I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2367-“W-Why are we going out?” Celeste stammered.

“Don’t worry about it, I’ll tell you later.”

After David finished speaking, without waiting for Celeste to react, he grabbed her directly, and with a sway of his body, they came to an empty hillside outside.

It was not until this moment that Celeste became calmer.

“David, why did you come to see me so late?”

“Celeste, I need to ask you a favor.”

“What’s the matter? Tell me, you can skip the formalities with me.”

“Well, you see...”

David took out the delicate wooden box that sealed his blood essence and soul and explained to Celeste how to unseal it.

Celeste’s talent was unquestionable, and she learned quickly.

Taking the small wooden box from David’s hand, she asked curiously, “David, what’s in it? Why don’t you open it yourself?”

“Celeste, don’t ask. I’ll explain after you open it. Now, open it and try,” David urged.

He was very nervous.

He had been working hard for a whole month, day and night, and this was the moment that would determine if he succeeded or failed.

For the past month, he had endured the pain of tearing his soul every night, till even David could not stand it.

Seeing that David was anxious, Celeste did not continue asking and started to unseal the box as David had taught her.

Although she wondered why David did not want to open it himself, she was not at all worried that David would harm her.

Celeste completely trusted David.

To put it bluntly, David was the one who gave her life.

If it weren't for David, she would still be in the ice cavern now, waiting for the cold air to completely corrode her body and turn her into an emotionless machine.

The seal was not complicated.

In just a few seconds, Celeste opened it.

She just learned, so if she practiced more, she would be faster.

The clones were used to fight powerful enemies or in response to emergencies.

Naturally, the seal could not be too complicated.

Otherwise, they would be subdued before they could even open it.

After unlocking the seal, Celeste saw that the blood essence filled with terrifying power fly out of the small box automatically.

When she saw this essence, Celeste felt cold all over her body as if she was frozen by the extremely cold air. She could not move at all.

A heartfelt fear arose spontaneously.

'How scary!

'Just a drop of blood essence alone exudes such a terrifying pressure. How strong must the owner of this blood essence be?

'How terrifying!

'Where the hell did David get this?'

Celeste had no idea that the owner of the blood essence was David beside her.

David usually used the hide function of the system to hide his strength.

The moment the blood essence flew out.

The entire Iridescent Continent shook inexplicably.

It seemed afraid of this huge force.

A single drop of blood essence out of David's control made the entire Iridescent Continent unbearable. This showed how powerful David was.

A continent of a level 7 civilization was normally unable to withstand a single drop of blood essence from an Overlord.
