish man should do now was to find out how strong the opponent was so he could plan for the next step.

The boorish man could be sure that the group of space pirates that suddenly appeared did not have an Eternal.

This was because space pirates at Eternal Realm would not show up in such a remote place.

They would be entrenched in places with more merchant ships, that was, around the Central Sacred Continent.

This way, they could get more benefits.

“Guys, since you’re here, why don’t you come out and meet us?” The boorish man said in a cold voice.

“You just want to see our strength, right? Your wish is my command!”

After the voice came out from the battleship, the people began to come out of it one after another.

When the full power of this group of space pirates was displayed in front of everyone, the boorish man was shocked.

Five men stood at the front.

In other words, the opponent had five partial Eternals, which was two more than his side.

Although there were only two more people, which was not too much, one more person at their level could change the outcome of the fight.

Meanwhile, there was also a team of nearly two hundred people behind the five partial Eternals.

This group of space pirates was much stronger than the boorish man’s gang, both in terms of top strength and number of members.

Marlee and others on the merchant ship were shocked.

‘Another five partial Eternals?’

“How will we fight them?”

No matter which of these two groups of space pirates won, as long as the merchant ship’s defense was broken, it would be a fatal situation for Marlee and others.

Now Marlee and the others could only hope that the group of space pirates who suddenly appeared to not annihilate them like those scoundrels just now.

Marlee would pay the other party without hesitation if they only asked for money.

Even if the other party wanted the entire ship’s cargo, she would agree.

Where there was life, there was hope.

As long as they were still alive, they would have the chance to make a comeback.

“How do you feel after seeing our strength? Did you feel a strong sense of powerlessness? Haha!” An effeminate man at the front opened the folding fan in his hand and asked with a smirk.

“I admit that you are very strong! You are stronger than I imagined, but we have put in so much effort. Just when we were about to take over this merchant ship, you showed up to snatch the fruits of our victory. Don't you think this is too much?” The boorish man said boldly.

“So what? Legitimacy belongs to the victor. Since you have admitted that you are not our opponent, why don't you just retreat obediently? Or are you waiting for us to send you to hell?”

“The boys and I were only forced to be space pirates because we were wanted for committing crimes. We have already made mental preparations! You want to send us to hell? Let's not talk about whether you can, as even if you are, are you sure you can bear the consequences?”

Now it was the other party's turn to frown.

It was five against three, so they were sure to win.

However, if those three gave their all, the effeminate man and his gang would also suffer.

After all, they were not random people but three partial Eternals.

“Then what do you want?” The effeminate man stopped smiling and asked.

The boorish man knew in his heart that the other party would not dare to kill him.

If the three of them fought to the death, they could kill one or two people from the other side. The other party did not dare to gamble this.