

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2265

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2265-David, who was resting in the carriage, suddenly opened his eyes.

He sensed a very powerful energy.

Although it was far away, David could still sense it.

It was the strongest energy that he's felt since arriving in The Spirit Cage.

After a moment, David closed his eyes again, choosing to ignore it.

Although he really wanted to meet the other party, he decided to forget it after thinking about it.

There was no need to start more trouble.

At this time, the fleeing birds and beasts driven away by the powerful energy of the Elven Queen reached David's location.

They crossed David's route to get away from the energy of fear and despair that filled them.

The entire ten-meter-wide path was immediately occupied by countless animals.

The advancing carriage was also too frightened to move on.

Various animal sounds of fear came from outside the carriage.

Chirp! Chirp! Squawk! Squawk! Coo! Coo!

David put Pebbles in a comfortable position. Seeing that the little girl was about to wake, he quickly comforted her, "Be good, Pebbles. Sleep by yourself for a while, Davey has something to do and I'll be back soon."

On hearing David's voice, the little girl did not wake up and continued to sleep.

After eating the treasures, she was in the process of recovering her soul so she was particularly lethargic.

David walked out of the carriage. All he could see were densely packed animals running wildly.

It seemed that something behind them was chasing them and this had become a small beast stampede.

David leaped on top of the carriage.

Beanie, Evie, Thor, and others in the two carriages behind all came out.

Everyone showed a curious look when they saw the scene in front of them.

They were too weak to feel the powerful energy.

“Master!”

“Master David!”

Seeing David, everyone greeted him politely.

David nodded in response and looked in the direction the animals fled from.

That powerful energy came from that direction.

Obviously, the animals fled so frantically because they were affected by this powerful energy.

Was the other party human or another race?

Or a more powerful beast?

If it was a beast, it was countless times stronger than the Silver Flood Dragon that had formed a Beast Crystal.

Even a Silver Flood Dragon would have no choice but to flee if it encountered this energy.

Fortunately, there were no powerful beasts in this forest.

Otherwise, their destructive power would be too great when they fled.

It was guaranteed that there would be dead bodies along the way.

Those who stood in front of them would die.

David wondered if he should go and take a look.

The path was blocked now anyway, so he could not move even if he wanted.

Then, he heard a voice.

“Master David, do you know what’s going on?” Princess Evie asked curiously.

Even Evie, who lived in the forest since she was a child, was encountering this situation for the first time.

There were also many small animals in the Elven Forest where she lived, but they had never appeared on such a huge scale.

After Evie finished asking, Beanie and the others also turned their curious gazes over.

Everyone wanted to know.

“There is a very strong energy in that direction, and I think these animals are threatened by it so they choose to escape.” David pointed to the depths of the forest behind the animals and said.

“Strong? How strong?”

“It’s hard to say! The other party is far away, so I can only vaguely feel it.” David shook his head.

He genuinely had no idea about the specific strength of the opponent.

He did not even know whether it was a human being or another race, or a beast that had no intelligence but only instinct.

Evie looked in the direction that David was pointing.

It was a pity that she was so weak that she could not feel Elven Queen Isa’s energy. Otherwise, it would be familiar to her.