

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2356

Married at First Sight Chapter 2356-“Thanks.” Elisa took the bouquet of flowers and thanked him, and then said: “You know that you bought me a bouquet here at Seren, I feel a little embarrassed to go in with the bouquet like this.”

Remy said: “There’s nothing to be embarrassed about. Serenity is a witness to the matter between the two of us. Seeing that our relationship is so good, it’s too late for her to be happy for you. She won’t laugh.”

Remy took one of her hands and walked in side by side with her.

“That is, what Seren hopes most is to see me happy. I know, she always feels that it is her appearance that makes me and Zachary unable to be together. She thinks that she stole my happiness, even if she doesn’t say, I know all about it.” Elisa said, “She thinks too much. I have never blamed her, and I will not put the blame on her. Zachary and I have nothing to do with each other. Zachary never loved me. He didn’t give me the slightest promise. To be honest, if Serenity and I weren’t cousins, he wouldn’t even look at me.”

Remy understood and said: “It’s normal for Serenity to think that way. We will be happy in the future, so she can let go of her knots and won’t blame herself.”

Before Serenity and Zachary got married, Elisa was already pursuing Zachary.

That’s how Serenity felt that she had robbed Elisa of her happiness.

In Serenity’s eyes, Zachary and Elisa were well matched, talented and beautiful.

Elisa also talked with Serenity countless times about her heart, and made it clear that she would not blame Serenity for half a point. On the surface, Serenity seemed to let go, but in fact she still blamed herself in her heart. Only Elisa got happiness and Serenity could truly let go.

“I’m glad that Young Master York doesn’t like you, otherwise it wouldn’t be my turn. Elisa, no matter what others think of you, you are in my heart, and you are the best girl in the world. I feel lucky to spend my life with you hand in hand.”

Remy also raised Elisa's hand to his lips and kissed it.

Elisa smiled and said, "Okay, let's stop talking about the past, let's look forward."

Remy: "Okay, let's move on."

Elisa: "Remy, there is something I want to discuss with you."

Before entering the house, Elisa stopped, and she said to Remy: "First, we're getting engaged, and then we'll get the marriage certificate. The wedding won't happen right away. After Seren has given birth and confinement, we will get married. I don't want Seren to be absent from my wedding."

Pregnant women with big bellies generally don't go to other people's weddings. It's not about the implication or anything, but because there are too many people at the wedding and they are afraid of being bumped into.

Serenity only conceived this child one year after her marriage. In the eyes of her relatives, Serenity had a difficult pregnancy. Everyone paid special attention to her child, so naturally she couldn't make any mistakes.

Remy smiled and said, "What do I think it is? This trivial matter is up to you. Let's get engaged first. After getting the marriage certificate, we will hold the wedding after our cousin and nephew are born."

Just wait a few more months.

He could afford to wait.

Besides, Elisa said that after getting engaged, they would get a certificate, and they would be a legal couple after receiving the certificate.

Didn't Zachary and Serenity hold their wedding one year after they got the certificate?

Elisa: "Engagement banquet..."

Remy: "Let's do it in Wiltspoon. I've discussed it with my family. When the time comes, all my relatives and friends from the other side will fly over to attend our engagement banquet."

Elisa looked at him, he was always thinking about her.

Elisa said: "I want to say that the engagement banquet will be held in Annenburg. You are from Annenburg. I'm marrying you, not asking you to be my son-in-law."

Remy laughed, and said in a gentle voice: "It doesn't matter whether it's Annenburg or Wiltspoon, it's the same. I was thinking that I have been in Wiltspoon for many years, and most of my friends are also in Wiltspoon. You are also familiar with Wiltspoon. An engagement banquet will be held in Wiltspoon."