

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2262

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2262

Even the big families were not his match.

Did this mean things were going to change for them?

A month passed.

David had left that third-tier city a month ago.

The night he took action, the heads of the families brought Brutus and his friends to apologize to David.

To make sure that they would not offend David, they killed Brutus and his friends in front of David. Killing one person to save the entire family was a pretty good deal.

At the same time, the families gave David a lot of treasures too.

In the end, David accepted the apologies and the treasures.

Of course, he paid for the treasures.

He could not just waste the lavish points that were handed to him.

After harvesting a lot of lavish points, David took his people away the next day.

After a month of traveling, they were one step closer to their goal, the first-tier city Wier.

They were halfway into their three-month journey.

A special team was also moving forward quickly ahead of them, their direction was just opposite to David's.

That was why they were special.

It was because the entire team of seven or eight people consisted of all women.

They were also extremely beautiful.

They were comparable with Evie and the Elf women in David's team.

They were none other than Elven Queen Isa, who came to The Spirit Cage to find the Elven Princess, and her Elven Guards.

Along the way, the Elf Queen also suffered a lot of harassment.

Although they covered their ears that were special to their clan and wore veils, their unique figures were not comparable to 99.9% of human women.

Naturally, they would attract men's attention.

However, all of the men who dared to provoke Queen Isa were beaten to the point where they could no longer live a life without aid anymore.

According to the speed of the two teams, it would only take about ten days for them to cross each other.

Evie had no idea that her mother, the Elven Queen, had come to The Spirit Cage looking for her.

She was still waiting for David to send her to Amber City, one of the eight main cities of The Spirit Cage.

The Elves had a descending point there and only through Amber City could Evie return to the real world.

As the Elven Princess, Evie could not leave her clan and could only stay in the Elven Forest.

She would not be able to leave until she accepted her mother's inheritance and took over her position.

Growing up in the Elven Forest made Evie curious about the outside world.

She also knew that she should not go out.

Therefore, she sneaked into The Spirit Cage, hoping to experience a different life there.

However, unexpectedly, not long after entering The Spirit Cage, she encountered a crisis, and four of the eight maids she brought in were caught.

In the end, she was also caught.

Fortunately, after some twists and turns, Evie met David, the strange human man.

The Elf women, whom other normal men could not refuse, seemed to lose their attractiveness in front of David.

He did not seem interested in women at all and Evie had no idea if there was something wrong with him.

If this was the case, then it would be such a pity.

After all, with David's appearance and strength, he would be irresistible to women. i

Of course, none of this has anything to do with her, as Evie's identity meant that she could not have a man.