

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2427

Married at First Sight Chapter 2427-Serenity quickly said: “Got it, I was just pregnant. I didn’t know I was pregnant. I ran a lot outside and felt a little pain in my lower abdomen. When I found out I was pregnant, I was shocked.”

At that time, She didn’t dare to tell Zachary, for fear that Zachary would be worried.

Zachary thought that she was pregnant and would not be able to travel far away for her honeymoon, and wanted to take her on a self-driving tour in Wiltspoon. She said it out because she thought that the self-driving tour would also make her tired.

Hearing that it happened in the past, Zachary felt relieved.

Since knowing she was pregnant, Serenity had indeed reduced her workload.

She would not run around with Elisa again.

Working in the company would not tire her out. Her physical fitness was pretty good. After all, she was someone who had practiced boxing and kicking, and she was not spoiled.

In fact, Zachary really wanted to persuade her to stay at home to raise a baby after the marriage leave, knowing that she would not agree, besides, after the marriage leave, she was nearly three months pregnant, and she was able to secure the baby, as long as she no longer behaved like before. Running around, it didn’t have much impact.

After all, Zachary didn’t persuade her, lest there would be an unpleasant scene on the first day of their wedding.

He also believed that Serenity would not make fun of the child, if she couldn’t hold on, she would never hold on, so that she could go out and do some easy things.

For example, she went to the bookstore to look at the bookstore with Jasmine or look at the documents in the company and arranged work for her subordinates so that her life would be more fulfilling and she would be in a good mood, which was beneficial to the healthy development and growth of the fetus.

Serenity: "Honey, go out and entertain guests. I'll sleep for a while. If I'm still sleeping when you come back, don't wake me up. If I wake up, I'll send you a message and bring me something to eat."

"Alright." Zachary responded dotingly, and kissed her forehead again.

Serenity, who was exhausted, fell asleep without a struggle.

Zachary saw that it didn't take five minutes for her to fall asleep, and he knew that she was really exhausted.

Originally, after she was pregnant, she was lethargic. If no one called her, she would sleep in bed all day without even eating.

She was exhausted today, and even more sleepy.

Zachary's gentle big palm landed on her still flat lower abdomen, and the pregnancy was still young, so he couldn't feel the existence of the little baby in her belly.

In two or three months, he will be able to feel the fetal movement.

Zachary leaned down, kissed Serenity's stomach, and whispered to her stomach: "Baby, you have to be good, don't torment your mother, let mother sleep well."

After sitting for a few more minutes, Zachary stood up and walked out of the wedding room lightly.

When other people get married, some people may make trouble in the bridal chamber, but when Zachary got married, no one dared to make trouble in the bridal chamber.

At the wedding banquet, everyone knew that Serenity should not drink alcohol. No wonder Young Master York's wedding was held ahead of schedule. It turned out that the young lady was pregnant.

Back then, those people secretly ridiculed Serenity as a hen that couldn't lay eggs, and those who waited for Serenity to be kicked out of the York family because of infertility were extremely disappointed now.

Serenity could get pregnant, and was now pregnant.

Under such circumstances, even if someone wanted to take advantage of the big day to make a fuss, they would not dare to take any action. If something happened to the baby in Serenity's belly, they would not be able to bear the responsibility.

Seeing Zachary sending Serenity back to the wedding room, and coming out after staying for a long time, Zachary was alone, knowing that Serenity was resting, no one would say anything.

Pregnant women are prone to fatigue.

Although Zachary returned to entertain the guests at the wedding banquet, he didn't stay for too long. As soon as it got dark, he left and went back to his room to accompany his wife.

As for the full house of guests, there were so many of his younger brothers, so he left it to them.

Then, at Zachary's wedding, it was his younger brothers and the best man group who were drunk. Even Serenity's bridesmaid group were not spared. At the end of the wedding banquet, all of them were drunk and needed someone to support them to walk.