I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2282-If they did not return, those old women, who had all the free time in the world, would start making trouble again.

Although Isa could exercise the rights of an Elven Queen and ignore them, those old hags could be very annoying when they started to split hairs with her.

So, Isa had to take Evie back first.

She would have the opportunity to build a good relationship with David in the future.

Evie was startled upon hearing that her behavior had aroused strong dissatisfaction among the elders in the clan.

She did not want to be lectured by the old women of the elders anymore.

Just thinking about it gave her a headache.

Ever since she was young, the elders would take Evie over and brainwash her in the name of education every once in a while. These sessions would last half a month.

It was fine when she was young as she was more innocent.

After growing up and developing a mind of her own, Evie felt that it was torture to go there.

“Mother, what did the elders say?” Evie immediately grimaced.

“You’ll find out when you get back.”

“Mother, I don’t want to go there.”

“It’s useless for you to tell me. You should go tell those old hags, but judging from the fact that you had sneaked into The Spirit Cage, they will definitely feel that they’ve failed to educate you and you will be punished severely this time. Don’t even think about coming out for a year and a half or so.”

“Ah! A year and a half? Why don’t you just kill me?” Evie let out a long sigh.

'You asked for this. All of this wouldn't happen if you hadn't sneaked in here. You reap what you sow. You should know this will happen when you made that decision. You're still considered lucky. Have you ever thought of what would happen to you if you hadn't met David? What kind of life would you face?'

"Mother, I know I was wrong, and I will never do this again."

"That's enough. Go pack. We'll talk about this when we get back," Isa ordered.

Evie and the other four women of the Elves started packing their things.

They did not have much to pack.

When David bought them, they were almost naked.

So they were done in no time.

The next thing was to say goodbye to David.

For David, handing Evie to her mother was also a solution to his worries.

After all, he promised Evie that he would send her to Amber City.

This is great!

After Evie leaves with her mother, he could go wherever he wants.

It would be so freeing to go wherever and whenever he wants.

After Evie thanked David with reluctant eyes, she followed Queen Isa and left.

Of course, before leaving, she did not forget to ask David for his contact information.

She could not just cut off contact with her savior like that.

Even if Evie agreed, her mother, Queen Isa, would not agree.

Such an outstanding young man would surely be Leila's overlord in the future, so how could she lose contact with him?

Um... No, how could she be ungrateful to him?

Evie was not strong enough so she could only be led.

Isa took Evie while the rest of the Elven Guards took Evie's maids.

The Elf women quickly disappeared from David's sight.

After saying goodbye to Evie and the others, David and others resumed their journey.

The speed of the carriages was much slower.

After more than a month of running around, without accidents along the way, the team finally arrived in Wier.

Wier was a first-level city in The Spirit Cage and it was much more prosperous than Sole.

The forces here were also much larger.

Any third-rate force could crush the Macee family of Sole.

David's arrival did not attract anyone's attention.

Countless teams entered and exited Wier every day.

The team of three carriages was so small that it was difficult to attract attention.
